Meeting Woman's Missionary Society.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock the regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held. It is a very important meeting and each member of the society, and those of the seven divisions, are urged to attend. There is much to do in the month of December, and let each member be willing to be made willing to do her part.

Mission Study Class.

The Mission Study Class of the First Baptist church met in the Philathea room last Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Smethers, who is vice leader, was "drilling the king's army." Two very full and instructive model programs were submitted; one on "Cuba," and her need, by Mrs. J. W. Quattlebaum and "State Mission, our part in the work," by Miss Olivia Duckett. It is to be hoped that both of them will be used at some meeting of the local society.

For the Mountain Schools.

The little girls of the Primary Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church met on Friday afternoon at the home of the president, Miss Elizabeth Hudgens, to pack a box for the children of the Mountain School. Each one brought packages of clothing, and a nice box was packed under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. W. H. Frazier.

Philathea Class.

A delightfully pleasant meeting of the Philathea class of the Central Presbyterian church, was held on Thursday evening with the Misses Cochran on Cater street. The principal business was making arrangements for an oyster supper next Thursday evening in the store room next to Tolley's furniture store.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a pleasant social way that adds so much to the feeling of love and fellowship in the church work. Later the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Week of Prayer.

The Home Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church will observe next week as a week of prayer, beginning Tuesday afternoon. The services will be held in the church, and on Tuesday afternoon will be led by Miss Nellie Cochran, the president.

Wednesday afternoon the two papers will be Mountain Work by Miss Mary Russell and Mission Schools, by Miss Eva Mayfield.

Thursday afternoon, 4 o'clock: The Great West, by Miss Evie Lewis. The Foreigner, by Mrs. Earle Lewis.

Friday afternoon, 4 o'clock: The Negro, by Mrs. Raymond Beaty.

League Oyster Supper.

On next Tuesday, Nov. 17th, from 5:00 p. m. till the oysters give out, there will be an oyster supper under the auspices of the Epworth League of St. John's Methodist church at the store recently vacated by B. Hillman, next to Tolly Furniture Co., on E. Whitner street.

Turkey Dinner.

The ladies of Grace Episcopal church will serve an elegant turkey dinner on Tuesday in the store room next to Tolly's furniture store, beginning at 12 o'clock. Dinner will be 35 cents, with 15 cents for desert. The ladies will also have sandwiches and home made candy on sale.

Aid Society.

The Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church met on Monday afternoon with Mrs. R. C. Langin, at her home on Greenville street. There was a splendid attendance and the afternoon was spent planning and arranging for a dinner and fancy work sale on the first Tuesday in December. During the social part, Mrs. Laughlin served an elegant salad and the meeting was most pleasant and informal. She was assisted by Mrs. O. L. Martin and Miss Ella Avery.

Missionary Society.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the A. R. P. church was entertained by Mrs. Theo Roper, at her home on Sayre street.

This was an interesting meeting as officers were elected for the next year. Mrs. O. H. Reid being re-elected as president, with Mrs. J. I. Brownlee as vice president. Mrs. H. E. Todd, treasurer, and Miss Lena Cinkacates, secretary. The society was delighted to have two visitors, Mrs. Horde of Kings Mountain, who visited Mrs. J. M. Garrison, and Miss Bonnie Orr of Charlotte, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. I. Brownlee.

A most pleasant social hour was enjoyed after the business had been disposed of, during which Mrs. Roper served her guests a delightful salad course.

Orphanage Boxes.

The ladies of the Guild of Grace Episcopal church will pack and send, this week, their boxes for the Episcopal Orphanage at Yemassee. One box, containing a complete and substantial outfit for "their boy" at the orphanage, is in charge of the president of the Guild, Mrs. R. C. Webb. Twice a year these ladies send these things for this boy, and so again this week his usual box will go. The other box is in charge of Mrs. D. S. Gray and Mrs. H. A. Orr, and will contain everything in the way of clothing and provisions for the orphanage in general. This box will be packed the latter part of the week at the home of Mrs. D. S. Gray.

Red Cross Seal.

The ladies who have charge of the sale of Red Cross seals, for the benefit of the tuberculosis relief work in South Carolina will begin to make a canvass of the town as soon as Thanksgiving is possible and earnestly ask the cooperation of the people of Anderson in their effort to raise money to wipe out this awful plague in South Carolina.

State Convention.

Mrs. E. W. Masters, Mrs. Tom Bolt, Miss Anna Berger and Miss Bessie Majors returned yesterday from Newberry, where they attended the annual State convention of the Woman's Missionary union, auxiliary to the State Baptist convention. There were about 400 delegates present from every section of the State and the president is Mrs. J. D. Chapman, formerly of this city but now of Greenville. The convention lasted three days and was a splendid meeting throughout.

Doll Sale.

The Junior Philathea class of the Baptist church are busy getting ready for a doll sale some time the latter part of this month. The dolls will all be beautifully dressed and none will sell for over $1.00. Two will be given away. The young ladies are working hard to make it a very successful affair.

Macaroni

One of the big trades offered for Saturday and Monday down to 212 S. Main St., is Macaroni. Now just what about it. 3 pounds for 25c. Me and Ma have tried it and we know there is none better. And that Rio Coffee, 7 pounds for $1.00 is a wonder.

I tell you folks you can't afford to miss buying such good coffee so cheap.

And nowhere else can you buy 10 pound buckets of lard for 95c. Says her sister Jane pays $1.25 for the same lard. But we've heard it talked round that she don't pay her grocery bill every month. Me and Ma does and we get our groceries just like handing the money down for them. You sho ought to see that window all dressed up with fresh meats. There are whole hogs, quarters of beef, all pure sausage, pork chops, hams, mutton, etc. Just inside the store is fresh fish and oysters and they are beautiful. That good old cream-cheese, mince meat, raisins, pickles, nuts, etc., makes a boy's eyes dance and his mouth run water. You can do as you please "Bud," but me and Ma are going to trade with

There's a Reason

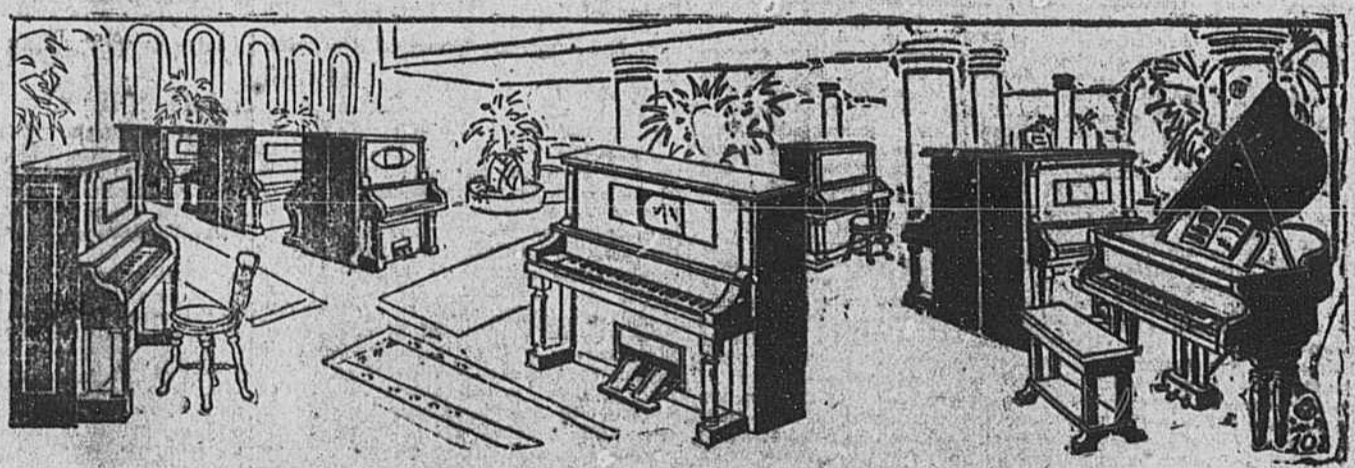

The reason that so many houses look better than others is not that they are painted oftener, but they are painted with the best.

Next time—try "Patton's Sun Proof" paint.

TEN CENTS FOR COTTON

In order to show that our sympathy for the farmers of this community is REAL—the kind that you can CASH IN—we are willing to sell the Very Best Makes of Pianos and Organs at prices as low or lower than you can get them for elsewhere, and take Middling cotton at TEN CENTS per pound in payment for same.

We BUY our pianos OUTRIGHT—paying SPOT CASH for them—and we buy them CHEAP—therefore we are in a position to SELL them CHEAPER than the other fellow, who carries them on "Consignment" or buys them "On Time."

This is simple—nothing hard to understand about this; we all know that SPOT CASH always BUYS anything CHEAPER than "ON TIME"—Hence our ability to UNDER-SELL ALL COMPETITION.

Every piano which we sell is fully GUARANTEED for TEN YEARS by the Manufacturers and by us.

We will sell YOU a Piano or Organ for Cash or Terms to Suit You.
