SUICIDE.

Coroner Boozer was summoned last Tuesday to hold an inquest over the body of J. P. Sloan who killed his wife a few days ago in Newberry. The circumstances of the attempted arrest and subsequent self murder are as follows: Mr. Thomas F. Ray, of Newberry county, was returning home from a visit to relatives in the upper portion of this county, and in passing the store of J. P. Little at the Boyce place, saw Sloan and determined to arrest him. He obtained a warrant of arrest from trial Justice L. W. Copeland, and having secured the assistance of five other men set out in pursuit—the posse came in sight of the fugitive about eight miles from where Mr. Ray first saw him at the brick house place of George F. Young. Sloan discovered his pursuers when they were about forty yards from him. He immediately drew his pistol and took refuge behind a negro house near by, and immediately began firing. Three deliberate shots were fired, and the posse hearing these and thinking themselves to be the objects fired at, halted a few minutes. A short time after the shooting had ceased they advanced and found Sloan behind the house dead, having inflicted upon himself three mortal wounds. Two balls had entered the neck just above the collar bone, and ranging downward had passed out through the back, just under the shoulder blade. The other ball entered the breast making its exit near where the two had passed out. Two colored women who were eye witnesses to the shooting testified that they saw Sloan open his vest and shoot himself.

There was found upon the body of the wretched victim fifty-five dollars and fifty-five cents in cash, one pocket knife, two cartridges, one pistol with three empty shells, one empty chamber and one loaded chamber which had been tried but had failed to fire.

Undertaker Chapman from Newberry came with a hearse and casket, and on Wednesday morning removed his remains to Newberry.

POSTMASTER REMOVED.—Last week Mr. Long, agent of the P. O. Department for this district, visited Union to inspect the affairs of the postoffice at this place and discovered a deficiency in the money order department of from $500 to $700. Mr. J. H. Goss, the postmaster, was cited to appear before the United States Court at Greenville and his bondsmen were notified to make good the deficiency and appoint some one of their number to take charge of the office until a new appointment is made by the department at Washington. The deficiency was promptly paid and Mr. B. F. Baily placed in charge of the office.

Who the new Post Master will be we have no idea of, but we learn that five or six applications for the position have been forwarded to the department. Judging from similar appointments in counties around us, we can hardly expect that a democrat will be appointed here, but a decent respect for the interests of the people and business of the town and county, it appears to us, should move the department to appoint a responsible and respectable person to that important position.—Union Times.

Henry Magee, Boston agent of the Monarch line of steamers, was arrested last week by detectives in full dress just after the minister had pronounced the closing words of his marriage ceremony in the presence of a fashionable company at the bride's home. Magee was accused of embezzlement and spent the first night of his wedded life in a station house instead of starting on an extended tour as he intended.

Hon. Nathan Barnett, democratic candidate for re-election to the office of Secretary of State in Georgia, is ninety years old, and has held the office since 1842, excepting during the brief carpet-bag regime.

A Denver physician has failed financially, and has thus acquired the title of "Dr." at both ends of his name.

The republican convention of Richland county met at Columbia on Friday. Resolutions were passed in favor of nominating a republican candidate for Congress in the fourth district, and recommending to the State convention the advisability of placing a full republican ticket in the field. Andrew Curtis, S. F. Lopez, W. M. Fine and E. W. Weston were elected delegates to the State convention, and Theo. Ingalls, James Lasker, R. P. Campbell and June Mobley were elected delegates to the congressional convention. The call for the time and place of the meeting of the congressional convention has not been made by its chairman, John Scruggs, of Greenville.

The Columbia scandal is still the main subject in Columbia. Mrs. McDaniel has instituted suit against A. E. Fugle, another one of her slanderers as she claims for $10,000; but she has no hopes collecting from either one of the parties to the suit should judgment be rendered in her favor, for the parties have nothing. Her idea is that by securing judgment in her favor it will exonerate her from the charge made against her reputation. The trial gives promise of being an interesting one.

William Walter Phelps is rich. He is a Yale graduate. He is Blane's right-hand man. Another Yale graduate offered to pay $10,000 into the college treasury if Phelps would give an explanation of Blaine's Little Rock railroad transactions which President Woolsey would say was not discreditable to Blaine. This honorable challenge has not been accepted. Mr. Phelps is afraid to test.

Mr. George Johnstone takes his defeat in the congressional race gracefully and cheerfully. Of course he feels some disappointment, but he is not moping over it; and if Col. Aiken shall need any assistance in his race Mr. Johnstone will do all he can for him, as he has heretofore, and will do his full share of the work of the campaign wherever and whenever work is needed.—Newberry Observer.

Gen. Logan has been invited by the Georgia republican State committee to visit that State during the month of October and deliver addresses at Atlanta, Macon, Augusta, Savannah and Columbus. It is intimated that General Logan will accept the invitation.
