

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES OF THE RIGHT KIND

BRISSEY LUMBER COMPANY

Two houses situated side by side may look exactly alike from the OUTSIDE, but the difference in the length of life of the two houses depends upon the QUALITY of the Builders Supplies which went on the inside. There's a difference, and it is of extreme importance to the owner.

THE GREAT ANNUAL BELTON FAIR.

(Auld Lang Syne.)

We have a town known far and wide, The name of which is Belton; It is our pride there to reside— The best place man e'er dwelt on.

The public spirit is the joy Of all our meditation— A genuine, jolly, solid sort Of pleasant population.

And so for once in every year, As doubtless you're aware, We co-operate to celebrate A brilliant Belton fair.

Each worthy wight we now invite To join us in the fun; Admission to the fair is free— We do not want your mon;

But bring your chickens, ducks and eggs, The horse, the cow, the guinea, The sheep, the hog, the goat, and mule— It does not cost a penny:

Bring on your peacocks, turkeys, colts, Opesum, geese, and rooster, With all the produce of your farm;— Come be a booming booster.

And to the ladies who would join We say come on and hurry! We have a place fixed up for you:— 'Tis certain we should worry.

Bring cookies, candies, cakes, and all The canned goods you have canned, Along with factory made work, The handcraft of your hand.

And so for Belton we sing Till singing rends the air; We'll drink a cup of gladness yet To BELTON AND THE FAIR. G. W. C.

PASTOR RESIGNS. Rev. R. H. Burriss, who has been the faithful and able pastor of the Baptist church at Shady Grove for the past seven years, tendered his resignation last Sunday to take effect December 25th, 1914. The resignation of Mr. Burriss came as a surprise and the members, who have ever been loyal to their pastor and spiritual adviser, are very sorry that they will soon have to part with their pastor. The church has grown and prospered under the pastorate of Rev. Burriss. The membership has increased 130 during the seven years that Mr. Burriss has been pastor. The membership now is 343.

The church will call a pastor in the near future to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of the pastor. The good wishes of the members of Shady Grove church will follow Mr. Burriss to his new field of labor.

THE BELTON FAIR WILL BE A SUCCESS THIS YEAR. The premium list for the fifth annual Belton Fair will be ready for distribution next week and the premiums in cash and merchandise are very attractive. In addition to the many prizes offered this year two round trip tickets will be given to the State Fair— one to a lady and one to a gentleman. The best display of what will win one of these tickets and the other will be given to the lady who has the best cake.

The officers of the Belton Fair Association are very much interested in the cultivation of wheat. If the farmers of this county as a whole would plant more wheat and less cotton they would, in our opinion, be in better shape. Wheat flour is known to us all, as one of the main crops of this section of the state. Why continue buying wheat flour elsewhere when we can make it and by doing so reduce the cotton acreage.

For years and years our farmers have planted too much cotton. Wheat has advanced in price since war was declared in Europe and cotton has declined. Our farmers would be in tip-top shape if wheat was the main crop instead of cotton. Mr. Farmer, think this matter over seriously and next year plant lots of wheat and reduce the acreage of cotton.

The price of wheat this year is to encourage the farmers to plant wheat instead of cotton.

Miss Bess Allen spent the week-end with her mother in Greenville.

TONY CREEK.

Mr. Colonel Brooks, the contractor to build the West Dunklin school building, is getting along nicely with his work on the school house and thinks he will have it completed and ready for use by the first of November.

Miss Idna Gossett entertained a number of her friends Saturday night by giving a lawn party. Several which were from Honea Path, Belton and Fountain Inn, all reported a grand time.

Mrs. H. T. Holliday is very ill at this writing. Mr. Lester Hooper, of Piedmont, attended Sunday school at Cedar Shoal last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Holliday, Misses Annie and Daisy Holliday, returned to their home last Wednesday from a week's visit to relatives in Westminster.

Quite a number of the people of this community attended the singing convention at Daventon church last Saturday and Sunday.

Little Carl Holliday is very ill with fever and his little playmates wish for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Ruby Davenport was in Williamston shopping Monday. Mr. J. T. Cothran made a business trip to Belton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rhoads. Mr. and Mrs. David King spent Saturday with her father and mother, near Waycross.

Miss Lena Coker was in Williamston Saturday shopping.

LONG BRANCH NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shirley spent last Saturday and Sunday near Iva with Mrs. Shirley's sister, Mrs. Jim Hampton.

Miss Irene and Mr. Henry Geer left last week for Shenandoah Collegiate Institute, Dayton, Va. Miss Geer graduated in vocal music at this institution the past June and goes now to accept a position as instructor in vocal music. This is a very flattering offer for one so young, yet those who have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Geer sing feel that she is fully competent to fill this position. Her many friends wish for her every possible success in her work. Her brother will become a student in the South Carolina Institute.

Quite a number of our young people are leaving for their respective schools. Miss Mollie Hanks to Anderson College; Misses Anna Fagg and Eunice Taylor left Thursday for Asheville, N. C., where they will enter N. C. Normal and Collegiate Institute; George Clyde Shirley to University of Carolina; J. C. and L. W. Millford to Atlanta School of Physicians and Surgeons, Atlanta, Ga.; Louis McGee, Volnie Hanks and Grady Milford to North Greenville High School; Tigeraville, S. C. While we shall miss these young people from our midst during these school months, it is gratifying to us to have so many who are striving for an education. We hope the day will soon come when all our parents shall be so interested in educating their children that no stones shall be left unturned.

Messrs. S. L. and J. T. Shirley have recently returned from a week's stay in southern Georgia. They bring quite flattering reports from our sister state. The cotton crops seem much farther advanced than ours. They were very much impressed with the splendid view in Georgia but after all they like "Home Sweet Home" just a little better than anywhere else.

Miss Bessie Shirley left Thursday for Atlanta to visit her cousin, Mrs. Neva Burford Fortson.

Mr. Stan Hanks, of Anderson, visited his father's family recently.

The large brick house of Miss Lela Clinkscales was destroyed by fire early last Tuesday morning. Most of the contents of the house were saved. This palatial residence was one of the landmarks of the county and Miss Clinkscales has the sympathy of her many friends in the loss of her beautiful home.

PROF. COX TO LEAVE BELTON.

Prof. George W. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cox, of Belton, will leave Tuesday for Crockerville, Hampton county, where he will make his home. Prof. Cox has been elected superintendent of the Crockerville High School and the selection was a good one. Prof. Cox graduated at Furman University two years ago. Last year he taught in the Anderson High School, giving perfect satisfaction, and his many friends predict his success in his work in Hampton county.

CHEDDAR NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Baylis Kelly and also Mrs. Kelly's sister, Miss Bethulia Hall and Miss Dora Kelly went to Honea Path on last Sunday and reported a nice time.

The farmers are very busy gathering their crops, as the weather is very pretty now.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. J. L. Poore's baby has been very ill but is improving nicely.

Mr. Fred Seawright happened to a very serious accident when he was halting up fodder and his mule got frightened and ran away and got tangled in his harness and as Fred was trying to cut the mule loose he bit him through the left ankle. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Look out, girls, the wedding bells are still ringing. Mr. C. C. Copeland says that he is going to marry some time soon and the public is cordially invited. His many friends wish him a long and happy life.

Mr. H. A. Poore has been working at the Belton Mills, but will be at home very soon with his father, Mr. M. L. Poore.

The health of this community is very good at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Baylis Kelly and children spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. J. J. Kelly, of Belton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dunlap spent the day with Mrs. Annie Lollis last Sunday.

Mrs. N. A. Burgess is very ill at this writing. We wish her a speedy recovery.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST FINANCIAL.

The world's greatest financier is the South Carolina farmer's housewife. Her daily investments exceed in shrewdness the clever transactions of Wall Street and no business concern or corporation, however ably officered, has ever been able to approach her in economy. She is the nation's ablest trader and her transactions more nearly reflect the progress and prosperity of the country than the reports of our clearing houses.

All legislation, financial or otherwise, ought to be so plain that the housewife can understand it. Our legislators, state and national, shoot so far over the head of the average citizen that those who are unable to employ an attorney and accept his statements in blind faith, must forever remain in ignorance of our laws. Of course we have so many laws that no human can expect to read them and survive the ordeal, but any person who feels an irresistible impulse to legislate, should try his proposed law on his neighbor and get it down where the common people can understand it before attempting to put it on the statute books.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC.

Last Wednesday evening a jolly crowd of young people went on a most delightful moonlight picnic to the Saluda river. The trip was made in a wagon and was the second picnic of the kind for the summer. It was rather cool and just after supper a large bon-fire was made and the boys and girls grouped around it and enjoyed ghost tales and jokes. The party returned to the city at about twelve o'clock and one pleasant night was thus made history. Mrs. W. A. Clement acted as chaperone. The party consisted of Misses Mamie Shirley, Grace Watkins, Julia Blake, Rebecca Turner, Sara Latimer, Margaret Clement and Florida Green and Messrs. Gilbert Campbell, Henry Watkins, Louis Seal, Gertina Gaines, Smyth Blake, George Clement and Willie Cobb.

ORANGEBURG TO BUY. Purchasers Are Favored Ten Cent Cotton.

Orangeburg, Sept. 15.—A mass meeting was held in the court house last night by the business men of Orangeburg to discuss the cotton situation. The meeting was called by order of H. H. Crum, president of the Orangeburg cotton congress. The meeting was well attended. A number of talks were made and many suggestions offered. It was decided that a committee be appointed to canvass the city to see how many men would purchase cotton at 10 cents and hold for higher prices. This committee was appointed. It was urged that the business men write to their Northern creditors and ask them to buy cotton at 10 cents. The citizens of the entire county of Orangeburg are begged to help in this work and to buy at least a bale at 10 cents. A number of Orangeburgers are purchasing cotton. Already the canvassing committee has been able to secure purchases for about 50 bales. At the end of the canvass the names of all who buy a bale or more will be published. The plan promises to work well here. ABILITY, NOT QUANTITY, PAYS IN FARMING. No farmer gets rich by the quantity of production. It is the price he gets for his products and economy and business judgment displayed in management that makes the farmer wealthy. We cannot pass a law that will increase the price of products and upon improved mechanical appliances and the business ability of the farmer to reduce the cost of production, and to more intelligently market his products.
