GEO. M. HARPER HAS FALLEN TO SLEEP

LONG PERIOD OF PATIENT
SUFFERING WAS ENDED
LATE YESTERDAY

FUNERAL TODAY

Services Will Be Held at the Home at 4 O'Clock—Interment at Silver Brook

George Marshall Harper, after a long life fraught with a sweetness and gentleness that endeared him to the hearts of all who knew him, has fallen asleep, the end coming peacefully in the hush of late yesterday afternoon and bringing surcease from pain of an illness that had held him since the first of the year.

The news of his death will bring sadness to the hearts of a multitude of people, who loved and admired him for what he was, a kind, gentle and unassuming Christian, who preferred his own hearthstone, and to do good in his quiet way, rather than the ways of public life. His death takes away a father who was the embodiment of the ideal, and removes from the community a citizen who bore an untarnished name and whose influence for righteousness worked quietly but none the less effectively.

Funeral Today.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home, 233 Greenville street, and will be conducted by the Rev. John W. Speake, pastor of St. John's Methodist church, of which Mr. Harper was a consistent and consecrated member. Dr. W. H. Frazer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will assist in the funeral services. Interment will be in the family plot at Silver Brook cemetery.

Those who will serve as pallbearers are: Active: Messrs. R. S. Igon, G. P. Browne, W. W. Witte, L. P. Smith, B. B. Bleckley and Fred G. Tribble. Honorary: Messrs. J. B. Sanders, Frank Crayton, A. H. Osborne, J. F. Clinkscales, W. T. W. Harrison and Cowan Brock.

A Patient Sufferer.

Mr. Harper was taken sick the first of January, this year, and for the past two weeks his death was expected at most hourly. Several weeks ago it was thought that he was dying and members of the immediate family were summoned to his bedside, but he rallied and continued to improve. A few days ago a turn for the worse took place, and again the members of the family were summoned. With the exception of one son, Dr. William G. Harper, who lies ill in a Pennsylvania hospital, all the members of the immediate family were at Mr. Harper's bedside when the end came. He was a patient sufferer and bore up under his illness with Christian fortitude. He was ill for eight weeks.

74 Years of Age.

Mr. Harper was a son of William N. and Nancy Harper, and was born in the lower part of Anderson County November 26, 1841. Early in life he was married to Miss Anna H. Browne, daughter of the late Samuel Browne, of Broadway township, their wedding taking place on December 18, 1867.

Up until the breaking out of the Civil War Mr. Harper made his home in the section where he was born. When the call to arms came he enlisted in Co. K, Orr's regiment, and served throughout the war, mostly in Virginia and Maryland. He was in some of the most important battles of the war and received wounds on two battlefields, first at the second battle of Manassas and second at the battle of Chancellorsville.

Moved to Greenville.

After the war Mr. Harper returned to Anderson County, but in 1875 moved to Greenville County. He made his home in that county until 1888 when he bought the Willis Pruitt place, four miles north of Anderson and settled there. He continued to live on the farm until about 14 years ago, when he sold his plantation and moved to the city.

Some four years ago his wife died. On the first of January, this year, his only living sister, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Lentine, died. He is survived by six children and one brother. The children are: Rev. S. B. Harper, pastor of Bethel Methodist church, Charleston, and one of the best known figures in the South Carolina conference; Samuel D. Harper of this city; Mrs. W. F. Tolly of Anderson; Mrs. Clarence Osborne of this city; Dr. William G. Harper of Abbeville, and Dr. James E. Harper of Belton. His surviving brother is J. M. Harper of the Eureka section of the county. He is survived also by eight grandchildren.

He's Coming Back.

Joe P. Timms, of Inwood, Ga., was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Timms was an Anderson county citizen, and says he is coming back as soon as he can.

State and County Tax.

The time for paying State and county tax without penalty extended to April 1. After that time executions against property on which tax has not been paid will be in order.

How Mr. Davis Got Rid of a Bad Cough.

"Some time ago I had a very bad cough," writes Lewis T. Davis, Blackwater, Del. "My brother, McCabe Davis gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After taking this I bought half a dozen bottles of it but only used one of them as the cough left me and I have not been troubled since." Obtainable everywhere.

ANDERSONIAN MAKES GOOD IN FAR WEST

JOHN L. PRINCE PRESIDENT
BANNING, CALIFORNIA,
BOARD OF TRADE

SON JUDGE PRINCE

Wrote Here to Get Information
Relative to Tomato Club
Work, Etc.

Anderson people are always glad to hear of Anderson boys who are living other towns and cities "making good" in their adopted homes, and for this reason it will be good news to them to know that John L. Prince, young son of Judge and Mrs. Geo. E. Prince and brother of Sam'l L. Prince of the local bar, has been elected president of the Banning (Cal.) Board of Trade. Mr. Prince and his older brother, Norman, having gone to California to live only a few years ago.

Probably Anderson people would never have heard of this Anderson boy being honored this way in his adopted town had it not been for a letter which Miss Jamie C. Garlington, tomato club demonstration for this county, received yesterday morning. Mr. Prince did not write to tell Miss Garlington that he was president of the board of trade of his adopted town. He wrote her for some information as to the plan of conducting tomato clubs. Miss Garlington showed the letter to a reporter for The Intelligencer, and the latter saw from the printed matter on the letter head that John Prince was president of the Banning Board of Trade.

Following is a copy of the letter received:

"I have read with a great deal of interest an account in the Anderson Intelligencer of your work with the tomato clubs and write for a bit of information.

"First, I would like to know, the prime object of the clubs. From what source do you get the prizes for the contestants? What are some of the prizes offered? How do you find a market for the tomatoes raised? Ordinarily what do the tomatoes sell for per ton?"

Miss Garlington has sent Mr. Prince the information he requested.
