

Baskets, Bread Trays, Etc.

The English styles we are showing are very popular. The open character of the design gives to the baskets, Bread Trays and Sandwich Trays, and the many other pieces in which it is produced, a light and dainty appearance. This is all the more effective because the line is made in high-grade silver plate, and has the well-known wearing qualities of Meriden silver. Call in and inspect these dainty pieces.

LATE MRS. W. B. HAWKINS

Resolution by Townville School Improvement Association.

The Townville School Improvement Association has adopted the following resolutions on the death of the late Mrs. W. B. Hawkins:

Our whole community was saddened when it became known that Mrs. W. B. Hawkins had breathed her last on Saturday, June the 13th. She was ever faithful to her high principals of righteous claims. Indeed she was more than a nominal Christian, and she was a hater of hypocrisy. She will be missed on earth by her friends and loved ones, yet we feel in her going, she has outstripped us in life's race. Passing from gathering shades and suffering here to that better and higher life beyond. Truly she was a woman of God. Of no woman could more be said, of her nothing less could be said.

She was a faithful member of the School Improvement Association—and as a tribute of love, we have adopted the following resolutions:

Whereas God in His wisdom called our dear friends and co-worker, Mrs. W. B. Hawkins home, we esteem it a privilege to bear this testimony to her Godly, Christian life, and to her faithful performance of duty in our society. Therefore be it resolved

1. That by her death our society has lost a loyal faithful and devoted member, who was always interested in the school, and whose beautiful, unselfish life will ever be loved and cherished by those who knew her.

2. That though the tired hands are folded, the tired head laid low, the kindly look from the eyes so loved is vanished, the voice so sweet is unheard, yet she is still our inspiration, unseen, still she is our companion.

3. While we would say with humility, "God knows best," we know one has gone who made the world better by living in it.

4. That we extend to the bereaved husband and children our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow, and a copy of these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the society, that copies be sent to the family and the Anderson Intelligencer.

CAPT. GIBBONS A BAD SAILOR

That Is the Reason He Was "Plucked" Reports Rear Admiral Knight

(By Associated Press.) Washington, July 16.—Rear Admiral Knight, chairman of the Navy plucking board, told the House naval committee today that Captain John H. Gibbons and four other navy captains recently plucked had "added absolutely nothing to the efficiency of the navy, but detracted from efficiency."

The rear admiral said that while Captain Gibbons' record was flawless, he had been at sea only three years out of the previous thirteen and had contributed nothing material to the advancement of naval science.

There was reference in the committee to a suggestion that certain officers had been "spotted" or "marked" for plucking. A bill to reinstate Captain Gibbons is pending.

FILM FAVORITES

SCENE FROM "A KINGDOM AT STAKE."

"A KINGDOM AT STAKE" is a new multiple reel release in which the power of child love plays the leading part. The leader of the revolutionists is made tutor of the little queen, and he falls in love with her. He gives evidence against his fellow conspirators, but the tiny child frees them and wins their loyalty.

Versatile Donald Crisp has produced "On the Brink," which has just been released. He also plays the lead in the drama which tells the story of a wife's narrow escape from a misstep through the thoughtless words of her child.

"Meg o' the Mountains," by Richard R. Ridgely, in two parts. Meg, in an unbalanced condition of mind, recognizes Gregory as the father of her child. Grand plans to get Gregory out of the way, as they both love the same woman. His plans are upset, and Meg, in a moment of understanding, identifies Grant and not Gregory as the guilty man.

"The Stuff That Dreams Are Made Of," a new version of the celebrated comedy. This is a burlesque melodrama in the true sense of the word. It carries a laugh with every turn of the crank to the point of bringing tears to your eyes.

HELEN LINDROTH.

Helen Lindroth has created so many "adventurous" parts that she says she can hardly walk along the street now without assuming a stealthy, snake-like tread or dodging every policeman in sight.

In "Lillian's Dilemma" a girl is refused admittance into a strict boys' school, but determines to get in anyhow, just for spite, and disguises herself in a boy's suit of clothes, which she had been commissioned by her mother to bring her brother Dick. One of the boys wears her clothes and gets everybody into trouble. After confessing her deception and satisfactorily explaining everything, Lillian finds her brother and a little later finds herself engaged.

A brand new animal picture, its main plot centering about the life of the circus, with its sawdust rings and tight ropes, is the proposition upon which Director Fred Wright is now working for a summer release.

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE

New Orleans to Make a Systematic Fight on Rats.

New Orleans, July 16.—After a brief educational crusade consisting of addresses at public meetings ranging from church societies to large commercial bodies, federal health authorities in charge of bubonic plague eradication work here today announced that the clean up and rat extermination campaign would be intensified in three especially designated districts.

Announcement of the finding of three rats today with plague infection was not regarded as surprising by federal health authorities. They stated that they had expected to make such discoveries and that the number found was small when it was considered that more than 5,000 rats had been bacteriologically examined.

Not Through This State.

Atlanta, July 16.—Georgia troops will not go through an inch of Governor Bleas's own ground on their way to the Augusta encampment. The adjutant general has found a way by an all Georgia route and won't have to ask permission again for the militia to cross South Carolina soil.

WEBB IS CHAIRMAN

Succeeds Henry D. Clayton as Head of Judiciary.

Washington, July 16.—Representative Webb of North Carolina, was chosen by the house democratic caucus today to succeed Representative Clayton, of Alabama, recently named federal judge, as chairman of the judiciary committee.

An Astor Palace in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., July 16.—Mrs. William Waldorf Astor, of London, formerly Mrs. Robert G. Shaw, of Boston, and before that Miss Nannie Langhorne, of "Mirador," Albemarle, Va., has bought land adjoining the estate of her sister, Mrs. Fugate Brooks, in Albemarle, for the announced purpose, it is said in the county, of building herself a home there.

Two Ambushed.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 16.—Harry Purdy, a village councilman, and William Aron, a business man, were shot and killed from ambush late today as they were rowing in the Ohio river. A posse is in pursuit of the assassins.
