

The Wonderful Transformation at Chick Springs

Below is a Cut of the Beautiful New Hotel Now Nearing Completion.

One of nature's most wonderful curative waters bottled in a modern sanitary plant.

Nestling at the foot of the Blue Ridge Hills in the famous Piedmont section of the Carolinas. 1200 feet elevation.

Deep down in the heart of nearly every one, who has read the announcement of the wonderful development at Chick Springs, there has been a feeling of approval and gladness. There are thousands throughout the central states of the south that do, and ever felt that the wonderful resources of this property should be developed in a broad, comprehensive way. In the old days before the war, when the south was in the glory of aristocratic luxury, when the stately mansions and broad plantations rang with gaiety and laughter and no thought of the approaching conflict threw its cloud over the hearts of the people, Chick Springs was the favorite watering place of all this section. In their stately equipages and their retinues of servants, the best families throughout this and adjoining states gathered here to spend their summers in enjoyment of the delightful climate, and with music and dancing, feasting and frolic, while away the hours of freedom from business cares, and grow strong and hearty with the help of the all-healing water. The "News and Courier" said under date of February 1st, "Chick Springs, a resort well known in ante-bellum days will soon come back into its own." The Columbia State said under the same date, "A development which is welcomed in this state is the plan to revive and conduct upon a broad scale the Chick Springs resort."

A MODERN HOTEL IN EVERY DETAIL.

In the designing of this hotel every facility for convenience, comfort and safety was incorporated. The hotel is equipped throughout with the "Grinnell Sprinkler System," which makes it practically fireproof—telephone in every room with long distance connection—running water, both hot and cold, in every room. Most all rooms have bath connection.

The first floor houses lobby, parlors, card and smoking rooms, pool rooms and private and main dining rooms, with elevator service to the roof garden. The second floor has a fine auditorium and ball room with a stage. All front rooms on this floor are en suite. All bed rooms are outside rooms. The third floor is taken up with bedrooms. Both wings have stairways, with a grand stairway in the center. The lobby has a mezzanine floor, where the orchestra serves dining room and lobby. A tiled terrace on each side of the dining room, which has glass walls that may be folded, allowing guests to dine on terraces. This hotel will be open to the public on or about June 25th.

FIRST HOTEL ESTABLISHED IN 1846.

The first hotel was built at Chick Springs in 1846, and since that time the Springs have enjoyed the patronage of the best people of the Carolinas. It is the intention of the management to make the service of this hotel the best possible, special attention being given to the cuisine, and the comfort of guests. A fine orchestra will be a feature, and every effort has been made to fully equip the hotel, to furnish it attractively and to make it a most comfortable and homelike resort for refined and cultured people. The former hotel has been retained as an annex and the two have a capacity of 350. Guests will here meet congenial people amid the right surroundings.

The Curative Powers of the Water—Sixty Years of Reputation.

For more than sixty years the health-giving qualities of the water of Chick Springs has been established. The analysis and the experiences of literally thousands have shown that this water in attacks of indigestion, in fact in all troubles of the alimentary tract and the organs of elimination, has been followed by more than satisfactory results. Invalids have regained their strength; the acutely ill have speedily recovered, and in many cases, the chronically sick have gone forth from this spring in the full vigor of restored health, while all have been benefited. This is not a sanitarium, but for the run-down man or woman who desires to renew health among pleasant associations and in comfortable quarters, there is no superior place in America.

The water used in this hotel is from the famous Chick Spring. It is a delightfully light mineral water, one that is pleasant to drink. It has rightfully been said, "Drink Chick Springs water and eat anything you want."

OUTSIDE AMUSEMENTS.

Outside amusements will consist of Golf, Tennis, Bowling, Rowing, Bathing, Dancing, Driving, Motoring, etc. Of course dancing will be one of the chief pleasures. Music furnished by one of the best orchestras in the south, Mr. Harry P. Sutton, leader. The orchestra will consist of five pieces and supplemented for Sunday afternoon concerts, which will be given every Sunday in the spring park.

Unmatchable Transportation Facilities.

We make the statement without fear of contradiction that there is not another mineral spring resort south of "Mason and Dixon Line" that has the transportation facilities that Chick Springs has. It is situated on the new Piedmont Northern Electric Line, with eighteen daily trains, nine north and nine south, and just a short distance, say ten city blocks from Taylors on the main trunk line of Southern Railway from New York to Atlanta, Birmingham and New Orleans. It is also on the National Automobile Highway from New York to Atlanta. It is undoubtedly the most accessible resort in the south. Passengers from the west or southwest can use the "Carolina Special" to Spartanburg and change to Piedmont Northern, which lands you at the door. Or a change can be made to Southern local, getting off at Taylors, S. C.

A Sovereign Cure for Stomach Troubles.

The greatest of all the many virtues of Chick Springs water is its value in the treatment and cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the twin curses that claim more victims in America than all other diseases combined. The record of hundreds of long standing chronic cases of these diseases, which have yielded to the effects of the water and have been permanently cured, prove beyond question its power to relieve.

Many cases have been known where Chick Springs water has been recommended to people in such terrible condition with these stomach troubles that they were able to eat barely enough to sustain life. Almost immediately upon beginning the use of this water they began to feel its beneficial effects, and in a few days were enjoying the exhilarating sense of returning appetite. In every case where the water was taken in reasonable quantity for some months, the cure was complete and permanent and the former sufferer gradually returned to superb physical condition.

Reception for Visitors.

Thursday evening from eight till nine-thirty, the parlors of the Hotel Chiquola were thrown open to the reunion visitors and five hundred Anderson people welcomed them to our town. The rooms were beautifully decorated, using the Confederate red and white as a background and cut flowers in abundance.

At the head of the steps Miss Margaret Evans, Mrs. Dave Vance, Mrs. D. S. Crayton and Mrs. Raymond Petty welcomed the guests. Receiving with Mrs. R. C. Webb, Mrs. J. O. Sanders, Miss Nell Cochran, Mrs. Hugh Russell, Mrs. Overman and Miss Martha Bonham from the local U. D. C. Chapters were Gen. Teague, Gen. Reed and the sponsors who were the attractive honorees on this occasion. Three bowls presided over by Mrs. Claude Earle, Miss Eubank Tay-lar, Miss Margaret Archer, Miss Eliza Major, Miss Annie Cooley and Miss Kathleen Norryce, delicious fruit punch was served with sandwiches. Tiny Confederate flags were pinned on each guest as a souvenir of the evening.

Informal Reception.

Wednesday evening at Buena Vista Park just after the musical program of the Reunion was completed, a delightful informal reception was given in honor of the sponsors and veterans. Light refreshments were served by the members of the Civic Association. The Orr Mill band furnished the music for the evening.

Rose Hill Dance.

Friday evening the unmarried men of Rose Hill Club gave a delightful dance in honor of the sponsors and visiting girls. The one step and hesitation were enjoyed from nine till one. Delicious sherbert was served during the evening.

Auction Party.

Miss Caroline Elizabeth Vance entertained Saturday afternoon at her home on Church Street with Auction in honor of her house guests Misses Lalla Mae Dial and Mary Todd, of Laurens, Mrs. William Banks and Miss Luts Smith met the guests at the door and invited them into the living room where Miss Vance, Miss Todd, Miss Dial, Miss Sara Hayes and Miss Jessie Browne received.

Card tables were placed in the living room and library for the players. At the conclusion of the games a corrago bouquet of sweet peas was awarded for the highest score and the winners were presented with dainty bits of linens.

Miss Vance served her guests a salad course. The following girls were invited to meet the honorees: Misses Weza Gilmer, Linda Thompson, Hester Brewer of Douglas, Ga., Ella Mae Cummings, Jamie Hamlin, Vins Patrick, Florida and Gene Harris, Martha Bonham, Kathleen Norryce, Eunice Russell, Marie Saybt, Carrie Gray.

One of the most delightful of the season's receptions was held Friday night at the school building on West Market street. The occasion was the annual high school reception which is to be given each year to the tenth and eleventh grades of the High School. It is given by the ninth grade. There are members of all grades of the school invited and the affair is the big feature of the school year. Friday night the grounds were decorated with the school colors and the trees were connected by arches of lanterns.

The grounds looked very pretty with the lanterns overhead and the white forms of the children sitting across the foreground. There were about two hundred present at the reception and there were two hundred "good times used" at the affair.

Delightful refreshments were served. The cake was iced with alternating white and yellow frosting, the school colors. The reception of last night was one of the prettiest and one of the most enjoyable of the school's history.
