Shoes That Satisfy

SOMETHING very hard to get; yet Geisberg Bro.'s Shoe Co., claim to have the shoes that will please, in every sense of the word. This enterprising, new store has since opening only a few month back, built up a reputation for Square dealing and selling "SHOES THAT SATISFY", that will ever be a source of pride to the managers, and to the buying public of Anderson and vicinity. We appreciate the efforts made by this company to give to Anderson a shoe store second to none in the state. Always courteous and obliging, the managers of this concern are continually striving to get the best to be had in footwear. Modern in every respect, this store offers advantages that it will pay you to investigate.

CARD FROM C. D. FORTNER

To the Democratic Voters of South Carolina:
Not being financially able to make a canvass throughout the State and see the voters personally, I take this means of thanking my friends for their help in the first primary, and of asking them to continue their good work.
I have made a clean, honest campaign and have stated my platform in a plain way. I have not had men travel over the state and work in my behalf, as my opponent has done; neither am I giving up a position that pays between five and six thousand dollars per year to run for an office that only pays nineteen hundred, as I charged my opponent with doing—and he has never denied the charge.
I understand that high officials of railroads are very active in Mr. Shealy's behalf. Certain parties are also circulating false and slanderous statements against me over the state. I ask the people of the state this question: "If these statements are true, why did not my opponents charge them against me while on the campaign?"
I charged Mr. Shealy in my speech in Charleston with playing double—that when he would get with a strong Blease man he was a Blease man, and when with a strong anti-Blease man he was an equally strong opponent of Blease. I said then, and say now, that he is deceiving the voters of this state, and I ask you, Mr. Voter, which is better—to have an honest man in office or a straddler?
I am a poor man and need the office, and if elected I promise to give my whole time and attention to the duties of the office, and no man shall ever have cause to regret my election. I shall be fair to the interests under the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission and at the same time see that they are fair to the people of the state.

Note the votes that I received in Spartanburg, Greenville, Pickens, Anderson and Greenwood counties. These are the counties where I have lived and am known.
I ask the honest people of this state who believe in honest government, to go to the polls and cast their ballots for me and for the next six years I will make you as good a Railroad Commissioner as South Carolina ever had.
Again thanking my friends for their support.
C. D. FORTNER,
Candidate for Railroad Commissioner.
Newt Campbell of near Eureka school house was among the visitors to spend yesterday in the city.
H. M. Garrison and W. H. Garrison of the Denver section were in the city yesterday.
Frank Breazeale and C. W. Duckworth of the Lebanon section spent yesterday in the city.
Ernest McCown of the Mountain Creek section spent yesterday in Anderson.
New Family to Reach City Today.
Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Sasseen and daughters, Ruth and Grace, will arrive in Anderson today and will make their home here in the future. Mr. Sasseen comes to Anderson to assume the position of advertising manager of The Anderson Intelligencer. He has had much experience in the advertising business, having been advertising manager of the Morning Glenser at Henderson for a number of years. For a time Mr. and Mrs. Sasseen will be at home at the Casquoia hotel and later they will move into a house on McDuffie street.
Subpoena Served On Secretary Here.
Porter A. Whaley, secretary of the Anderson chamber of commerce and secretary of the Anderson Theatre company, was somewhat surprised yesterday morning when he received a subpoena through the mails. For a minute or two Mr. Whaley actually thought that he had been subpoenaed to appear in the Atlanta courts and was about to call a meeting of the directors of the theatre. He then discovered that the paper was merely an advertisement—but a very clever scheme because it would have taken a lawyer to tell that it was not a genuine, and up-to-date subpoena.

Advertising Manager,
Anderson Intelligencer,
Anderson, S. C.
Dear Sir:
I think it is only right that I tell you of two incidents that have occurred recently by our advertising in your paper. Yesterday a man walked into the office and said that he wanted to look at the Chamblee farm that we were cutting up West of the city. I showed it to him and sold him one of them, before I got back to the office, I asked him where he saw the advertisement and he said in The Intelligencer.
Recently we had an inquiry from Columbia about a farm and when the man came up we sold him the place. He also said he saw the advertisement in The Intelligencer.
Yours very truly,
L. S. HORTON,
First Vice President.
