Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

Let everybody behave themselves on the 21st.

Rev. C. H. Clyde, of Greenwood, was in town Monday.

Mr. J. M. Gantt made a business trip to Atlanta last week.

Mr. John P. Smith, ex-county commissioner, was in the city Monday.

Joseph E. Leach, Esq., of Easley, spent Monday in the city on business.

Miss Frances Robinson, of Easley, was the guest of Mrs. B. A. Hagood last week.

Mrs. Luther Grandy and children, of Greenwood, are visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Carter, of Chicago, are on a visit to Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ashmore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hester, after a pleasant stay with relatives here, have returned to their home in Atlanta.

Miss Helen Lewis returned last week from Gainesville, Ga., where she has been taking a special course in music.

We expect Pickens yeomanry to maintain its reputation the day of the campaign meeting and have a sane, sober meeting.

Mr. R. L. Ambler, of Greenville, has been sojourning a few days around the scenes of his boyhood, but returned Monday.

The city fathers trained up one of the new county gas-line road machines by doing some excellent work on the streets Monday.

Mr. J. A. Hughes, a former valued citizen of this county but now living near Ware Shoals, Laurens county, visited his father, Mr. Larkin Hughes, and other relatives last week.

Messrs. W. M. Stansell, E. L. Smith, J. W. and Ira Christopher, W. O. and Eugene Nalley, C. F. Davidson and C. A. Bates left Monday for Table Rock and Caesar's Head and other mountain points.

We have on hand 500 high grade, linen envelopes, on which is printed an erroneous corner card, and owing to this fact, we will sell them for 75 cents—cost price. If you do not object to the card, come and get them.

Upon inquiry among those who have heretofore taken an active part in the county fair, it develops that there will be none this year. This is caused by a little negligence in starting in time to get up a premium list.

Mrs. M. L. Gresham, once a fair daughter of Pickens but whose abode is now in Atlanta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hester. Accompanying her are her daughter, little Miss May, and Miss Martha Jeanne Chambers, who are guests of Miss Pearl Hester.

Dr. J. N. Hallum, of the Pickens Drug Company, has gotten out a new liver pill called Hallum's Liver Cleansers which he considers the best pill you can buy to keep the liver, stomach and blood right. The Pickens Drug Company will mail them to you if you cannot come or send on receipt of the price, 25 cents per box.

In a personal letter from Dr. L. G. Clayton, of Central, asking us to publish a notice of the camp meeting soon to be held at that place, which notice will be found in another column, he says: "You are cordially invited to be with us, and you will be allowed to preach, pray, sing and shout as much as you wish. Give the town of Pickens a special invitation."

Decoration day at Cross Roads next Saturday, 17th inst. On this occasion the graves of the old soldiers will be decorated and appropriate addresses by prominent speakers will be made. The public is cordially invited and a special invitation is extended to the members of Camp Garvin and Camp Hawthorne is given and to all the old soldiers.

The Sunday school of Bethlehem school house will observe next Saturday as children's day. The exercises will be held in the grove near Mr. W. T. Galley's, where the tent meeting was held a year or so ago, beginning at 10 a. m., and will consist of songs, recitations, etc. Hon. J. E. Boggs, among others, is expected to deliver an address. The public cordially invited, and bring baskets.

Mr. George E. Welborn, former principal of the Princeton high school, Laurens county, entertained at his home last week a number of his high school boys. The visiting young men were Messrs. Robert, Garvey and Ithamer Ridgeway, Elbert and Thomas Freeman, Raymond Davis and Clary McCuen. The boys, accompanied by Mr. Welborn and brother, Robert, made a typical mountain trip, visiting a number of points of interest, including Lake Toxaway and Table Rock. They returned home greatly benefited by their visit to one of nature's great art galleries.

Our readers have no doubt noticed the advertising of the Cortright Metal Roofing company, Philadelphia, Pa., which has been appearing in our columns for several months, with change of cuts each week, and we hope that those of our subscribers who have been in need of such material have been interested and profited by these advertisements. The system of roofing supplied by this company possesses every point of superiority—weather-tight, fireproof, beauty of appearance, durability, ease of application and low first cost. The Heath-Bruce-Morrow company handles these good and are always glad to show samples and quote close prices on any quantity.

THE FIRST PRIMARY.

In the first primary the vote for the leading three candidates was very close. Out of less than 100,000 votes cast, Bleas, Featherstone and McLeod together received 77,292 votes, with six candidates in the race. The vote for these three was as follows: Bleas 28,986; Featherstone 26,142; McLeod 22,164. Bleas had a lead over Featherstone of only 2,844, and Featherstone had a lead over McLeod of only 3,938 votes. The Bleas, McLeod and Duncan vote was the anti prohibition vote, and it amounted to 32,234, as against 51,486 for the three prohibitionists, whereas in the second primary when a much larger total vote was cast, Bleas received only 56,250 votes to 50,670 for Featherstone.

In the first primary of 1910, which was the real test of the personal strength of the candidates, Bleas received a majority in only three counties, Aiken, 12 votes; Newberry, 176 votes; and Saluda, 16 votes. McLeod received a majority in the six counties of Beaufort, Charleston, Florence, Georgetown, Lee and Sumter.

The Intelligent Voter

Let's see who is the intelligent voter.

When Judge Jones spoke at Hampton he used some language that was unnecessary.

I voted for Gov. Bleas last election for I had no patience with prohibition or a man who advocated it in the State of S. C. while the national constitution allowed whiskey to be shipped in the State. When Judge Jones was announced it struck me very forcibly. But when the legislative committee went to Augusta to hear the testimony of Felder, one with any reasonable idea began to imagine why Gov. Bleas is so easily bribed why do not these individuals who are spending so much money to get something against the governor don't just buy him and run the Government, one would at once believe he was not so easily bribed. One would believe he was unjustly ridiculed. I had but little idea as to the pardons and after seeing so much slush in the papers that was unreasonable I was concerned to look up the cause of those pardons. The papers has published things that had they of been true should not of been published and hurled to the outside world unless they meant to hurt the name of our proud State. When Grace was elected mayor of Charleston some of the Greenville papers and several others threw shame at the little city by the sea and pitted it. But when Grace spoke in Greenville the same papers said Grace was not a stranger in Greenville that he was among his friends and relatives. The papers would to me like I heard a moulto woman say once that she "had no credit never had had any 'nor I don't want 'nun'!" I don't reckon any of the Spartanburg people are low enough to regret the rotten egg happening its only what ought to of been done. There are other characters that I would mention but ink is too high priced besides I feel like a bath now since passing those I have.

A Leap Year Party

Thursday evening one of the season's most brilliant social affairs was given my Miss Inez Morris at her home on Hampton avenue. Invitations were sent out to fifty young people, bidding them to a leap year party. Each young lady invited a gentleman to be her escort. Receiving with Miss Morris was Miss Mildred Cox, Miss Frances Bruce Sara and Bess Clement and Mary Morris pinned a card with a number and a picture on each guest. Place cards were matched and in this way partners arranged for a walk down "Lovers' Lane," which was a cozy corner in one end of the spacious piazza. This was the place where the gentlemen received their proposals. A prize was awarded the young lady who made the best proposal, and the winner was Miss Hazel Rush. Music, dancing, progressive conversation and delicious refreshments were happy features of the evening's pleasure. The pleasant memories of this party will linger long with the bright participants, and all were grateful for the hospitality of the hostess.

Death of Mrs. W. H. Hester

Mrs. Mattie A. Hester, wife of William H. Hester of Spartanburg, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julius Schiff, Faculty Hill, Walhalla, last Sunday night at 9:15 o'clock, after a long and tedious illness. She having been for more than a year a great sufferer from Bright's disease. For some months it had been realized that all hope of Mrs. Hester's recovery had fled, and she but bided her time, patiently awaiting the end. Relying from a severe sinking spell during the week just past, Mrs. Hester told those about her that she would spend one more Sunday with them, and as the shades of night were drawn last Sunday evening her spirit peacefully winged its way to the realms of the great beyond.

Mrs. Hester was in her 63rd year. She was a daughter of the late Middleton Lay, of Pickens, in which county she was born. Thirty-eight years ago last December she was happily married to William H. Hester, who, with four daughters, survives. The children are: Mrs. Julius Schiff and Mrs. Frank H. Carter, of Walhalla; Mrs. O. H. Burchfield of Atlanta, and Mrs. E. C. Stark, of Bristol, Mass. All except the latter were present at the bedside of the deceased. Mrs. Stark's health would not permit her taking the long journey from her New England home. Mrs. Hester is survived also by four sisters, Mrs. N. T. Martin and Mrs. W. N. Cox, of Greenville; Mrs. Richard Hester, of Pickens, and Mrs. J. G. Newton, a missionary in Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hester were present at the funeral services.

Mrs. Hester had been a consistent member of the Baptist church for more than thirty years, having united with the denomination after her marriage. She was loved by all who knew her, and her life was one full of kind deeds and overflowing with love and sympathy for those about her.

Mrs. Hester had resided in Spartanburg for the past twelve years with her husband, but came here some months ago to visit her daughters. For a time she improved, but it was realized, even by the sufferer, that this improvement was but temporary, and she was prepared, even anxious, to go whenever the summons might come.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Schiff at 5 o'clock Monday evening, after which the remains were taken to Westview cemetery, where, in the presence of a large number of friends, they were lowered to their last resting

A Birthday Dinner.

There was a birthday dinner at Mr. Warren D. Edgus' on the 5th inst., on which date he was 84 years old.

He has seven living children, twenty-four grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren. The children present were Mrs. J. McD. Cantrell of North Carolina, Mrs. R. H. Baker of Hagood section, Mrs. Ben Cantrell of Ooleny septica, and Mrs. J. E. singleton of Dacusville, this county. There were between forty-five and fifty present on this occasion, which everybody enjoyed. A good dinner, spread in the shade in the yard, was heartily partaken of.

W. O. W. Picnic

Thursday of last week was a banner day for the Woodmen of the World of Pickens county. A reunion and picnic was held on the court house square. One thousand people were present. The exercises began at 10.30, and an excellent program was carried out.

Dr. F. S. Porter, consul commander of Keowee camp, of this place, presided.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. G. F. Kirby, of the Methodist church.

Prof. R. T. Hallum delivered the address of welcome.

Hon. J. J. McSwain, of Greenville, was the orator of the day. He made an excellent address, dwelling upon the fraternal and social side of the order, and laying emphasis upon the insurance feature. He stated that since the war about $100,000,000 had been sent north from South Carolina in insurance and only one third of it had returned. For every three dollars sent up north only one returns. It was time, he said, for the South to stop sending their money to the north, as it was for the South's best interest to keep it at home in their own companies. After Mr. McSwain's address, Rev. Mr. Kirby made a short speech. The ladies then began preparing dinner, while the crowd had some fun in engaging in a tug of war and apple races. Many joined in the sport.

After dinner the monument to the late Sovereign F. E. Cox was unveiled, the Misses Porter withdrawing the veil.

The Pickens band furnished most excellent music.

Camp Meetings.

The annual camp-meeting of the South Carolina conference of the Wesleyan Methodist church will convene at Central, S. C., August 21st and continue to Sep. 1st. Rooms in the boy's dormitory can be had, if occupied by two or three, for $1.50 a week. For a shorter time the price will be more. Meals can be had on the grounds at a restaurant for $3.50 during the entire meeting. For a short time the price will be advanced.

Damage to rooms or furniture must be paid for. All who expect to spend the entire or most of the time must carry bed ticks, pillows, sheets and other necessary articles.

Parties desiring rooms had better write Prof. J. M. Hancock, Central, S. C.

The object of the meeting is the conversion of sinners, the reclamation of backsliders, the entire sanctification of believers and the deepening of the spiritual life.

All the preachers of the conference are expected to be on hand, pastors and christian workers of all orthodox denominations are cordially invited to attend and aid in this battle against sin.

Morning Sickness

Many women suffer this misery. It makes its appearance so regularly that they learn to expect it and arrange their household work accordingly. Few women think of seeking medical help to get rid of it for good. If women only knew of the power and effectiveness of Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine they would not be without it a moment longer than it would take to get it from the drug store. It is a splendid remedy for all nausea or sickness of the stomach. The first dose settles the stomach and makes the patient feel better. Additional doses act on the female generative system, strengthening weakened organs, regulating the habits, restoring tone and strength in every part of the body. It is especially a woman's remedy prepared expressly to meet the need of women who suffer from the ailments common to their sex.

"Our Personal Guarantee to all Skin Sufferers"

PICKENS DRUG COMPANY

We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves, you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. prescription. And if it does not do the work, this botlle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.

Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch, in-stantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.

D. D. D. prescription made by Dr. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing, soothing, and cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel washed and cooled, the itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. D.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive money guarantee.
