

Why Leave Pickens.
Why go to Georgia or Texas or anywhere else. This is as good a country as can be found anywhere. One of our citizens told us not long ago that he came to Pickens ten years ago with $600.00, and now can show $12,000. There are a number of others in this town and other towns in the county and throughout the county who have done equally as well.

Another of our citizens expressed the truth when he said: "No use to go to Georgia or Texas or anywhere else, for the people made more here than they could gather."

A Cotton Convention.
Gov. Colquitt, of Texas, has called a convention of the governors of the cotton section of the South to be held at New Orleans on the 30th inst. for the purpose of devising some uniform scheme for the cotton producer to hold for better prices. Ex-Senator John L. McLaurin, of Bennettsville, has been urged by Gov. Bleasdale and Gov. Colquitt to attend because of his experience in financial circles and his familiarity with such problems. It is hoped that good will be accomplished at this convention.

Pride is like leprosy. It makes us hideous to look upon yet all the while we think we are beautiful.

Have you seen the comet? It is very brilliant and can be seen in the east between four and five o'clock any clear morning.

Owing to the spring drought the oat crop in this state this year is short 50,000 bushels of the total number grown last year.

Farmers, if you had to plant your 1912 crop of cotton now in face of the present price of cotton would you plant as many acres and use as much fertilizer as you did this year?

and convicted negro, was in county last week for a criminal assault. He was sentenced to be hung on the 10th of November. This was a speedy trial and enforcement of law.

The young man in Greenville county, Edgar Barry, who tried to outstrip Jere Moore failed. Everybody who saw his prize acre in the summer when it looked its best predicted he would make 250 bushels of corn, but he only made 73. The drought cut it off. He will try again.

It is understood that President W. J. Oliver of the Oliver Construction Company is now in closing the financial accounts for the road. It is that the concern that had the road has already control of the Knoxville Greenville railroad, which will be built across the county.

Charities and Correction.
The third annual meeting of the South Carolina Conference of Charities and Correction is announced for November 23 and 24 at Columbia. The gathering is made up of social workers of almost every shade of religious belief. There will be wide discussion of problems bearing on charity, philanthropy, benevolence and penology. Some of the prominent people of the State are active leaders in the movement, which indicates its note-worthiness. All interested persons are invited to attend the conference.

Downie & Wheeler's Circus Combined.

When one considers that with Downie & Wheeler's Big Double Circus, which is to visit Easley, S. C., Nov. 3, there are hundreds of people employed, and that of these three are blacksmiths, painters, carpenters, barbers, laundrymen, doctors, a lawyer, detectives, cooks, trainmen, butchers, waiters, seamstresses, harness makers, musicians, shoe makers, a postmaster, hostlers, electricians and many other mechanics and artisans, besides the performers, all jumbled together and working for a common interest. The task of organizing this traveling city seems the most wonderful feature of the institutions. In Downie & Wheeler's winter quartet, the home of these new giant shows, the work of organizing the circus began last September. The important thing is to engage the acts, and this is done by agents of the show, who, during the winter, visit the amusement hall of Europe and Asia in search of novelties. Meantime, in the ring barns the trainers are putting the various animal acts into shape. A few weeks before the season begins the various performers who have been resting during the winter arrive to practice their acts, that they may be perfected by the time the regular rehearsals begin, and all winter the sound of the anvil and the mallet is heard at the circus quarters. Meantime the advertising cars have started out in advance, while the various contracting agents are on their way, arranging for circus lots and bill board space, etc. Then there is the 24-hour man, who is a story in himself. He gets his title from being 24 hours ahead of the show, arranging for food, water, food and ice, besides attending to many other matters that have arisen. Everything about the Downie & Wheeler's Combined Shows has been so systematized that it is like a great clock. All sorts of obstacles are overcome daily with no boasting. Every day brings some new problem to solve, but when daylight appears the great canvas tops are undulating in the breeze and everybody is ready for the parade. It is true that of all professionals, none are more domestic than the circus performer. He may lead the life of a rover the greater part of the year, but in his home he is a devoted husband and father. He carries his home around with him, and his ordinary traveler can not do it. In this queer traveling city they speak every language, from English to Hindoostan.

WHAT A VALUABLE Message to the World.

THAT old, reliable 4-cylinder, 5-passenger Model T touring car, unchanged during its four years before the public, except for a few refinements, put on the market now for $690—equipped to the last detail. The Model T Commercial Roadster for $590. The Model T Town Car for $900. And a new Delivery Wagon on the same Model T Chassis for $700. These prices include full equipment: Extension Top, Automatic Brass Windshield, Gas Lamps, Generator and Speedometer. Is there any wonder that

"When Ford Speaks the World Listens."

If this were the announcement of a new model you might be skeptical of the car's merits, but Ford Model T is the best known car on earth. More of them are on the highways of the world than there are of any other motor car.

This is the fifth season of the Model T and its absolute reliability has been proven by 80,000 satisfied Model T owners. Think how that car has been tried and tested in four years of hard service. Ford owners in every quarter of the globe will tell you today that their Model T Cars are reliable in every emergency and of surprising efficiency and under any and all conditions. After all of the millions of miles those cars have traveled, everybody knows the Ford Model T is right.

And that's the same sterling car that is being built for 1912—75,000 of them—with added features which go to make it even more convenient and valuable for users. By reason of the largely increased production, with consequent economy in buying and making, the price for 1912 has been largely reduced.

We are now ready to close contracts with Agents and Dealers for 1912 business.
