THE WEATHER.

South Carolina: Fair Sunday and probably Monday.

OUR DAILY THOUGHT.

Could we but know, could we but know, what could we but know.

THE MATTER OF EDUCATION.

The educator whose address is reported in another column of The Intelligencer speaks truly when he says that the one supreme task before the people of South Carolina is an educational one.

FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS GIVE PROMINENCE TO EITEL CASE

Relations with the Washington government. Today, however, two members of the Frye's crew were examined by Commander Hamilton after they had made statements that at least one of the detained men remained on the Eitel Friedrich against his will.

REPEAT DEMANDS TO GEN. VILLA

Mexican government from responsibility. "On the other hand, he may have been wantonly shot by an irresponsible group of soldiers.

BRITISH INDIANS MAKE ADVANCE

There have been no political developments respecting the Near East, except the declaration of the Greek minister at Paris that the change of government at Athens does not indicate any modification of Greece's foreign policy.

DESTROYERS ON DUTY.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The destroyers Drayton and McDougal, two of the fastest in the navy, arrived here today from Guantanamo to help preserve neutrality regulations.

WARRANTS FOR ARREST ON CHARGE OF RIOTING

PAGELAND, S. C., March 13.—After an investigation a coroner's jury into the street fight here yesterday, in which J. Wesley Arant was killed and five other men wounded.

SALDOX-A-NORTH LAW.

The Saldox-A-North law, which went into effect on the 15th inst., will doubtless be very effective. The express companies which the express companies are bound to enforce it, will in many cases be violations. Heretofore there was no restrictions placed on the companies carrying the liquor, and in consequence anyone could get any amount at any time and as often as they wished. With the present law enforced as these companies intend to enforce it, there will be few violations.

The following thoughts by Elbert Hubbard are to the point: No one claims that a man is a better man because he drinks, or that he is a worse man if he does not.

The habit of using alcoholic stimulants in moderate quantities tends to grow. It may fasten itself on the individual, get the better of his will, paralyze his good intentions, destroy his ambition, throttle his animation, so that efficiency is reduced, and he becomes of little worth to the world.

He then may lose his job, and men out of a job are shunned by other men. They have nothing the world wants; they can not do anything very often that the world wants done—this is the assumption.

ENQUIRER ON ADVERTISING.

There is no newspaper, perhaps in the State, pursuing so independent an attitude as the Yorkville Enquirer. This newspaper never solicits advertising, and always carries a fine line, getting good rates for the space used.

SEVEN BRITISH STEAMERS TORPEDOED SINCE MARCH 10

Of the seven steamers mentioned in the admiralty statement two, the Andenwan and the Hartdale, are not mentioned in marine records. Concerning the other five, these facts are given:

The Indian City was a new steamer of 2,921 tons. She was on her way from Galveston, Tex., for Havre with her first cargo, which consisted of 14,026 bales of cotton. She sailed from Galveston on February 18 and touched at Newport News.

The Invergyle had a tonnage of 1,141 and was 276 feet long. She was built at Grangemouth, England, in 1907 and was owned by the Invergyle Steamship Company, of Glasgow.

The Andulstun was owned by the Ellerman lines, of Liverpool. She was built at Middlesboro, England, in 1911. She had a tonnage of 1,452 and was 298 feet long.

The Florazan was built at Sunderland, England, in 1913, and was owned by the Liverpool Shipping Company, of Liverpool. She was 385 feet long and had a tonnage of 2,986. The Florazan was last reported as arriving at Havre on January 27.

The Headlands was a steamer of 1,933 tons and was 314 feet long. She was built at West Hartlepool, England, in 1892 and was owned by the Softon Steamship Company, of Liverpool, England, in 1892 and was owned by the Softon Steamship Company, of Liverpool. The latest report concerning her movements said that she arrived at Port Talbot, England, on February 2 from Mrselles.

THE GARRICK WILL PUT ON VAUDEVILLE

NEW MOTION PICTURE HOUSE WILL HAVE HIGH CLASS ATTRACTIONS

BEGINS MONDAY

Three Reels Best Grade Motion Pictures, Music and Vaudeville at Low Prices

Beginning Monday, Anderson will have its second motion picture theatre with vaudeville as an added attraction. Manager C. H. Blech of "The Anderson and "The Garrick" announcing yesterday that beginning with tomorrow high class vaudeville will be offered at "The Garrick", the city's latest motion picture theatre.

Bowers & Bowers is the title of the first attraction that will appear at this popular theatre. In addition to this, three reels of high class motion pictures will be shown and good orchestra music will be furnished, all for the remarkable low price of 5 and 10 cents.

The Garrick, formerly the Bijou, was recently purchased by Mr. Blech and has been remodelled throughout and improved to such an extent that one would scarcely recognize it as the same location.

BID FOR BORROWING OF $45,000 ACCEPTED

FINANCE COMMITTEE WILL RECOMMENDED JOIN OFFER 4-3-4 BE TAKEN

COUNCIL TO ACT

At Special Meeting to be Held Monday Afternoon—Money for City Expenses

Pursuant to a resolution adopted at the regular monthly meeting of city council last Monday night the finance committee met yesterday morning and opened bids for furnishing the city with $45,000 for expenses for the remainder of 1915.

A number of bids were opened, and the committee adopted a resolution recommending that council accept the joint bid of the Bank of Anderson, the Farmers and Merchants Bank, the Peoples Bank and the Citizens National Bank for furnishing the money at 4 3-4 per cent per annum, payable at maturity. A special meeting of council will be called for next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock to accept the report of the finance committee.

The Peoples Bank submitted an independent bid for 4 3-4 per cent, but the committee decided to follow the plan of taking the joint bid of the four banks named. The money will be brought to Anderson and deposited in the four banks submitting the successful bid, and will be checked out by the city treasurer for city expenses, at the rate of about $7,500 a month.

SPLENDID ADDRESS HEARD BY TEACHERS

Dr. Poteat President Furman University Delivered Masterful Address

The meeting yesterday of the Anderson County Teachers Association, at West Market street school, was one of the most interesting and helpful that has been held in months. The feature of the meeting was an address by Dr. E. M. Poteat, president of Furman University, Greenville, S. C.

The Scripture reading was by Dr. J. F. Vines, pastor of the First Baptist church, while prayer was made by the Rev. Mr. Garrison, pastor of the A. R. P. church. Another interesting feature of the meeting was a violin solo by Mr. R. G. Cooper, director of the orchestra at the Anderson theatre. Mr. Cooper's talent is well known and appreciated throughout the city, in spite of the fact that he has been here but a short while. A reading from Tennyson's Lady Clare was given by Miss Arnold of Williamston and was highly appreciated.

The address by Dr. Poteat was masterful. In the outset he stated that the task confronting South Carolina today is an educational one. The second thought of the address was that the State needs better schools or rather to improve on its methods of teaching. The third thought that the speaker advanced was that above all things the child is taught it should be taught to read.

It is regretted that time does not permit a synopsis of the masterful address being given for the benefit of those who were not so fortunate as to hear it.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

The shower given at the residence of Mrs. John A. Horton Wednesday afternoon for the Methodist parsonage, was well attended. Numerous, attractive and useful articles were given.

VERMONT WILL VOTE.

MONTPELIER, Vt., March 12.—Governor Gates signed the prohibition referendum bill today and the voters will decide in March, 1916, on the substitute Statewide bill for local option.

EXPECT TO START BOMBARDMENT.

LONDON, March 12 (3:30 p. m.). It is learned through diplomatic sources in London that the Russian Black Sea fleet expected to start a bombardment of the Bosphorus ports today in active co-operation with the allied fleet which is attempting to force its way to Constantinople through the Dardanelles from the south.

News Letter From Belton

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the party given by Mrs. W. A. Clement on Monday evening for the choir of the First Baptist church. The house was lovely with its wealth of beautiful jonquils, cluny lace over yellow and love-pot plants.

After a short business meeting of the choir, the guests were all asked to line up alphabetically and Mrs. J. T. West was given an old time blue back spelling book and asked to conduct a spelling class. This furnished a great deal of amusement, but the spelling bee which followed furnished even more. Miss Francis Burnes and Louis Seel were asked to choose sides and then the real fun began as one after another had to sit down as the words grew harder and harder—and those who have studied the old blue back spelling book know how hard some of those words are.

When they had thinned down to two on each side—Miss Margeret Clement and Mr. L. A. Werts on Miss Burnes' side and Miss Jessie Lewis and Mrs. J. T. West on Mr. Seel's side—excitement ran high for awhile. Then Mrs. West and Miss Clement went down and a dead silence reigned as Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Werts spelled away, word after word, with no thought of missing 'til finally Mr. Werts dropped out and Mrs. Lewis was declared the winner. Mr. West, in behalf of the hostess, presented her with a pot of beautiful yellow hyacinths as the first prize and the spelling book was presented to Mr. Blair Rice, he having had to sit down first.

After this a most tempting salad course, followed by mints, was served.

Miss Margeret Clement, the gifted daughter of the hostess furnished delightful music during most of the evening, which was a thoroughly pleasant one to all present.

The guests were: Mrs. Jessie B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. West, Misses Nennette Campbell, Francis Burns, Mattie Vandiver and Sadie Kirkpatrick and Messrs Max Rice, Blair Rice, Lewis Seel and L. A. Werts.

One of the most beautiful and elaborate afternoon parties of the season was the Rook party given by Mrs. W. D. Cox at her handsome home on Brown avenue.

The whole lower floor of the house was thrown open and was exquisite in its masses of spring flower decorations. Violets and jonquils were everywhere to be seen and their fragrance permeated the air. Seven tables were arranged around these pretty rooms and 5 hand Rook was enjoyed by everyone. After the games were over a delicious salad course was served at the end of which Mrs. Joel T. Rice, in her ever happy manner presented the prize, a beautiful basket of violets, to Mrs. John A. Horton.

The following ladies were Mrs. Cox's guests on this pleasant occasion: Mesdames R. L. Parker, R. J. Gambrell, Jessie B. Lewis, Will C. Clinkscales, Dora Breazeale, W. E. Greer, J. H. McCuen, Jno. McCuen, W. O. Kay, C. G. Todd, Leon Kay, C. F. Cox, F. M. Cox, W. H. Cobb, Jr., Joel T. Rice, Walter Anderson E. C. Frierson, L. D. Blake, H. Reid Sherard, O. K. Poore, J. N. Heatherly, Jno. Horton, W. R. Haynie, Harold Breazeale, G. D. Smith, Frank Mattison, G. S. Cuthbert, A. R. Campbell, Claud A. Graves, J. B. Adger, M. C. Cunningham, W. K. Stringer, W. C. Brown, J. T. West and Misses Nennette Campbell, Eva Stringer and Hattie Hardin.

The sweet and impressive ceremony with the ring was performed by Dr. W. H. Frazer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Lucretia Webb and Miss Natalie Norryce had charge of the wedding book. Immediately after the ceremony an elegant salad course was served. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan left that evening for a short trip, Mrs. Sloan changing her beautiful robe of heavy white satin en train with vell, for a lovely blue going away suit with hat to match. They will return to Anderson today and will soon go to house keeping at Mr. Sloan's cottage on Society street.

Mrs. Sloan in her short visits to Anderson, by her sweet gracious manner and charming ways has made many friends here. Mr. Sloan is one of Anderson's most prominent and popular young business men, and has host of friends who extend to him and his charming bride every good wish.

LINCOLN'S BODYGUARD DEAD.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Colonel W. H. Crook, disbursing officer of the White House, who was President Lincoln's bodyguard, and who has been intimately acquainted with every president since, died today at his home here. He has been suffering from pneumonia for more than a week.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

In Greenville of Two Popular Young People. A wedding of great interest to the groom's many friends here in Anderson, his home town, was that of Mr. Willett Prevost Sloan and Miss Hazel Frost Hill of Highland, N. C., on Wednesday evening, March 10th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Norris in Greenville, S. C. The decorations were beautiful, but simple, making an effective setting for the pretty bridal party, the color scheme of pink and white being daintily carried out in every detail.

To the sweet strains of the wedding march played by a splendid orchestra, the bridal party entered the parlor in the following order: Little Misses Eunice Evans and Helen Norris in dainty white with pink sashes came first, and spread a broad white pathway for the fair bride. The two dames of honor entered next, Mrs. D. I. Sloan, and Mrs. J. J. Norris of Greenville. The maids were Miss Kathleen Norryce and Miss Sue Carpenter and they stood with Mr. Charlie Watkins and Mr. Spence Perrin of Union. Little Miss Sara Evans came next with a basket of flowers. The bride entered with her father, Mr. Frank H. Hill and the groom with his best man, Mr. Archie Cathcart. Little Miss Dorothy Norris all in pure white brought the ring in a large white rose bud.

The sweet and impressive ceremony with the ring was performed by Dr. W. H. Frazer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Lucretia Webb and Miss Natalie Norryce had charge of the wedding book. Immediately after the ceremony an elegant salad course was served. SUMMER SCHOOL FOR 4 COUNTIES PLANNED

Felton Would Unite Teachers of Anderson, Greenville, Pickens and Oconee. (From Saturday's Daily) Mr. Felton stated upon his return yesterday that he thought it unwise for Anderson to attempt participation in the plan, as Newberry was too far removed. It is but a short distance farther to Rock Hill, he stated, and teachers could attend the summer school at Winthrop College about as easy as they could go to one at Newberry.

"I am working on a plan to have Anderson, Oconee, Pickens and Greenville counties unite in a summer school to be held at Clemson College," said Mr. Felton, "and I think the plan will go through." The superintendent stated that he had been working on such a plan for some time, and was confident that the other three counties of the Piedmont section would join in.

Mr. Felton stated that he would have agreed to the Newberry plan of a summer school had they contemplated holding the school at Greenwood, instead of Newberry.
