CHIEF JACKSON GENIAL HOST

McGees Gift Used in Joint Celebration—Fireman's Banquet Quite a Success

(From Thursday's Daily.)

There was a delightful supper at the city hall last night given by the members of the Anderson Fire Department and a number of invited guests were present. The supper was given largely in compliment to the splendid citizen, Mr. J. L. McGee, who recently made a handsome present of a check to the fire department in recognition of the services of the men during the fire which destroyed his stables and but for the plucky and determined efforts of the firemen would have destroyed a large part of the city. In acknowledging the daring and courageous work of the fire department, Mr. McGee has stated that "Every man was in his place and every man was doing his duty." It was a matter of regret to the members of the department that Mr. McGee could not be present, as he was ill.

The table was loaded with fully helped plates, a regular dinner of the kind that "Teddy" would call "palmy," which means enough with some to spare. The tables were spread in the council chamber, which many voted was a good use to which to devote this precinct of government. Mrs. Jackson, the splendid wife of the chief of the fire department, had the supervision of this part of the evening, and with the ladies who assisted her gave a dinner that was appetizing and satisfying to all.

All of the firemen were present and the aldermen and several citizens. The presiding officer of the occasion was ex-mayor John K. Hood, who, after the firemen and helpers had distinguished as much as they could of the vands, and they needed no pressure at all on this occasion, presented several who made short talks. Mr. Hood paid a glowing tribute to the bravery of the firemen, commenting happily upon the similarity of names of the chief of Anderson's fire department and that great fighter under fire who is immortalized in American history, "Stonewall" Jackson.

Dr. Fraser, chaplain of the department, Mr. J. D. Hammett and all of the members of the council were called upon for short talks and each responded in a manner which showed their confidence in the integrity and ability and courage of the chief of the department and his well trained and patriotic and active assistants. Mr. J. E. Florida spoke eloquently as the representative of Mr. McGee and William Banks, J. M. Cochran from among the business were called upon for a few words.

Alderman Keys Gilmer made an eloquent reference to the firemen who had lost their lives and asked for a monument to be reared to their memory.

Alderman McClure, acting upon the suggestion of Mr. Hammett and Alderman Carter, called for a special meeting of council to make arrangements for the firemen to be given a trip to Florence to the meeting of the State Firemen's Association and the annual tournament. Mr. Elmore, mayor pro-tem, referred the matter to the fire committee. Mr. Hammett asked the privilege of the citizens being permitted to contribute to a fund to assist in defraying any expenses. This was accepted with pleasure.

Chief Jackson, being too modest to respond to any of the deserved compliments which had been paid him, Mr. Hood made a few beautiful remarks in closing, congratulating the citizens in whatever station of service or in whatever walk of life he might be found.

The evening was closed with the singing, "My Country 'Tis of Thee." The sentiment of all of the speakers was that Anderson has a capable, efficient and determined fire fighting force and that the city rests secure in the protection afforded by this company so far as human agency is possible.

FOREST ADAIR COMPLIMENTED

Hisent of Atlanta Will Make Him a Hero in Present.

Atlanta, May 20.—Forest Adair, illustrious pilot of the Yearly Temple and the man who brought the national Shrine convention to Atlanta, has added further to his laurels. He has added further for one time only as the hero of a motion picture scenario, and has become an illustrious potentate can be some actor!

An enterprising local producer had the happy idea last week that the glorious decorations and pageants and crowded street scenes in Atlanta would make a lively and magnificent setting for a motion picture drama. He put it on and managed to get Mr. Adair and other Atlantians to take a part as members of the cast. Consequently, Mr. Adair's familiar face is being seen on the screen of a Peachtree motion picture theatre, along with the famous matinee idols of the movies.

And Mr. Adair is a bigger hero than any of them, as the big voluntary fund of $2,146 raised to buy him a tribute of appreciation from the public tonight. His admirers have not yet let it be known what they are going to buy for him, but it will be some thing that can be handed down in the Adair family as the heirloom for future generations.

Mr. Adair has been tendered a royal dinner last night by the Yearly Temple, at the beautiful new Grand Hills golf club.

After U. S. Fruit Company.

Trenton, N. J., May 19.—In the supreme court today Justice Swaine made an order requiring the United Fruit Company, a New Jersey corporation with offices in Boston, to show cause in Jersey why it may not be allowed to maintain a stockholders' suit against the company which is in this state its books and accounts to allow a stockholder to inspect them.

GOT SAVANNAH'S GOAT

Atlanta Shriners Make Merry on Their Great Capture.

Atlanta, May 20.—A festive goat—Savannah's—which was kicking his heels about Bull street in the Ocean City last week and browsing on the tender grass at the foot of the Oglethorpe monument, is today eating hay and old shoes in the North Avenue fire department in Atlanta, having been captured and brought back a prisoner by the Yaara Shriners who invaded Tybee on the big excursion.

The goat has been christened "Tybee" in memory of the trip; the christening ceremony was elaborate, instead of watering used, or wine as in the case of a battleship, the Shriners employed a bottle of light brown liquid that foamed as it ran over his beard and into his eyes. It was quite a propitious christening, and the proud goat-getters are rejoicing in the way they put it over on their brother nobles in Savannah.

STORM IN GERMAN PARLIAMENT

Socialist Members offer Nub to the Kaiser Himself.

Berlin, May 20.—Confusion and uproar today marked the closing session of the imperial parliament. The socialist members instead of retiring from the chamber before the usual cheers for the emperor were called for, kept their seats, from which they refused to rise.

Speaker Johannes Gaempff immediately called attention to this conduct of respect to the emperor upon which the socialists shouted "That is our affair," but tried to drown the cheers with hoots and hisses.

TWO AMERICANS WIN GOLF HONORS

Evans and Weber Near the Finals in Championship Battle on Links in England

Sandwich, Eng., May 20.—The excellent playing of Charles W. Evans, Jr., of Chicago and Harold Weber, of Toledo, carried them through to victory in their respective contests today in the British amateur golf championship tournament and they now are the sole remaining representatives of the United States for the next round.

Francis Outmet, the American, open champion; Frederick Herresoff, New York, and Arthur G. Lockwood, Massachusetts, lost their matches.

In the fourth round tomorrow Evans will meet C. B. MacFarlane a Scottish international, who won his way to the semi-final two years ago, and was runner up in the French championship the same year. MacFarlane is the best player that Evans yet has had to meet.

Weber is drawn with Captain Cecil Hutcheson, another Scottish international, whose record is even better than that of MacFarlane.

Weber was two matches today, defeating his first opponent by seven up and six to play and his second opponent in the third round by two up.

Outmet's defeat by the youthful player Tubbs, of Little Stone, was unexpected, for Tubbs is little known outside of Little Stone. Tubbs was "scared" there when he was 17 years old Outmet was off in his second and third shots today. His chief weakness lay in his failure to get distance in his approach in which he was often short.

Evans did poor work with his wood on clubs after the first nine holes, but he improved in putting, which had been indifferent going out. Although several times trapped, he finished well, winning the match by 3 up and 2 to play.

Herreshoff also finished strong in both his matches. He won handily in the morning contest by four up and three to play, but in the afternoon he could not quite wake up his bad start against the Ho; Michael Scott, the ex-champion of Australia and France, losing on the 18th green.

All the American players are planning to enter the French championship and all, except Travers will compete in the British open championship.

"Chick" Evans' mother was an interested spectator today. She followed her son about the course.

IN ATLANTA SOCIETY

Mrs. Stackpole Sees Husband for Divorce and Alimony.

Atlanta, May 20.—A society melodrama of real interest in Atlanta, was unfolded in the superior court this morning when Mrs. Alice Pauline Stackpole was awarded $100 per month temporary alimony from her husband, Charles E. Stackpole, prominent in social and club life in Atlanta.

She declares that Stackpole has run through $17,000 of her mother's fortune, borrowed some $4,000 more, from her which he spent in the same way, and then cast her off like "an old glove."

Mrs. Stackpole also asserts that before leaving her, her husband has treated her with great cruelty. She does not give especially of what the cruelty consists.

She asserts that Stackpole earns more than $6,000 a year and has asked the courts for $550 a month permanent alimony. Her attorneys state that his client has not yet decided as to whether she will sue for divorce or not.

Liverpool Shipowners Fail

Liverpool, May 20.—A receiver was appointed today to take charge of the affairs of the firm of Crow, Rudolf & Company, merchants and ship owners here. The liabilities are estimated at $1,500,000 of which $150,000 is attributed to the stoppage of a Pennsylvania bank involving the failure of an American firm heavily indebted to Crow, Rudolf & Company.

The receiver was appointed on petition of a New York bank.

FAMOUS RIFLEMEN ARE COMING HERE

Members of the Rutledge Squadron To Meet Here With Gen. C. A. Reed Night May 26th

Gen. C. A. Reed, who was a member of the famous Rutledge Riflemen during the War between the States, has written to all the surviving members of this famous squadron, inviting them to come to Anderson on May 26 and be his guests at his home for the afternoon and evening of that day. Gen. Reed plans for a magnificent buffet supper for the Riflemen and he will see to it that they are entertained every minute before the reunion convenes on the morning of May 27.

In discussing the reunion of these famous forces, Gen. Reed said that many of them probably would succeed in getting only 15 or 20 of them. Anderson, many of them were killed in battle, numbers have since died and several of those still living are unable to make the trip to Anderson.

The Rutledge Riflemen were organized at Charleston during the early part of the war but when it became a squadron it was necessary to take in other parts of the State and during that time Gen. Reed and Col. J. C. Stribling of Fidelity, both became members of the company.

If these men come to Anderson they will receive a hearty welcome because there is no doubt but that they were among the bravest soldiers in all the war.

HOTEL CHANGES SOON UNDERWAY

Directors Met Yesterday In Annual Session and Authorized That Changes Be Made

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The directors of the Anderson Improvement Association, owning the Chiquola hotel, met in the parlors of the hotel yesterday, at noon, at which time the body authorized R. E. King, lessee of the hotel, to proceed at once with the changes and improvements in the hotel building. This will make a great difference in the appearance of the Chiquola and it will also add a great deal to Main street.

At yesterday's meeting of the directors B. F. Martin was re-elected president and treasurer of the company and R. E. King was re-elected secretary. All the old officers of the concern were also re-elected.

Mr. King said last night that as soon as he could confer with the architect he would proceed at once with the improvements and that the work would be underway within the next few weeks. It is planned to have the lobby of the hotel moved from Whittier street to Main street, the pool room in the rear of the hotel being done away and the portion of the building utilized for lobby space.

When all the improvements are completed the Chiquola hotel will be one of the handsomest and most up-to-date establishments of its kind in the State and it will be a credit, both to its owners and to the city of Anderson.
