

PRICES REDUCED

GREAT SALE OF WOMEN'S SUITS

Owing to the Backward Season, and other local conditions, we have decided to CUT PRICES on our Suits, Dresses, Evening Gowns, Skirts, Waists and Millinery.

Because of the fact that we only added a FAIR PROFIT at first, we cannot advertise our Ready-to-Wear at HALF PRICE, or anything like that; but we have made BONA FIDE reductions which will mean BIG SAVINGS on Ready-to-Wear of the very HIGHEST quality, and at the very beginning of the season.

ANDERSON HUNTERS WERE OUT IN FORCE

BIRDS WILL SOON BE SCARCE HERE

FIRST DAY OUT HAS

Many Listened to the Lure of the Forest Yesterday and Every Field Was Fairly Alive.

A stranger traveling through Anderson yesterday would have hesitated not one moment should he have chanced to pass a field. He would at once conclude that a man-hunt was being waged or something of the kind, because of the fact that every piece of land in the entire county seemed to be fairly alive with hunters enjoying their first day of the season. The bird law went out Sunday.

There is of course, no way of getting the correct figures, but it is estimated, upon the best figures obtainable, that 1,033 men stayed at home from church yesterday, upon the pretext of the weather and incidentally cleaned up their old shotguns, hunting coats and pit flasks. This latter to carry the bait--no, beg pardon, this isn't a fishing trip, they carry the flasks just for the spirit of the occasion.

Within less than a week, there will be all sorts of stories in the newspapers about the "sad tragedy" of "Hiram Perkins" or someone else, whose head was perforated by a huntsman who thought it was a wild turkey. Some one else with a safety catch on his gun will start to crawl through the barbed wire fence and blow himself to pieces. Others will just naturally forget that the gun is cocked and plug some innocent guy standing behind and there will be others of the various natures, all paying a toll to the desire for hunting. The fellow who was not drowned during the summer by rucking the boat, will end his career with an unloaded gun.

The open season on deer in this State begins on September 1, and continues until January 1. As to partridges and wild turkeys the open season commences on November 15 and continues until March 15th. The open season for doves is now on, having commenced on August 15. It will continue until March. There is a law on the state statute which makes it unlawful for any person to cast abroad on any field or other land, grain or other food, as bait for doves, for the purpose of hunting doves, between March 15 and December 1.

For woodcock, the open season commences September 1 and continues until January; for willet November 1 to March 1; for wood ducks, September 1 to March 1; for grackle, October 1 to March 1. Violations of the closed season are punishable by a fine of $10 for each bird killed or pursued.

Among some of the important provisions of the hunting laws, according to the code of 1912, no person is allowed to kill more than twenty-five partridges, twenty-five doves or two wild turkeys during any one season. No person is allowed to hunt on lands of another without owner's consent; and it is unlawful for persons to hunt with fire by night. This offense is punishable by a fine of not more than $10 for each bird killed during the night, $15 for each deer killed.

There is a law also against trapping birds except upon one's own land and this doubtless was drawn for the pot-hunters who used to snare whole covets at the time.

WIFE ASKS AID IN SEARCH FOR HUSBAND

HAS BEEN MISSING NOW FOR SEVEN WEEKS

FIRST DAY OUT HAS

Was Out of a Position and Wandered From Home--Wife Appealed to The Intelligencer.

After having exhausted all other resources and tried in vain to get some clue to her husband's whereabouts, Mrs. J. M. Martin yesterday appealed to The Intelligencer to aid her in her search for her missing husband and to assist in restoring him to his home and family. According to Mrs. Martin her husband has been gone for seven weeks and whether or not there has been foul play of some sort she does not know. She is alarmed, as are the friends and relatives of Mr. Martin, and an exhaustive search of the country is now being planned.

Mrs. Martin presented a pathetic figure yesterday as she told, in trembling voice and eyes filled with tears, of the two little boys at home waiting for their father, of how sick one of the little fellows is, and of how he calls constantly for "daddy" to come back.

It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Martin lived on Crayton street in Anderson and that Mr. Martin first worked for the Brissey Lumber Company and then for the Barton Lumber Company. They moved to this city last Christmas and had been happy and contented here until the head of the house lost his position and as the savings grew smaller and smaller and no new position appeared, Mr. Martin continually grew more and more despondent. Finally he left home one morning with the announcement that he was going to try to find a job and he was not expected from the residence on Crayton street because the rent was not paid and then Mrs. Martin had to take her children and return to her father's home, near Williamston.

Readers of The Intelligencer are all asked to lend their aid in the effort now being made to find the missing man.

Best Cough Medicine for Children. "Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a ruggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefitted him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

INSURANCE MEN HERE DISCUSSING MEASURE

NEW MOVE BY THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

WANTS MORE TAXES

Announcement of F. H. McMaster Was Heard in Anderson Yesterday With Interest.

Almost every insurance man in Anderson was interested yesterday in the announcement that F. H. McMaster, insurance commissioner for South Carolina, will have some interesting things to recommend to the next General Assembly of South Carolina. It was hard to get any expression from local insurance men yesterday but it was perfectly evident that most of them do not agree with Mr. McMaster in his conclusions.

F. H. McMaster, insurance commissioner, in his annual report to the general assembly, will say that between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000 worth of property held by South Carolinians in this state has never appeared on the tax books, "and so far as our information goes no effort has ever been made to have it entered on the tax books." Reference is made to the cash surrender values of life insurance policies held by South Carolinians. It is safe to say that these values amount to between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000.

In consideration of this matter and review of the authorities, however, it does not appear that it is held anywhere that cash surrender values of life insurance policies may not be made a subject of taxation, and he question arises in connection with the taxation of insurance companies, whether or not the $30,000,000 to $40,000,000, in round figures, the cash surrender values of insurance policies held by South Carolinians are not or should not be made a subject to taxation.

"The companies have cried out from time to time and have generally persuaded the public that insurance companies are taxed more heavily than other institutions, but careful and impartial students of the subject will find this not to be true. As shown before in reports of this department, life insurance companies of other States should be taxed on their cash taxed merely on premium receipts, and the reserves which are practically the cash surrender values, are neither taxed here nor elsewhere, the companies securing exemption from taxation on their reserves in their home States on the ground that their reserves are liabilities to their policyholders and are the property of the policyholders. Certainly, on the showing of the companies themselves, the policyholders, therefore, in their home States should be taxed on their cash surrender values."

"It is generally admitted that the present system of taxation in South Carolina is unjust and inequitable. An injustice would be done if the cash surrender value of policies should be taxed at their full face value, consideration being given to the fact that the companies pay tax on their premium income from certain of these policies. In view of this condition this department is not recommending that the cash surrender values of policies held in insurance companies now licensed in this State and paying taxes to the State be taxed. But certainly there can be no objection at all to requiring all cash surrender values to be returned and those to be exempted from taxation which are in insurance companies now licensed in the State and paying taxes and license fees to the State, but imposing the ordinary State and County tax on cash surrender values on policies held by citizens of this State in companies which are not licensed in the State and which are not paying taxes to the State."

No Home Complete Without a Piano

The refining influences and the elevating tendencies of music in the home cannot be exaggerated; in fact no house is a HOME without it contains a piano. Count over the satisfied and contented homes of your own acquaintance, and nine out of ten will be found to contain a piano. After the days work is done, the family can gather in the parlor and have an evening of music. Isn't that better than have the family scatter immediately after supper is over for their individual pleasures?

With the VERY LOW PRICES at which we are selling the VERY BEST pianos, GUARANTEEING them for TEN YEARS, no home should be without a piano.

You see, we BUY our pianos outright, paying SPOT CASH for them, taking every discount, which enables us to SELL them MUCH CHEAPER than any other dealer has ever sold them in the Piedmont.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CORN CLUB EXHIBIT

COMPLETE PRIZE LIST IS ANNOUNCED

WORTH WINNING

Event is to Take Place in Anderson on December 12, Held in Chamber of Commerce.

J. W. Rothrock, county agricultural agent for Anderson county, announced yesterday that the boys' corn club exhibit will take place in Anderson this year on December 12. The exhibit will be held in the rooms of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Rothrock says that he expects by far the finest display of corn this year ever exhibited by the boys of the county.

For several weeks the county agent has been hard at work on his prize list for this exhibit and he has succeeded in getting some splendid premiums.

He announced the following list yesterday, subject to change:

For the cheapest corn per acre, first prize, six sacks of 10-4-4 fertilizer.

For the next cheapest corn, five sacks of cotton seed meal.

For the best 10 ears of prolific corn, for sacks of 10-4-4 fertilizer.

For the second best 10 ears, 50 pounds vetch seed.

For the best 10 ears, one cared, one turnip.

For the next best, one barrel of flour.

For the best written report, one rocking chair.

For the best report, one Stetson hat.

For the greatest yield per acre, 50 pounds of vetch.

For the second best yield, five sacks of cotton seed meal.

For the ear containing the greatest number of grains, 40 pounds of lard.

For the ear containing the second largest number of grains, 20 pounds of lard.

Greatest improvement shown in two year rotation, pair of $4.00 shoes.

For the second greatest improvement, pair $3.50 shoes.

To the boys making the largest yield per acre, one month at Clemson college in August, 1915.

The long list of splendid prizes should appeal to the boys of the county and if anything will induce them to take part in the exhibit these splendid prizes should.

Despondency Due to Indigestion. It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blandie Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get better, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.
