

NEWS FROM OUR SISTER CITY

Newsy Items of Interest From Friday's Belton Journal

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Horton, of Anderson, visited Mrs. Alice B. Latimer Sunday.

J. T. West is attending the campaign meetings and trying to see as many of his friends and make as many new friends as possible before the election day rolls round.

Little Miss "Allie-baby" Cuthbert spent Monday night with her grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Latimer.

T. B. Wright and H. J. Strickland, two prosperous farmers of Anderson, route five, were here Saturday afternoon, having attended the county campaign meeting at Honea Path.

Misses Alice and Vera Brown of Chauncey, Ga., are among those who are visiting relatives near town at the home of their uncle, M. C. Brown.

Misses Mary and Kate Cox of Abbeville, are among those spending this week in Belton; guests of their cousin Miss Irene Cox on O'Neal street.

Miss Grace Campbell of Belton spent Saturday and Sunday very pleasantly with relatives and friends in Anderson.

J. E. Cooley, of Pelzer, route four, was among those in town on business Tuesday.

Willie Cothran and brother, C. E. Cothran, of Toney Creek were in Belton Tuesday shopping.

W. H. Canfield of Belton, route five was a business visitor here Tuesday.

J. Newton Cox of near Belton, called in to see us while in town Tuesday and brought us some very fine peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Epps of Toney Creek, were here shopping Tuesday.

E. R. Parker of the firm of Cobb and Parker, spent last Sunday in Augusta. Mr. Parker went to meet his children, little Miss Ruth and Clem who have been spending some weeks in Macon with their grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Powers.

E. F. Arnold of Greenwood was among those in town Monday on business.

Misses Sallie and Elizabeth Stribling, W. L. Verrier and J. J. Norton, all of Walhalla, passed through Belton Monday en route to Greenwood where they will spend a few days with friends. While in this city they were guests of Hotel Geer. The trip to Greenwood was made in a "Crow" car, the only one in the state.

Dr. F. L. Parker, one of Belton's popular dentists, had business in Anderson on Monday.

H. L. Willingham, H. L. Tolhison, Jr., J. L. Glasby, George W. Clement, J. L. Cox and Spence Taylor were among those who spent Sunday in Greenville.

P. Berlin, manager of the Belton Bargain House left Wednesday for New York and Baltimore, where he will purchase his goods for the fall and winter trade. He was joined by his brother, H. Berlin, of Greer.

Henry Clinkscales, of Horton's Pharmacy, and G'bert Campbell, of Frierson's Pharmacy, who spent last week in Asheville, returned home on Monday.

M. O. Horton, G. O. Tate and W. Clarence Clinkscales spent the weekend very pleasantly at Hendersonville.

Mrs. J. K. Clement of Belton, who has been spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Kay, of Honea Path, route six, returned to her home in Belton Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Kay of Honea Path, route six, may be mentioned among those who visited Belton Sunday. While here she was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Clement on River street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel C. Kay and children, spent Sunday in Honea Path, guests of Mrs. Kay's parents.

Dr. M. Y. Hitch and little daughter, Louise, of Hodges, were among those who attended the Acker reunion last Thursday. They spent the night in town, guests of Mrs. Hitch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams.

Mrs. Mary Rodgers left yesterday for Atlanta where she will spend several days before returning to Atlanta.

E. B. Keys, a resident of Belton route 3, was among those who had business in town Wednesday. Mr. Keys says that the severe hail storm of July did his cotton and corn crops a great deal of damage—hurting the corn crop more than the cotton.

Mrs. Wesley Wilburn and sister, Mrs. Kathaleen Keys, left Wednesday for Pageland, where they will spend two weeks, guests of their sister, Mrs. J. A. McGraw.

Miss Helen LeMasters, of Glendale, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter of Belton R. F. D.

Mrs. John Stewman and Master John Stewman, of Lancaster, and Miss Jennie Lee of Sherard, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lee on O'Neal street, have returned to their homes.

L. D. and A. L. Cothran, both of Toney Creek, were here on business Saturday.

Dr. W. A. Tripp, a candidate for the office of county treasurer, was in town Saturday. While here Dr. Tripp was the guest of Geer Hotel. Dr. Tripp was en route to the campaign meeting at Honea Path.

E. S. Cothran and M. F. Cothran, both prominent citizens of Toney Creek, were among those who called to see us while in town on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Graves and children, little Miss Sara and Claude A. Jr., spent last Sunday with relatives in Spartanburg.

John W. Fisher of the Level Land section, was here Monday on business.

W. I. Mahaffey, of Belton Route 4, who is a candidate for the legislature, was a caller at the Journal office Monday.

W. H. Frierson of Anderson, a candidate for probate judge, was among those who called to see us while in town Saturday. Mr. Frierson was enroute to Honea Path to the campaign meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Kay Mrs. Maude Culbreath and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, all of Belton, left Wednesday for Hendersonville, Asheville and other points in the mountains.

The following automobile party of Allendale took breakfast at Total Geer Wednesday morning; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Aull and Mr. and Mrs.

J. H. Johnson. The party was enroute to Hendersonville.

Mrs. T. Pinson of Shady Grove, was among those in town Tuesday shopping.

Harold Erskine of Anderson, spent Wednesday in town with his friend, Wesley Drake.

Miss Lillian Williams of Honea Path, who has been spending this week in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joel C. Kay on River street, will return home today.

Miss Mattie Davis and little niece, Elizabeth, of Anderson, spent last week in town; the guests of Mrs. A. P. Fant on Blue Ridge Avenue.

Scott Holland, a farmer living in the Long Branch section, was in Belton on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Slaton of Pelzer, and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Riddle of Greenville, spent Monday and Tuesday in town, guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. R. N. Hanks.

R. W. Poore of Pelzer, a popular automobile salesman, was in Belton on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gaines of Townsville, Prof. J. W. Gaines and son, Harold, of Shorter College, Rome, Ga., spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shirley.

Misses Mary and Kate Cox of Abbeville, Miss Irene Cox and Mrs. C. S. Letter spent Tuesday with Miss Annie Shirley.

Miss Emmie Warnock of the firm of Cobb and Parker spent last week with friends in Anderson.

Misses Maud Merritt and Mabel Tripp, of Piedmont, have returned to their homes after a very pleasant visit to Miss Lorena Kay.

Miss Erskine Pelzer spent Friday in Belton the guest of Mrs. Bill Cox.

Miss Mabel Covington, of Greenville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Harper on Brown avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vass and children and Mrs. J. E. Covington and Miss Mary Covington spent Friday with Mrs. J. E. Harper. They made the trip in Mr. Vass' big Buick automobile.

Mrs. Robert Parker and sons, Alton and Henry, of Anderson, are visiting Mrs. H. S. Broome on Anderson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Broome, of Spartanburg, are guests of Mrs. H. S. Broome.

Oscar D. Gray, of Williamston, was in Belton on business Friday.

Miss Idelle Kay spent the past week with her grandmother, Mrs. D. T. Cox, near Craytonville.

Mrs. Fred Cox and Miss Edith Cox, of Toney Creek, visited Mrs. A. W. Boggs and Miss Lella Terry on Brown avenue Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Meeks, of Mount Bethel, spent Thursday night with Mrs. Meeks' sister, Mrs. Burton. Mr. Meeks is a progressive farmer and substantial citizen.

Mrs. Joe Kay is visiting friends the Eureka settlement.

Mrs. Joel Kay had as her guest last Friday Mrs. Humphries Williams, of Honea Path.

Mrs. P. A. Acker, of Due West, spent Thursday night with Mrs. Polk Cox on River street and Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Ella Cox.

Dr. J. E. Watson, a prominent physician of Iva, and Miss Annie Beaty, of that place, spent a few hours in Belton Wednesday en route for Columbia.

Judge W. F. Cox, of Anderson, candidate for probate judge, was in the Belton Friday.

Mrs. S. A. Briggs of Spartanburg who has been spending some weeks in town the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Claude A. Graves, returned to her home Saturday.

Mr. S. R. Lark and son, Fred, of Belton, route 5, were in town Wednesday shopping.

Miss Nan Crayton, of Columbia, visited Mrs. H. M. Geer recently.

L. A. Parker and family, of Cordele, Ga., are visiting Mr. Parker's mother, on River street.

Mr. Louis Seel left Saturday for his summer holiday, which will be spent at his home in Charleston.

Miss Laura Horton, Mr. Cartwright and Frank Brownlee, of Anderson, spent the week-end with Miss Sara Latimer.

Blair Rice has returned from his summer vacation which was very pleasantly spent on Davidson River, N. C.

P. B. Gentry of Eureka, was in the city Saturday on his way home after visiting his daughter, Mrs. Mahaffey at Cheddar.

M. A. Cobb, a Confederate soldier, who entered the war at the age of 17 years, and a prosperous farmer who lives near town on R. F. D. 2, called to see us while in town on business Tuesday. Mr. Cobb was a brave soldier and received several wounds while in the service of his country.

Miss Nan Crayton, principal of the Washington street graded school, in Columbia, spent last Friday and Saturday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Geer. Miss Crayton is a great friend of the Geer family, having taught school at Piedmont for four years and during that time boarded with Mr. and Mrs. Geer.

J. H. Wright of Rock Mills township, was a visitor here Saturday. Mr. Wright had been to the county campaign meeting at Honea Path. He is in the race for county commissioner from District No. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Mattison and daughter of McCormick, spent last week in and near Belton. They attended the Acker reunion last Thursday at Shady Grove.

Mrs. J. K. Graves of Walterboro, arrived in Belton Wednesday afternoon and is visiting her son, Claude A. Graves. Mrs. Graves was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Crosby and children, Virginia and Elizabeth of Ravenel.

Capt. E. R. Cox, mayor Darlington, is in town, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Martha Cox. Mr. Cox is very popular in the city of Darlington, was a member of the Darlington military company during the Darlington riot, which company was the first to respond to the call of Governor Tillman. Since that time Mr. Cox has been Captain of his company. He is a prominent real estate man. His many friends here welcome him back to the town of his childhood.

H. A. Cummings of near town was here yesterday.

Dr. G. S. Cuthbert, manager of the D. L. Donald Drug store, left Wednesday for Baltimore, where he will spend ten days before returning home. Dr. Charles Donald of Williamston, has charge of the prescription department while Dr. Cuthbert is away, and J. L. Cox manager.

Hugh Bowen of Abbeville is here this week the guest of his brother, Dr. W. C. Bowen.

B. F. Ellison, of Toney Creek, was among those in town yesterday on business.

Miss Gertrude Jeter, of Ninety Six, who has been visiting Miss Stella Lawton on O'Neal street, returned home Wednesday morning.

J. A. Wilson, and son, E. R., of Honea Path route six, were among those in town Wednesday.

J. R. McConnell, of Belton, was one of those who had business in Pelzer Wednesday.

A. D. Jones of Belton route four, was here on business Wednesday.

A. C. Acker, a resident of Belton route four may be mentioned among those in town on business Wednesday. E. N. Caldwell, of Honea Path, route six, was in Belton Tuesday on business.

Calvin Gambrell, who lives on Belton route two, had business in town Wednesday.

Thomas Morgan of Ocoee and Charles Morgan of Whitefield, were in town Wednesday visiting their father, G. W. Morgan, who is very ill here.

O. T. Hill of Belton, route one, was a visitor here Wednesday.

N. E. King, a resident of Belton, route one, was here Wednesday.

Misses Mary and Marguerite Ollingscales, who has been visiting at Honea Path have returned to their home in Belton.

Thomas Shirley and Dr. E. Frierson left Tuesday evening for Norfolk where they will spend sometime.

W. H. Cobb, Jr., secretary of the Belton Democratic club, had business with the committee in Anderson on Monday.

J. Clyde Green was among those who had business in Anderson on Monday.

TONY CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and their little daughter, Louise, spent last week in Greenville with friends and relatives.

Mr. E. M. Holliday has just returned from a week's visit with his son, R. H. Holliday, in Hickory Grove.

Mr. Alph Granger, of Greenville, spent the week-end at Mr. J. E. Gissett's.

Misses Mamie, Maggie and Quaker Cothran attended the chautauque at Williamston last Friday.

Misses Nora and Edna Gossett and Lena Coker were in Pelzer shopping last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene King, of Waycross are visiting his father, Mr. J. E. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huff, of Chardlers, were visitors in this community last Monday.

Miss Ruby Davenport was the guest of Miss Martha Rhodes last Sunday.

Mr. Willie Putman, of Fountain, was a visitor in this community last Sunday.

Rome, August 14, via Paris. Serious troubles in Albania are causing anxiety. Insurgents are threatening Durazzo and Valona.

A Classified Business Directory

Of Firms That Will Endeavor to Deserve Your Patronage

Meat That's Fit to Eat

This is a season of the year when one should be very careful in regard to diet, especially meat. Be sure that the meat you buy is of the very best quality and absolutely fresh. You can be assured of this if you buy your meat from Maness' Market. Mr. Maness buys only the best and sells it while it is fresh. He personally inspects the product that is sold through his market and his long years of experience qualify him as an expert in his line. There is no better place to buy meat than Maness' Market. You can bank on prompt deliveries and full weights. The meat you order for dinner will be there in time for dinner. And best of all is the knowledge that you are getting the best that the market affords.

AUTOMOBILES.

Todd Talks: "Universally, the Ford is conceded to be the universal car." --Todd

GROCERIES.

Squash... String Beans... Pickles and Peanut Butter for Pickles. Crackers Asparagus 15c Can, Two for 25c. IDEAL GROCERY Phone 471

SHOE STORE.

Treat Your Feet... WE SELL THE SHOE YOU OUGHT TO BUY. GEISBERG BROS. SHOE CO. UNDER MASONIC TEMPLE. SHOE THAT SATISFY.

BARBER SHOP.

Complexion Beautifiers The Sanitary Barbers Sanitary Barber Shop

HOTELS.

MODERATE PRICES. SUBSTANTIAL MEALS. COOL, CLEAN ROOMS and CLEAN LINEN. The Bellevue Hotel

SHOE SHOP.

DON'T THROW YOUR OLD SHOES AWAY. Bring them to us and you'll get much more service from them. On the Square, Near Evans No. 5. W. J. Wood

BAKERY.

White Light Flaky Nourishing "Old Homestead Bread" DEMAND IT, EAT IT. Anderson Bakery

MONUMENTS.

A CARD "An impression seems to have gone abroad that I am a candidate for the legislature. This is a mistake. I'm not the man. I am a candidate, however, for your monument work and will guarantee to give you satisfaction." W. W. WHITE, White & Co.

CIGARS.

"Little Star" YOU ARE A GOOD CIGAR So is "ANDERSON" and "Fabrica" Anderson Havana Cigar Co.

MEATS.

MEAT THAT'S FIT TO EAT. Maness' Meat Market North Main St.

Drugs—Soft Drinks.

The Red Cross DELICIOUS DRINKS APPRECIATIVE SERVICE The Red Cross On the Square

PHOTO STUDIO.

IF YOU HAVE BEAUTY WE TAKE IT IF YOU HAVEN'T BEAUTY, WE MAKE IT. The Grand Studio

How Can I Attract Attention?

Every business man who advertises feels the importance of the proper answer to this question, for in the answer he solves the question of RESULTS. The answer we give is the intelligent and persistent use of The Anderson Intelligencer The Advertising Department is at your service.