INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 2

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ABRAHAM

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 15:1-8.
GOLDEN TEXT—"He is faithful that promised."—Heb. 10:22.

Until within recent years it was frequently asserted that Abram's battle, as recorded in Gen. 14, "had not one whit of proof," yet the archaeologists have not only recognized the apparent discrepancies but have proven beyond a question the accuracy of the record. Abram's victory over the four confederate kings is a story rich with typical suggestions.

I. "After These Things," vv. 1-7. God's word (v. 1) came to Abram not only as a counsel but for assurance as well. So, too, our assurance is his word. I John 5:13. In the midst of the uncertainty and the strife, for we must remember Abram never possessed the land, God appeared to him in a vision and said, "Fear not." Gen. 15:1. There in the midst of foes (Gen. 14:23) God promised to be to Abram a shield and an exceeding great reward. A "shield" for there is to the Christian life a militant side. Eph. 6:13, 14. I Tim. 6:12. A "reward" which was far more rich than any given by man. See 14:21. Prov. 10:22.

Abram Was Human.

But Abram was, after all, human, and we read in verse 2 his question about descendants, he being as yet childless. Even so, however, Abram was willing to count the child of his steward as fulfilling the promise of God. Not so with God for the promise (12:3) was to include Sarah also. God very clearly makes this plain in verse 4, the heir was to be Abram's indeed and not the child of another. But not only is Abram to have an heir but the land in which he was sojourning as a pilgrim was to be his and his seed to be as the stars for multitude.

"And he believed." The great test to this faith came later. Feb. 11:19, but here in this first distinct scriptural history of faith we find forth those principles that have governed through all time. (1) The acceptance of the word of God, v. 5. To have our trust built upon or supported by the word of God, see Isa. 50:21; (2) to act upon that faith so that our course in life manifests the belief of the heart.

God's covenant, 12:1-4, is confirmed in seven ways. 1. Posterity, (a) natural, "earth," (b) spiritual, "heaven," (c) also through Ishmael, Gen. 17:18-20; 2. Blessing, both temporal and spiritual; 3. great name; 4. De a blessing, Gal. 3:13, 14; 5. "I will bless them that bless thee;" 6. "and curse them that curse thee;" 7. the families of the earth blessed through Abram, e. g., through Christ, Gal. 3:16.

"And he believed in the Lord" (v. 6). Abram built upon the naked word of God, he simply looked at that and that alone, Rom. 4:20. R. V. All God asks of us is for us to take him at his word. So it is that as we take his word about Jesus, he reckons that faith to us as righteousness; no matter how unrighteous we may have been, see Rom. 4:6; Gal. 3:6-7. The one thing that God demands is that we believe him and his word.

II. "Whereby Shall I Know?" vv. 8-18. The weakness of human faith indicated by Abram's question (v. 8) is answered by God giving to him directions for the preparation of a sacrifice. Abram did not really doubt God's word (v. 6), but he did desire a confirming sign. Many today are looking for assuring signs from God when his bare word should be enough. Asking for signs is not always safe. Luke 11:29-30, but as in Abram's case God does give us a pledge of sign of our inheritance, 2 Cor. 1:22. Eph. 1:14. God gave Abram, after he had explicitly followed his directions, a symbolic vision of himself. Someone has suggested that the vultures of prey (v. 11) are symbolic of Satan, and Abram, driving them away, a symbol of one victory over evil. Jas. 4:7. God is always nearer to man and best reveals himself when we are in the midst of sacrifice. God tells Abram of those days of servitude on the part of his descendants while they are to be in Egypt, of God's judgment to be brought upon that land and of their ultimate deliverance.

Symbols of God.

Every detail of these predictions and promises was fulfilled. In verse 15 there is presented the great thought of the need of preparation in youth for the future days of "good old age"—also in this verse a suggestion of the life beyond the grave. The smoking furnace and the flaming torch were symbols of God himself. Four centuries of opportunity were to be allowed the powerful Amorites who now possessed the land before the land came into bona-fide possession in accordance with the promise, for God's judgment was conditioned upon the "measure of their iniquity being full." In the midst of this horror of darkness came God's final assurance to Abram in the symbolic "flaming torch" which passed between the pieces of the slain animals typical of the two parties to the covenant.

2 NEGRO PRISONERS DYNAMITE EASLEY JAIL

Great excitement prevailed in Easley last Friday morning when it was learned that the city guard house there had been dynamited sometime Thursday night by two negro prisoners who escaped.

The Easley correspondent to the Greenville News says: Two negroes, Son Proctor and Frank Dodson, are the perpetrators of the crime and were imprisoned in one of the cells upon three charges, one of grand larceny and two of petty larceny. From every appearance the charge was made on the inside of a twelve inch concrete wall of the cell and just how they secured the drill and stick of dynamite is a mystery, as the two negroes were brought from the county chain gang yesterday afternoon and were to have been carried to Pickens this morning and lodged in jail to await their trial in court.

Just about 1.30 last night several people heard the report of the dynamite which seems to have been an extra heavy charge as the hole made in the thick concrete wall is large enough for any size man to escape without any effort. In addition to this crime, W. K. Brooks a planter about two miles east of the city had two mules stolen from his stable during the night and it is generally believed that the two negroes could not make time as fast on their feet as they desired, so took the mules that they might increase their speed. Their direction was evidently toward Greenville and Sheriff Roark with several deputies are searching diligently for them. The deeds which these two negroes are alleged to have committed are the boldest ever known in this vicinity and so consequently have aroused much indignation and interest. It is stated that there is an organized band of about 20 negroes in Greenville and that they visit the smaller towns, stealing everything that is available and then take these goods to headquarters in Greenville where they are sold.

The two who were arrested here are of medium build— one of them being of a ginger-cake color while the other is black.

EASLEY K. OF P. LODGE HELD ANNUAL BANQUET FEBRUARY 19

Easley Lodge No 119 K. of P. held their annual banquet Feb. 19, 1912. To say that it was a success mildly expresses it. The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church furnished the supper and it was abundant and well prepared. The school auditorium in which the banquet was held was beautifully decorated with our colors. 118 Knights and friends—the friends mostly ladies—were present. And served by beautiful young ladies invited by the Ladies Aid Society to serve, in all there were about 150 present.

Two of the invited speakers failed to come, but the excellent addresses delivered by the other speakers made up largely for the absence of these. Rev. E. V. Babb delivered a splendid address of welcome and made everybody feel at home. Prof. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College delivered an address on Citizenship. It was a masterful effort interspersed with wit and humor with telling effect. Prof. Daniel reminds you of an avalanche coming down the mountain side sweeping everything before it.

Then came Hon. J. E. Boggs of Pickens, subject—Woman the True Ruler of Men. Mr. Boggs has perfect control of himself and in language he uses, and like Prof. Daniel he held his audience spellbound to the last. Col. Boggs reminds you of being in a boat, drifting down a smooth stream, the zephyrs wafting sweet aroma from the flower gardens on either side of the stream, the birds singing their sweetest songs from every tree.

PYTHIANISM ought to be greatly revived in Easley after this.

Mr. Neighbors Dead

Frank Neighbors, formerly of the Oolenoy section of this county, died at his home in the Easley cotton mill village, last Tuesday, February 18, of pneumonia. He had only moved to Easley about two months ago. His remains were buried Thursday at Oolenoy church. He was about thirty years old and leaves a wife and two children.

Holder-Simmons

Miss Essie Holder, daughter of Mr. J. A. Holder of Oolenoy, was married to Mr. Ingram Simmons, son of Mr. Warren Simmons, last Thursday. Probate Judge Newberry performed the ceremony. Mr. Simmons lives in the Twelve Mile section, where the happy couple will make their future home. They have the best wishes and congratulations of their friends.

Dr. W. A. Tripp, of near Easley, and who is well known here, has been elected as one of the trustees of the new State Medical College in Charleston.

Coated Tongue Means Lazy Liver

A Lazy Liver Needs a Dose of Dodson's Liver Tonic—Guaranteed to Take Place of Calomel.

When your doctor looks to see if your tongue is coated, he is trying to find out if your liver is working properly. A few years ago doctors had to prescribe calomel—there was nothing else to give.

Recently in making a survey of the country Dodson's Liver Tonic has practically taken the place of calomel as a liver remedy. Dodson's Liver Tonic is mild, pleasant tasting and harmless—it makes it a fine medicine for use when your children become bilious and constipated. But the most remarkable feature of Dodson's Liver Tonic is the fact that it is a purgative. The doctor will return your money without argument if a bottle fails to give entire satisfaction. Price, 50c. We suggest that you get a bottle today and have it ready for the next time of your family whose liver goes wrong. adv.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. It is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Unna, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and stop falling hair; and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do this.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it. Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rexall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:
