FLY TIME IS HERE

Right now is the time to swat the fly. The most effective way is to rid the premises of every particle of filth and trash whatsoever. Manure piles are the greatest breeding places for flies but that is not the only place they breed. Toilet vaults, garbage dumps, pig pens, cow lots, etc., are breeding places as well. Greatest care should be used in eliminating all these evils then see to the screens. Next time a fly meanders around on your dining table, walks over the dishes and perhaps the food you are about to eat, stop and meditate upon just where that fly may have been before he graced (?) your dining table. It won't take an unusual imagination to picture his flight from some filthiest of filth direct to your food and ten chances to one, yes, ninety-nine chances out of one hundred, you eat the filth he deposits. This is a "beautiful little thought" and not exactly the sort to induce a ravenous appetite, but it is the truth just the same. Swat the fly. He is one of the filthiest little beasts that live and is no respecter of persons. Swat him now.

MORE CITY IMPROVEMENT

Beaver seems to have awakened in earnest from the peaceful (?) repose which it begun to look like was going to claim us all as victims of its sleeping sickness. Among other improvements now going on the town council at its last meeting took steps to replace the inadequate culvert on Second street, leading to the court house, with a big cement flume, plenty large to carry all the flood waters such as have been dealing misery to the residents in that section in the past. With the installation of this big flume the high street north of the court house will be cut down, the court house square curbed and walks laid connecting the business district with the court house and connecting up with the line of walks now leading to the Methodist church and the grade school building. With this work done how about a little effort toward beautifying the court house grounds. That location is a most desirable one and might well be transformed into a beauty spot. In the present unkempt condition it is an eyesore. We know the county is short of funds but where could a few hundred dollars be spent to better advantage than right there? How about it, your honors, the honorable board of county commissioners? People from the entire county visit the county seat, usually once a year, many times often. It is their county seat and their court house square. We believe they would appreciate seeing it transformed into an attractive ground. How about it? Let us hear from the people.

Rev Brown is clerking at the Tracy Hardware Company store and will be employed there during the absence of the manager, W. H. Thomas, who leaves next week for a vacation in California.

W. A. Gregory sold his meat market equipment this week to S. F. Whitney of Hooker thus closing out the meat department of his business. He will enlarge his grocery stock and continue that line.

The Herald is glad to welcome a nice budget of news from Clear Creek this week. We trust that this new correspondent may let us hear from that section regularly each week.

John Goetzinger and family expect to leave soon on a motor trip to Iowa and Illinois. Mr. Goetzinger purchased a Buick car this week from R. A. Maple, in which the family will make the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Savage and their son Jack left Sunday for Wichita, Kansas, where the latter will receive treatment for his eyes, he having been troubled for some time with a granular trouble.

Will Brown and wife were Beaver visitors from the Kiowa Saturday and while here visited at the home of Mrs. Brown's brother, County Attorney and Mrs. Ed Gardner.

George Cuffy, cashier of The Bank of Beaver City, returned Sunday from a trip to Enid and other points.

Mrs. Sam Meador, principal of the Beaver grade school the past year, left the past week for Alva where she will attend summer school.

Hugh McFarland is able to be out again this week after an illness of several days.

WOMEN ARE FOR DEFENSE BY ARMY AND NAVY

That the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion is behind the effort of the Republicans in Congress to maintain an adequate Army and Navy for national defense is evidenced by a resolution which was read to the Senate.

"Whereas, through the publicity given the views of certain well-meaning women the impression is gaining ground that the women of the Nation desire immediate disarmament; and

"Whereas, there is no body of women with greater right or better qualified to speak on this subject than the mothers, wives, sisters, and daughters of veterans of the World War, such as those who comprise the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion; and

"Whereas, although such women, having freely risked and in thousands of cases lost their loved ones in the service of our Nation must therefore fully realize the horrors of war, the blessings of peace, and the desirability of disarmament when the proper time comes, nevertheless these women, above all others, are impressed with the facts: First, that it took the United States a year to prepare a co-ordinated Army and Navy for effective service in the World War; second, that had we not powerful allies fighting for us during that period of preparation, the result might have been disastrous in loss of lives and possible defeat to our unprepared forces; third, that primarily wars are not the result of armaments, but, contrariwise, wars existed before armaments, and armaments are the result of the desire not to be defeated in probable wars; fourth, that the present international situation, as well as past history, gives no promise that the dreams of the ultra-pacifists are about to be realized and the days of war to end; and fifth, that other nations, some of whose armaments exceed that of the United States, are not disarming; Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the women who have been so closely touched by war prefer to pay for armament of a size and efficiency which will make all nations hesitate to attack us, rather than to pay vastly more dearly not only in money, but in lives, in a war of unprepared against well-prepared forces."

GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

Many of us will remember those happy days of our childhood when we stood fascinated before the huge pendulum of the big "Grandfather's Clock" in the draughty hall-way of the old homestead. As the ponderous pendulum swung towards the extremity of its flight for immature minds sometimes doubted if the return swing would occur. It always did.

Today we are not concerned with the mechanics of an inanimate time-piece, but with something of far greater importance—the swings in the Pendulum of Business. No one will dispute the fact that Business and the Stock Market are now at or near the low point of this broad fundamental movement. Let us ask "when will the definite upward movement begin?"

Sad to relate, a small number of investors imagine that normal business and normal security prices are gone never to return. It is useless to argue with such persons who dare to doubt the recuperative powers of the United States. They belong with the infinitesimal minority and are classed with the draft-dodgers and Bolsheviks. The vast majority have faith in the future of this country and are giving concrete evidence of their confidence.

Eventually the clouds overhanging the Business World will disappear. Behind each of them the sun, symbol of normal business conditions, is shining. National resources will have little to do with the adoption of an optimistic attitude. Past experience teaches that every depression has been followed by good business. This statement of fact may be better than a volume of arguments. We must never allow ourselves to lose hope in the future of this country. Our wealth has scarcely been scratched. We are a mighty people, and the next ten years should witness an industrial expansion, bringing to all prosperity transcending any former decade.

CANADA FOR PROTECTION

Washington, April.—Acknowledgment of the Canadian government that a protective tariff is essential to national prosperity is made by E. J. Davis, chairman of the Tariff Commission of Canada, a report of which has just been received here.

In the headlines of this report appears the following unexpected British doctrine:

"Tariff situation thoroughly discussed. Official records show that there is not one country in the world today making any pretension to industrial development that is without a protective tariff. Where Canada stands in tariff matters."

The report states further: "Every resident of the United Kingdom paid a customs tariff tax on the average of about $16 last year. In Canada last year the average per capita tariff tax, including the war tariff, now removed, was about $23 or without the war tariff, about $19.50. Yet some people describe Great Britain as a free-trade country and Canada as a high-tariff country."

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy

Every family should keep this preparation at hand during the hot of the summer months. It is almost sure to be needed, and when that time comes, is worth many times its cost. Buy it now.

CLEAR CREEK

Sunday school is being organized at the Elmwood school house Sunday the 29th. Everybody come and boost.

Fred Turner of Branson, Colorado, has been here the past few days visiting his father and mother and other relatives on the creek.

Fred Plain of Valley, New Mexico, is also back to Clear Creek transacting business and visiting friends.

Frank Flynn, who has been seriously ill, is still at the Liberal hospital. He has been reported as feeling some better.

Gerald Hibbs is back home again after spending nine months in Beaver attending high school.

Mrs. T. D. Campbell and son, Tim, visited Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Sarah Blusser, Sunday of last week.

Mr. Rixley and daughter Edna were in Beaver Saturday. Miss Edna is taking music lessons under her former teacher, Mrs. O. D. Smith.

Miss Ruth Ellis is back home again after attending high school at Forgan.

Mrs. Will Blosser has been seriously ill the past week but is feeling some better at this time.

Al Blosser of Elmwood made a business trip to Follett, Texas, Friday of last week.

A. A. Haskell, who has been suffering from a seriously bruised limb is now able to walk around some without his crutches.

Beaver high school students spent a very pleasant day in the Blosser grove Friday of last week.

Arthur Turner, of Lipscomb, Texas, is up visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Turner.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

CLEAR LAKE

Cecil Snell's little boy, Wilbur, is sick with scarlet fever, at this writing.

Ruth Blood spent Friday with Charlotte and Alice Roberts.

There was a large crowd at the party at Mr. Klepper's Thursday evening. Everyone had a nice time. Ice cream and cake were served.

Earl Murray arrived from New Mexico Tuesday evening.

Quite a few from around Clear Lake went to Gate Wednesday.

Ray Blood spent a few days of last week with Will Dunlop.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Dunlop called on Mrs. Clyde Coleman Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murray spent Wednesday with Mrs. Bloomer.

Mrs. R. L. Snell is out to her son Cecil's helping to care for her grandson.

Bert Blood and his daughter went to Beaver Tuesday.

John Klepper made a trip to Laverne Tuesday afternoon.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

LORENA

Rain in abundance fell Tuesday and Tuesday night. Some hail fell.

J. B. McNew and family and Mrs. J. W. Nickeson returned from Colorado Tuesday evening. Mrs. McNew and Mrs. Nickeson's mother was better when they left. She has been quite ill.

Everett Combs of Arkansas, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to his home Tuesday morning. Tuesday afternoon a telegram came for him stating that his three-year-old daughter had died.

Bro. Parsons preached at Independence Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Eugene Williams, who has been in Liberal a few days taking osteopathic treatment, returned to her home Wednesday.

The Loyalty Class will take dinner at R. W. Vogt's home Sunday. They are being entertained by Mrs. Vogt and Mrs. Fouts.

Frank Wheeler has been on the sick list for a few days.

Harry Wheeler, Robt. Arnold, Joe Freeman and others of Liberal, were caught in the rain Tuesday evening and stayed all night with Frank Wheeler.

R. W. Vogt's and A. J. Fouts' spent last Sunday at H. W. Vogt's near Gray. C. E. has been reorganized at Lone Star with Mr. Hyatt as president.

A. J. Nix and family took dinner with Mrs. M. A. Casady, the Anderson's took dinner at R. L. Hill's, and several of the young folks spent Sunday at A. J. Elliott's.

Some of the farmers want to attend the Tractor and Threshermen's meeting at Beaver next Saturday.

FOLLETT

May 27. Some two weeks since a common greeting when friends met was, "Do you suppose we'll have to buy coal all summer?" Today we hear the same ones asking the old question, "Is this hot enough for you?"

Mr. and Mrs. Ellison and two children will start tomorrow by auto to visit Mr. Ellison's father, who is seriously ill at Cleo, Kansas.

The Stork left a baby girl at the Roy Durfee home Monday of this week.

Mr. Harris, mother of Dee Harris and who has been sick at his home north of town, died last Sunday. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Kroeker and the body tenderly laid away beside other dear ones in the Catesby cemetery.

Miss E. E. Harlan passed thru Follett Tuesday enroute to Shattuck, where she took the train for a visit to her old home in Ohio. Mr. Harlan accompanied her as far as Shattuck and her daughter, Mrs. McClurg, stopped off for a few hours visit with friends in Follett till her father returned.

Rev. Hogan of May, Holiness evangelist, and his helpers, are preaching to crowds at the hall every night this week. Services will be held on the street Saturday night.

A goodly number of Follettites went to Gate Tuesday to see the oil well shot and came back rather disappointed. Reminds us of our first aeroplane flight in Follett that did not materialize.

The writer was a guest of the Lucious Ellison home, after church, last Sunday. First trip to the country this spring. Another notable event, delicious home grown strawberries with cake were served for dessert. The first strawberries we have seen grown in the Panhandle. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilder and sister, Miss Wilson and niece, little Miss Frances Wilder.

Mrs. John Reid and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hascall have gone to Hannibal, Mo., by auto. Started last Wednesday via Englewood, Kansas.

Some of the elect ladies of our little city have formed a hiking club. They arise with the birds (if there were any), enjoy to the full the fresh morning air and the view. Any way one may look is simply magnificent in the rising sun. Yes, Follett certainly has the "views."

Miss Leola Walker, who was graduated from high school at Shattuck last week, has gone to Alva to attend summer school.

M. O. Sharpe, rural mail carrier, is taking a vacation and Homer Price is substituting for him.

Miss Elsie Montgomery won the prize for highest grade in the children's catechism class and was presented with a nicely bound copy of the New Testament, by the pastor, Rev. Paul Osman, last Sunday.

Wedding bells! We know but we won't tell.

Rev. Hayes, Mrs. Hayes and daughter Miss Ruth, of Forgan, passed thru Follett last Monday on their way to Spearman to spend a few days with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Haines. This scribble acknowledges a pleasant call from these friends, tried and true.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

TWIN MOUND

Very hot and sultry this afternoon with signs of rain.

Mrs. Debby Young did not leave on Wednesday as she had intended, on account of the big rain and hail storm on Tuesday evening. Most all the farmers in this neighborhood lost most of their wheat. Some have begun plowing it up and putting in broom corn. Most all the planting that was done will have to be planted over.

Ben Douglas spent Sunday with Russell Martin also his cousin Ervay Boothe.

Card Blood and Roy Bell took dinner with Manly Boothe, Sunday.

Ernest Shiner came in from K. C. this week to visit his parents and other relatives.

Hiram Boothe is doing carpenter work for Andrew Pierson this week.

James Ryan took a load of grain to Darrouzett today.

Juanita Ragan and children spent Wednesday with their Grandma Booth.

The party at O. C. Klepper's was well attended and everyone enjoyed a fine evening with lots of ice cream and cake.

The folk that went to Gate last Wednesday to see the oil well shot got caught in the storm and had to stay all night along the road when the storm came on, and then never saw anything. Quite a trip.

Mr. McVicker lost a cow by lightning Wednesday.

NORTH FORK

Jasper Holmes and wife from Fairview are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson and looking after their farms in this locality.

Mrs. Walter Beach is enjoying a visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, from Enid.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Byrd spent the day Sunday visiting at the Arthur Williams home.

Little Nera Hilbrand has been taking chiropractic treatments at Forgan the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rush spent the day Sunday with Lloyd Gensman and wife.

Miss Ruth Mesner entertained a crowd of young people Sunday afternoon playing croquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boyer were business callers at Walter Smith's Friday.

Mrs. Willis Byrd was having some dental work done at Follett Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Daily and Roy Hennigh drove over to Laverne Friday to attend the funeral of Mr. Daily's cousin, Mrs. Harry Evanston.

The Mothers' Club banquet was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mesner Saturday night. Some sixty odd guests were present. Fruit salad, cake and cocoa were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mahaffey were making business calls in this neighborhood Tuesday afternoon.

Lee Sims and wife were callers at the Arthur Williams home Monday.

The Mothers' Club met with Mrs. Robert Hudson Thursday on account of the rain and muddy roads the preceding day. There was not a very large attendance but the ladies who were present spent a very busy day tacking comforts for the hostess.

George Hennigh and family and Roy Hennigh and family attended high school exercise at Beaver Thursday evening.

Mrs. Newt Burleson spent a few days the last of the week visiting her aunt Mrs. E. G. Legg.

Mrs. Anderson has been on the sick list the past week.

"That's My Home"

THE planning and building of your home is of no interest whatever to your neighbor, but to you it is a very important task—an achievement that you will want to be able to point to with pride, and say—"that's MY home!"

Here is a home that will enable you to do that—a home of which any man could well be proud. It is of English type with five rooms, though from the outside it appears much larger.

Downstairs are three rooms—living room, dining room, and kitchen. Upstairs there are two large bedrooms, each with a roomy closet adjoining. The bath room is conveniently located, and as it is directly over the kitchen, the same plumbing is permitted for both rooms.

This is a Trowbridge & Ackerman home, being designed by those noted New York architects. And this is but one of 200 home designs from which you can make your selection. Other equally beautiful homes of four different architectural types—Colonial, English, Western, and Southern, and ranging in size from three to eight rooms, are shown in portfolios.

You should have one of these portfolios to help you in the planning and selection of your new home. And if you wish we will obtain one for you.

Turn your home building dreams into realities and start action immediately on your new home.
