

HARRIS ADMITTED TO BAIL IN SUM OF $2000

WHITE MAN WHO KILLED NEGRO IS OUT

PROTECTING SELF

Accounts Say That He Had Been Attacked By Infuriated Negro With a Knife Before Firing

(From Sunday's Daily.) W. R. Harris, overseer of the Fretwell farm, was brought to Anderson at an early morning Saturday morning and lodged in jail on the charge of shooting and killing Lewis Goodie. Mr. Harris remained in jail all day Saturday and Saturday afternoon he was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000. As soon as Judge Prince returned to the city yesterday afternoon from Walhalla, where he has been holding court, Bonham, Watkins & Allan, attorneys for the defendant, appeared before the judge and secured the order granting a release to the defendant.

The story of the killing, as told to a reporter for The Intelligencer yesterday seems to show that the homicide was justified. According to this story, Lewis Goodie was employed as a farm hand on the Fretwell place and when the negro's wife appeared at the commissary Friday afternoon and asked for additional grocery supplies, she was told by A. G. Fretwell who had general supervision of the farm, that the negro's husband must do better in the way of keeping their cotton free of grass.

This angered the negro woman and after using abusive language to Mr. Fretwell, she turned up her husband, who was at work in the field, and reported the happening to him. He became infuriated and set out for his house, saying that he would "fix" Mr. Fretwell after he got his gun. He was intercepted before he reached the house by Harris, who attempted to reason with him. When Mr. Harris stopped the negro drew his knife and attacked the overseer, striking him with a knife in the left breast. Mr. Harris had a large watch in the top pocket of his jumper and the blade struck this, deflecting the blow and probably saving Harris' life. The negro struck again, cutting Mr. Harris' hand, whereupon the overseer drew his pistol and struck the negro over the head. Mr. Harris then warned Goodie to get out of the house. He will shoot, and the negro is said to have replied, "Well, you had better get ready, because I'm coming." The story goes that the negro then advanced on Mr. Harris shot. Two bullets took effect in the forehead, one in the right wrist and one in the side. lay on his face with his right hand clutching the knife.

When word reached Anderson of the happening, Coroner Hardin, Deputy Sanders and a physician went to the scene and began an investigation. A coroner's jury was empaneled and the highest held a verdict being returned to the effect that the deceased came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by W. R. Harris.

Mr. Harris is about 40 years of age and is a well known farmer. He is a candidate for county supervisor and enjoys a splendid reputation. The negro was 20 years of age and was said to have been of a vicious disposition. He had been in trouble a number of times and the officers say that he was a bad man.

It seems to be the general opinion that Mr. Harris was justified in killing the negro, doing so to save his own life and that he could not have done otherwise.

Another Account. Another account is that the negro had got into debt $150 for supplies and had come to loafing. Mr. Harris sent him word that his work was dragging. The negro waited until 6 o'clock and went to the field where Mr. Harris was working and demanded to know why the farm manager had sent him a message instead of coming in person. The negro cursed Mr. Harris, who clapped him on the side of his head with the pistol, and then the negro rushed Mr. Harris with the knife, exclaiming that he would butcher him. Mr. Harris might have been killed, but for his watch, which received the thrust of the negro's knife.

Goodie was a bad man and his own race is glad that he is dead. He beat his wife Friday last year. Goodie drove a white auto out of his own side with a pistol, so Coroner Hardin was informed.

NEGRO KILLED BY WHITE MAN

Affair Took Place Between Fair Play and Townville Some Time During the Afternoon

(From Saturday's Daily.) Anderson county officers last night received a message to the effect that a white man had killed a negro on the road between Fair Play and Townville. The message gave no details and merely stated that the negro and white man were from Townville and that the killing took place at the time of the intelligence going to press they had not returned.

Because of the fact that there is no telephone service with Townville after night, it was impossible last night to find out the names of the parties involved or how the killing was done. The only information available as to what means the white man employed in killing the negro, shook the money in their faces till they gave up and took it. Now what? The store to be remodeled, made into a 10-cent store, the up-to-date thing you ever saw, takes three moons to do it, and here are these groceries in the way. But minor knows how and Minor is going to do it. Minor says prices will draw the money from any man's pocket but these figures are strong enough to draw a man's eye teeth. No wonder everybody is making a bee-line to help move this stock.

BELTON FAIR ALREADY ASSURED OF SUCCESS

PEOPLE HERE YESTERDAY TOLD OF PLANS

BIG UNDERTAKING

Sister City Proposes To Show Anderson That Successful Fair Can Be Held In County

(From Sunday's Daily.) Time and time again a county fair has been proposed for Anderson county and each time the business men would say that they favored the plan and for a day or two it would seem that the hope was about to be realized, only to find the promoters finally give up the plan and another year would pass by without anything being done. The attempts to hold fairs were a failure because of poor management.

People living in Belton do not seem to believe in failure of this kind, and when they decide they want a thing they go after it. A number of Belton people were in Anderson yesterday and they told about the organization of their fair association and of the plans which they hope to carry out. They say that the success of the venture is already assured.

The members of the Belton fair association met last Wednesday morning and elected officers, appointed committees and fixed the date for the next annual fair. The following officers were elected: D. A. Ger, president; Dr. E. C. Frierson, vice president; E. G. Campbell, treasurer, and Claude A. Grafes, secretary. The fair, as usual, will be for one day only, and Wednesday, October 21, was named.

This fair promises to be the best ever pulled off in Belton, though the former were away the best annual fair. Thousands attend the annual fair in Belton. The rule is a little different from most fairs. No admission fee is charged. The exhibits will be large—the premiums will be numerous and the contest will be very exciting.

In the near future the premium list will be ready for distribution. All committees will meet in the next day or so and will get down to work. In the next week or so a boosting party will visit Anderson and other towns distributing advertising matter. This trip will be made in automobiles.

CONFERENCE ENDS SATISFACTORILY

Carranza's Forces and Troops Under Villa Move Toward Mexico City

(By Associated Press.) Saltillo, Mexico, via Laredo, Tex., July 10.—The conference in Torreon, which met to adjust the differences between Carranza and Villa have completed its labor to the satisfaction of the first chief of the Constitutionalist army, according to the announcement here tonight of Gustav Espinosa Morales, General Carranza's private secretary. Details of the conference were not made public.

It was announced however, that all generals of the division of the North, who had been in Carranza's authority and again expressed their adherence to the plan of Guadalupe provided for Carranza exercising executive authority in case the Constitutionalist succeeded, until elections can be held.

It was stated that troops under General Villa and those under General Pablo Gonzales would move southward tomorrow in a combined campaign with Mexico City as their goal. The expressions from Villa's generals came in lengthy telegrams of a congratulatory nature to which Carranza replied similarly.

OBITUARY

We were grieved when we heard of the death of our neighbor, Mr. Lewis Smith, which occurred on the 29th of June. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and an impressive discourse was delivered by Rev. Henry Marth. Mr. Smith was twice married. His first wife was Miss Amanda Wardlaw and by this union were four children, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Cator Erskine, Mrs. Newton Shirley and one son who was killed when quite young, many years ago at Mr. Frank Hammond's gin house. His last wife was Miss Rosa Long who survives him with three young children, Lewis, Vinnie and Joe. He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Granville Kay, Mrs. Brown Wardlaw and Amanda Smith. In their bereavement we tender our sympathy. At the opening of the civil war, Mr. Smith was among the first to volunteer his services and attached himself to the gallant command of Second Regiment of Rifles, Col. John V. Moore, Company I, commanded by Dr. Elip Brown. He was wounded at Spotsylvania, having been shot in the breast. A Testament in his pocket he always thought saved his life. He was at the surrender and made a brave and true soldier. Successful as his last rest for "he sleeps big and deep, he has fought his last battle." No sorrow shall awake him to story again. A Friend.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE BY ANOTHER STORM

HAIL FELL IN SEVERAL SECTIONS OF COUNTY

COTTON IS RUINED

Specimens Sent To This City Yesterday Showed That Stalks Were Ripped Into Shreds

The second disastrous storm of the season visited Anderson county Thursday afternoon, resulting in great damage. The Intelligencer reported yesterday morning that the storm had been particularly severe in some sections but it was impossible to get any definite information Thursday night as to the extent of the crop damage.

Farmers coming into the city yesterday reported that crops in some sections were practically ruined and that the cotton stalks had been shredded into fibres. It is believed that little of the cotton in the storm stricken district can make anything this year.

C. D. Hawkins of Anderson, R. F. D. No. 3, came to the city yesterday and brought some of his cotton along. It was cut almost to pieces and Mr. Hawkins says that he cannot bring himself to hope that he will make any sort of crop at all. He said that the storm practically devastated 16 acres of cotton for him in the Long Branch section. He said that from what he could ascertain as to the route taken by the hail storm, it was about six miles in length and extended about three and one-half miles in width.

In the Flat Rock section, visited only a few days ago by a very severe hail storm, lightning struck a barn owned by Walter Dean and burned it to the ground. He lost a quantity of food stuff at the same time. It is said that the hail storm along the Williamston highway was particularly severe and that crops there are ruined. Plantations belonging to Dr. J. C. Sanders and to L. W. Harris were about the worst sufferers in that section.

It is feared that still later reports will come in from other sections of the county telling of great damage done. Henry McFall, who was in the city yesterday, confirmed the report that his crop was ruined, as was that of J. S. McCarley. On his lower farm, where he has seven plows, Swillin McFall had the best crop prospects he had ever seen. But the hail has ruined his chances.

GOVERNOR'S RECORD ROUGHLY HANDLED

(Continued From Page One.) fraud of two years ago was on the other side and charged that a local Baptist preacher had enrolled two years ago the day before the election and voted against the governor.

He also made the accusation that men from the Southern Power Company, working here, but from North Carolina, were voted against him. Mr. Jennings made it clear to the Greenwood audience today just why the Governor should explain his record. At no time since the campaign opened has this fearless candidate huddled in such a rough-shod manner the governor's record. Today particular cases were cited, such as the Gus Richey case at Abbeville where a little orphan girl, taken from a mill village was assaulted by its adopted father who was convicted, but soon got the benefit of the governor's mercy. There were other cases and after each the mayor of Sumter would ask the rhetorical question, "Is there any wonder that the governor does not attempt to explain his record?" No utterance of the campaign has so seized upon the thoughtful attention of the voters.

PEACE NEAR SAY REPORTS

RATS ARE WORTH FIVE DOLLARS A PIECE

New Orleans, July 11.—"Any person finding a plague infected rat will be given a bounty of $5, provided the rat is properly tagged—where caught or if alive and where found if dead." This reward was offered today by Dr. William C. Rucker, assistant surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service, in charge of the rat destruction campaign to prevent a spread of the bubonic plague in New Orleans. Of the 3,300 rats examined not one has been found to be infected, it was announced. No new cases of the plague were reported to day, the total since the outbreak on June 27, remaining at four. Three deaths have occurred.

MUCH TROUBLE OVER NOTHING

MILL MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIVES COULD NOT AGREE

EMPLOYEES QUIT

The Matter Might Be Arranged in a Few Minutes By Arbitrators

Greenville, July 11.—There was no developments in the labor troubles at Monaghan today. The mill management had no announcement to make and the laborers took no active steps toward a settlement of the trouble.

Tonight about 400 members of the I. W. W. met in their hall and conducted an orderly meeting. It is this organization whose rules prohibit "overtime," and which caused the certain last time to be made up. The Monaghan mill has been closed since early Thursday morning when the I. W. W. members, who were employed in the weave room declined to abide by the rules of the company and make up time lost during a storm Wednesday.

No excitement prevails here and there has been no disorder from the first. Sheriff Ashley was here and was among those who made speeches to the I. W. W. The statement as to the cause of this strike is that the mill was shut down twice Wednesday for just a little over an hour and when the superintendents informed the help that the mill would run overtime, they refused and as the help is working by the piece and not by the day, there is no matter of pay involved.

A. F. Hunnicutt, one of the leaders of the I. W. W. and an operative in a local mill said yesterday that the organization stood for certain working hours as follows: The mill to start at six and run until noon, when a recess of one hour shall be given for dinner; then resume work and continue until six o'clock. The organization is opposed to overtime.

Call for Houses The management of the Monaghan mill gave notice Thursday that the houses at the village must be vacated by Saturday the 18th if the operatives decline to resume work. The occupants of the houses pay rent by the week, and so a week's notice, in compliance with law, was given. No formal statement was made by the I. W. W. It is generally understood that they object to overtime, and that it is this point which has caused the whole trouble.

AN EYE WITNESS SAID TO BE FOUND

Alleged to Have Seen Murder of Mrs. Bailey In Dr. Carmack's Office

Mineloa, N. Y., July 11.—An eye witness to the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, shot down in the private office of Dr. Edwin Carman at Freeport, has been found by District Attorney Lewis I. Smith. It was reported to county jail charged with the crime.

The one other important development in the case today was the declaration by George Levy, counsel for Mrs. Carman, that Cecelia Coleman, the Carman negro maid, who has played an important part as a witness for the defense, had been spirited away. Mr. Levy charged that the maid had been kidnapped by private detectives. District Attorney Smith denied any knowledge of the affair.

TYPHOID FEVER NOW IN VIRGINIA

Washington, July 11.—Virginia had a more unfavorable typhoid fever report than any other state in 1913, according to a statement today by the public health service, giving statistics reported to that service by the State health officers. In Virginia there were 5,965 cases of typhoid reported, which is 2,803 cases to every 1,000 population, the highest rating since 1904. South Dakota showed the best record with only 143 cases, or .222 case to every 1,000 inhabitants.

NEGROES IMMUNE TO Malaria Now Prevalent in North Carolina Mountains

Washington, July 11.—Results of an investigation of the mountain districts of North and South Carolina to determine how prevalent malarial disease is today. The survey was under the direction of Assistant Surgeon A. D. Foster and shows that the disease exists only in isolated localities. Conditions were found to be better than in the mountain sections of Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia, where the disease also exists. Of the 18,805 persons examined in the two states only 34 were found to have the disease. Most of these cases were on the Cherokee Indian reservation in Swain county, N. C. Twenty cases being located in that county, practically all of them traceable to the reservation school. The survey disclosed that negroes are singularly free from the disease. Foreign immigration does not seem to be responsible for the malarial as immigrants are free from it and practically all the negroes are native born.

Listen! "No, I didn't want to, but I had to do it." That's what Minor says, and that's so. Minor wants more room. His business has grown till it's hide bound. Stock too big or house too little. Uh! the crowd! Must have more room, more light, more air. Must be on Main street, so Minor plans to move. How to do it, is the question, but Minor has a way. Did not want any groceries but had to have the store corner South Main and Church streets; N. 220; J. T. McCown's grocery store you know. The young men did not want to sell out but Minor shook the money in their faces till they gave up and took it. Now what? The store to be remodeled, made into a 10-cent store, the up-to-date thing you ever saw, takes three moons to do it, and here are these groceries in the way. But minor knows how and Minor is going to do it. Minor says prices will draw the money from any man's pocket but these figures are strong enough to draw a man's eye teeth. PLANS ARE COMPLETE FOR FARMERS MEETING

WILL GATHER HERE ON NEXT WEDNESDAY FROM OVER STATE

Anderson Will Take Care Of Her Many Guests For Big Event In Handsome Style

(From Sunday's Daily.) Practically all the plans have been completed by the Anderson County Farmers' Union for the meeting of the State Farmers' Union, which will be held here beginning next Wednesday. This is the eighth annual meeting and it is said that this meeting will prove to be one of the most successful of any yet held. The meeting will be called to order by the president, Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

The opening session will be taken up with the enrollment of delegates, the president's address and the reports of officers. The leading subjects for discussion will be "What has the union accomplished since it was organized" and "What is being done to enlarge its usefulness and increase its membership." The reports and discussions under these heads will occupy a large amount of the time of the meeting.

It is the purpose of the officers of the state farmers' union to make this meeting a conference on the good that the farmers' union has done in this state and to formulate plans for its increased usefulness. With this end in view they request and urge upon every local union to be in good standing and to have one or more members attend the state union meeting, as well as the regular delegates to which the county unions are entitled.

A leading feature of the state union meeting will be the visit to Clemson College in a body on Thursday, July 23rd. The state union will be entertained as guests of the college and will return to Anderson by 6 p. m. Anderson is the county where the first local union was organized in South Carolina. Here is where the movement started in the Palmetto state. Five Parks local union No. 1 is still living and will no doubt be represented at the state meeting. All members of the order in good standing will be admitted to the meeting and it is requested that as many as can make it convenient will assist themselves of this privilege. Education doesn't go far enough, it merely teaches us how to speak, not when.

BOYS ARE BACK FROM THE HIKE

Anderson Patrol of Boy Scouts Enjoyed a Big Outing For One Week In Mountains

(From Sunday's Daily.) The Anderson patrol of Boy Scouts returned to the city on the 6 o'clock train last night after spending a week in the mountains of North Carolina. The trip was one that the boys will never forget and not a boy went who will not profit by the experience.

All told there were 12 boys in the party and they were under the direction of Fred M. Burnett, secretary of the Anderson Y. M. C. A. and Scout Master, while they were away. Mr. Burnett said last night that every one of the boys acted beautifully on the trip and he was proud of the manly way in which they conducted themselves in the presence of strangers. He said that the boys made a fine impression upon the people they came in contact with.

The party chose a route via Walhalla when leaving here and there the hike began. After going to the town on the train, they trekked to Tokaway, then to various points of interest in North Carolina, including Lake Toxaway and then they came back to Greenville, from which town they took the train yesterday for the return trip to Anderson.

NEW CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR

W. R. Harris of Fairplay Announces Himself and States His Platform

(From Saturday's Daily.) A new candidate for supervisor appeared in the field yesterday. This is Mr. W. R. Harris, of Fair Play. His announcement appears in The Daily Intelligencer today. In announcing his platform Mr. Harris says his purpose is to build the thoroughfares of Anderson county into first class permanent dirt roads, grade and drain and fill in all needed places. Also as long as the county has 35 to 40 convicts on the chain gang, his platform is to operate four gangs, to take 10 convicts and dig banks for the four scrapes, and thus to work the four sections of Anderson county at once, so that everybody will get some good out of the roads. He says that every man should have a way by which to do a piece of work and he wishes the people to keep in mind the man who comes before them with his platform of work.

ANDERSON POTATOES ON FOREIGN MARKETS

WALHALLA PEOPLE HAVE GIVEN A GOOD TIP APPLES WILL PAY

Anderson County People Can Duplicate Achievements of Neighbors and Start New Industry

(From Saturday's Daily.) Among the visitors in Anderson yesterday was Parks M. Wentworth, of Highlands, who called at the chamber of commerce in connection with business matters incident to the opening of the new highway to Lake Toxaway from Walhalla. He stated that already a very large business was being worked up because of the completion of the road. He was an interesting talker with regard to the building up and around Walhalla, Highlands and in that section. He stated that the new automobile scheduled car would do a big business in bringing mountain products to Anderson and Walhalla. He also stated that his people were rapidly going into the orchard and potato business, with very profitable results, since potatoes grown there were selling in competition with New York and Vermont potatoes already in Virginia and North Carolina, and more than holding their own.

According to Mr. Wentworth, the Highlands people are very anxious to get in closer touch with the business men of Anderson, for whom they have a high regard, and from whom they would desire to do a larger volume of business, and also selling their own products. He states that this trade can be greatly extended to the profit of all parties, and especially to Anderson, which is the nearest important city to the Highlands and Sapphire country.

Mr. Wentworth left for Columbia last night and expects to return here next week in time to attend the business men's trade gratification celebration at Walhalla.
