

Commerical and Financial

Financial

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Announcement that the New York stock exchange will resume trading in stocks next Saturday on a basis less restrictive than that which now applies to bonds, was the feature of interest in financial circles today. The list of stocks will embrace almost 200 issues out of a total of the 565 listed on the exchange. It includes all the leading industries with the exception of United States Steel, most of the railways not in the international class and a great variety of cheaper shares, those selling under $15 being free from all restrictions.

Bonds and stocks again were distinctly firm, the aggregate dealings in the latter on the exchange being the largest, according to reports, since July 29. In the bond division the chief feature was the Rock Island group, which was increasingly active at further advances.

Southern Pacific convertibles also contributed largely to the day's gain which was the largest since the resumption of bond issues, including International Paper 5's. Declines, as usual, were pronounced ranging from 2 to 3 points, the latter representing the loss in Granby Mining sizes.

Among the principal stocks gains were Lehigh Valley, Drexel, Central Leather and American Beet Sugar. In the latter stocks manifested a reactionary trend.

Time money continued to work easier, while call money touched in the new rate of 3 per cent. Marks again furnished the only feature of the foreign exchange market, their greater firmness strengthening the belief that Germany was continuing her selling of our securities in this market.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Cotton was quiet today but there was enough buying to give a steady undertone. The close was not unchanged to 2 points higher. The demand for the late months was less active than toward the end of last week, but bullish sentiment was partially encouraged by the continued absence of southern hedge-selling on any important scale and the increasing export movement. There appeared to be little or no pressure against the market.

The opening was steady at an average of 1 to 2 points in response to steady cables. December notices estimated at about 3,500 bales were reported in circulation, but evidently closed no liquidation of consequence, and active months sold about 3 to 4 points net higher shortly after the call. Reactions of 5 to 6 points followed under realization, but trade buying made its appearance on every little rally and the close was within 2 to 3 points of the best.

While holders with European connections have been among the best buyers here recently, and some traders have attributed the demand to German interests, others claim that the buying of late months has been the result of domestic spinners. There are said to be buying not only for their immediate needs, but also for future contracts from southern shippers for deliveries next summer or autumn at anything like the prevailing spot quotations, and they are holding out on the decline as a protection against their needs.

Stock cotton quiet; middling uplands 7.25; Gulf 7.75. No sales. Cotton futures, closed steady. Open high low close. January 7.21 7.21 7.20 7.20. February 7.22 7.22 7.20 7.20. March 7.23 7.23 7.20 7.20. April 7.24 7.24 7.20 7.20. May 7.25 7.25 7.20 7.20. June 7.26 7.26 7.20 7.20. July 7.27 7.27 7.20 7.20. August 7.28 7.28 7.20 7.20. September 7.29 7.29 7.20 7.20. October 7.30 7.30 7.20 7.20. November 7.31 7.31 7.20 7.20. December 7.32 7.32 7.20 7.20.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Cotton goods and yarns were quiet and barely steady today. Commission houses reported a better demand from jobbers. Large order for men's wear for army was being placed. New silk was steady but low.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—The price of cotton moved within narrow limits today and closed one point lower to 4 points higher than the last prices of Saturday. The market at all times was steady. At the highest the most active months were 2 points over Saturday's final figures and at their lowest 3 points under.

Total shipments from all points, including the coastwise clearances, were $2,269 bales, while total port receipts were only 57,552 bales. Total foreign exports were 79,543 bales which bring exports thus far this season up to 1,574,653 bales.

Liverpool was a seller in this market in the early part of the session but offerings from this source were offset by buying orders from Germany. Some spot business is beginning to look upon German spinners and spot merchants as their best customers for contracts.

Spot cotton quiet; sales on the spot 240 bales; to arrive 1,375. Cotton futures closed as follows: January 7.18; March 7.20; May 7.43; July 7.68; October 7.92.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 7.—Cotton, spot, quiet; prices steady. American middling fair 5.92; good middling 4.93; middling 4.97; low middling 3.91; sales ordinary 3.38; ordinary 2.81. Sales 6,000 bales, including 5,000 American. Futures closed quiet. May and June 4.13; July and August 4.19; October and November 4.29; January and February 4.35 1-2.

Cotton Seed Oil

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Cottonseed oil was weak under liquidations by local longs and the west on a market of poor absorbing power. Crude, however, was quoted unchanged, but some think the decline in refined oil will force mills to loosen up. Final prices were 8 to 25 points net lower. Sales 12,000 barrels.

The market closed weak. Spot $5.75 @ $5.95; December $5.75 @ $5.80; January $5.91 @ $5.95; May $5.43 @ $5.45; June $5.44 @ $5.45; July $5.56 @ $5.55.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Wheat turned heavy in the last 15 minutes today and a moderate advance which had been scored was more than wiped out. Disclosures that the market had become bare of speculative orders to buy was responsible. Prices finished weak at a shade to 1-2 under Saturday. Corn lost 1-4 to 5-8 net and oats 1-4 to 2-8. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 10c down.

Grain and provisions closed: Wheat, December 61 7-8; May $1.21 5-8. Corn, December 43 7-8; May 53 3-4. Oats, December 47 1-8; May 61 7-8. Cash grain: Wheat No. 2 red, $1.17 1-2 @ $1.17 7-8; No. 3 hard, $1.17 3-4 @ $1.17 5-8. Corn, No. 2 yellow, 68 1-2; new 64. Oats, standard, 49 1-4.

Live Stock

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Hogs steady. Bulk $6.70 @ $7.25; light $6.40 @ $7.50; mixed $6.60 @ $7.25; heavy $6.60 @ $7.25; rough $6.55 @ $7.10; pigs $4.40 @ $7.25. Cattle firm; some fancy Christmas steers at $11.00 all. Native steers $5.70 @ $10.00; western, $5.25 @ $8.40; calves $6.50 @ $7.10; lambs, $6 @ $15.

On account of bad weather the attendance has been rather short this week, but we hope with the return of good weather that it will soon be normal again.

The members of the literary society of the high school are preparing a program for a public meeting that is to be held in the near future.

On last Tuesday while we were in chapel we were delightfully entertained by the tenth grade. The subject was about the usefulness of books. The following interesting program was rendered:

Scripture Reading—Grace Campbell. Current Events—Ella Watkins. Songs—Learn a Little Every Day—Class.

Recitation—The Wonders of Books—Vera McInnes. Recitation—What a Book Said—Annie Harris. Song—Traveling the High Road to Learning—Class.

Reading—A Bookish Tale—Vivian Cox. Miss Shelton, our fourth grade teacher, has been quite sick for the last few days. We hope she will soon be able to resume her work.

GRACE M. COX, Ninth Grade.

A Teacher's Prayer for Her Pupils: God of the heart and hand, Teach me to understand: I know so little of the thought that lies Back of the shining of those childish eyes; I guess so little of the wonder there Under the curling of the sunny hair. It is so very, very long ago Since I too, knew the things that children know.

Out of thy wisdom grant me all I need: Patience of purpose, faith and tenderness; Trusting thy perfect love to lead and guide.

Help me to remember—oh! for this I pray, Make me again the child of yesterday, One of the happy band, One of the young children, One of the happy band.

DOUBLE SPRINGS

The school at this place opened November the 22nd with but very few students, but have gradually grown to be a good sized school. We have had one teacher here before but have two now.

We have been raising all this week but a heavy rain on a day. I learn more on it by present.

We organized a school improvement association here last spring and we will hold a regular meeting Tuesday, December 8th. Our principal, Miss May Wicheston, has sent special invitations to all the patrons to make it an effort to be present.

Our present school room is too small to accommodate our two teachers and their pupils. The W. O. W. has kindly consented to let us have the ground floor of their hall, provided we will raise money to call and equip it ready for use. We have already raised some money by having box parties, etc. We are to have another box party December 12th, proceeds to be applied to equipping said room which we hope to be occupying in a short while.

SAN KING, Fifth Grade.

MAURIE M. GARLINGTON.

Difficult to Spell.

A country politician in New Jersey was elected school commissioner. One day he visited a school and told the teacher he desired to examine the Christmas Day... and for the older pupils select such subjects as, "The First Christmas," "Bethlehem," "The Origin of Santa Claus," etc. Decorate these compositions with drawings, paper cuttings, or pictures. Begin the decorations with holly, evergreens, strings of popcorn, and with the bells, stars, stockings, etc., that the children have made.

Dress up the blackboards with drawings of holly and mistletoe. Hang wreaths at the window, and outside the door, and crown your Madonnas with your prettiest wreaths.

The Christmas number of the Ladies Home Journal and the Woman's Home Companion have many suggestions for decorations and for articles to be read in school. Visit the teachers' rest room, and get ideas from the teachers' bulletin board. Mr. Pant has kindly given the rest room its Christmas decoration, which will give the teachers many ideas.

The course of study and help may be found a suggestive program, with the songs and poems for the day. If any teacher in the county has not received a copy of this bulletin, it may be gotten at the office, or by writing for it. The following is a copy of "December Lesson Plans." (These plans are being prepared for each month by several of the rural supervisors.) Let each teacher save the best pieces of her work for the County School Fair next spring.

MAURIE M. GARLINGTON.

What is Education?

A professor in the University of Chicago says to be educated in the true sense a man must be able to truthfully answer affirmatively all these questions:

Has education made you public spirited?

Has it made you a brother to the boys and girls.

A spelling class was performing, so the commissioner said he would inquire into the proficiency of that organization. The teacher gave him a spelling book, and the students, lined up in front of the mighty educator.

He thumbed the book. Then, pointing at the first boy, he said: "Spell eggplant."

"Eggplant," slowly spelled the boy. "Wrong," said the commissioner, and pointing to the next boy: "You spell eggplant."

"Eggplant," spelled the boy. "Wrong," said the commissioner, and pointing to the next boy: "You spell eggplant."

"Eggplant," spelled the boy. "Wrong," said the commissioner, and pointing to the next boy: "You spell eggplant."

friends yourself?

Can you look an honest man or a pure woman in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a lonely dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meanest drudgery of life?

Do you think washing dishes and hoeing corn just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing and golf?

Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out on the world, and see anything except dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mud puddle by the wayside and see a clear sky?
