South Carolina Confederate Soldiers.

Who are they? They are the men to whom the State owes a debt of gratitude, they have as yet, never paid.
 Look at them in 1861, as they leave their homes, some the little log cabin, others the ordinary cottage home, and still others, regular mansions. But they are all our boys, dressed in gray uniform. Same as did Israel Putnam, of Revolutionary fame, leave the plow in the furrow, some laid aside their law books, some their carpenter's tools, some of the lads left the room. They are kissing their sister, sweetheart good-bye for the last time; for, alas, they are off to war, never to be seen again. Look at them as they march beneath the burning sun, again in the rain and mud, and they sleep under the stars, then again as they face the enemy in battle, bombs bursting, the minnie whizzing, the sword-clashing, shells whistling, the men falling, some dead, some wounded, and some dying. After the firing ceases, there is stillness over the battle field. Soon the faint cry of some poor wounded soldier, begging for water to cool his burning thirst, dying from home and loved ones, with only the stars keeping watch over them, while some wife, mother, sister or sweetheart is many miles away wondering where is my soldier tonight? A few have been sent away from the field of glory, unfit to live on earth.

A Plain Talk With You

The following is a sermon taken from the sayings of Evangelist Billy Williams and published in the Greenville Piedmont:
 Privileges and freedom come to women because of the Gospel. Where the Gospel is not preached, woman is a slave to the law and to man.
 Woman was last at the cross, first at the grave and first preached to by the resurrected Christ.
 Woman led man out of Paradise. She should make it her business to lead him back again.
 The training that best fits a girl for heaven, fits her for this life. Anything that unfits for glory, unfits to live on earth.
 Girls, men don't think as much of you with your waist moved down three or four inches below where God intended that it should be, and with the heels of your shoes throwing your body into a kangaroo shape.
 Men know that tinsel isn't gold; that sweet lips and sparkling eyes are not enough to keep a man's heart.
 Men are not looking for a doll baby. They can get a doll for 25 cents.
 There is no such thing as single blessedness, but there is double cussedness.
 Better be the good wife of a bad husband than bad like the husband.
 Sometimes I have performed the marriage ceremony when it would have been better had I been reading their burial service.
 If you are looking for a man in the common acceptance of the term you can find one on almost any street corner, but street corner loafers are poor material out of which to make husbands.
 Avoid the young man who thinks more of his patent leather or his tan shoes than he does of his conscience.
 Get the Sun of Righteousness in your heart. That will bring the Rose of Sharon to your feet.

Women's Ailments

The ailments from which women suffer are many and varied so far as the symptoms indicate, yet they are all dependent upon a disorder in the female generative system, and a remedy that acts on the cause of the trouble puts an end to all the distressing symptoms as soon as the unnatural conditions are removed.

KEOWEE PHARMACY

We call the attention of our readers to the offer of a gold medal to the boy or girl between the ages of ten and fifteen years who writes the best composition on the repair and maintenance of earth roads. The medal will be given by the director of the United States department of agriculture. Read the article in regard to this offer which we publish in another column. We would like to see some of our boys and girls try for this prize and would be mighty proud if a Pickens county boy or girl won it. We have as bright boys and girls as any county or state and stand as good chance as any to get this medal. Let's try.

Yesterday was the "forty-eighth" anniversary of the day when the grand old Rebels became so weary of whipping the dear old Yankees that they magnanimously refused to punish them further, and now the ensaddled South is running the government and paying the old Yanks $180,000,000 a year in pensions, says The Houston Post. That's no joke!—Columbia Record.

Greenville had a "bug house" golf tournament last week. There was no trouble getting entries in Greenville.

Gold Medal For Best Composition

A gold medal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who writes the best composition, not to exceed 800 words, on the repair and maintenance of earth roads is to be awarded by Logan Waler Page, Director, Office of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. All compositions must be submitted to Mr. Page before May 15, 1913, and the medal will be awarded as soon thereafter as the compositions can be graded. The composition may be based on knowledge gained from books or other sources, but no quotations should be made.
 After many years' experience in dealing with the public road situation of the country, it is Mr. Page's belief that ignorance on the subject of repair and maintenance of roads is as much the cause of their bad condition as any other one factor. It is expected that the competition will bring about a better understanding of the subject of repair and maintenance in the rural districts.
 Many children living in rural districts have experienced the disadvantage of roads made impassable through the lack of proper maintenance and it is expected that their interest in the composition will create a greater interest among the parents. Bad roads have prevented many children from obtaining a proper education and have even prevented doctors from reaching the side of their patients in time to save their lives.
 Any child between the ages mentioned, attending a country school may compete. Only one side of the paper must be written on; the name, age, and address of the writer, and the name and location of the school which he or she is attending must be plainly written at the top of the first page. The announcement of the competition has been sent to the superintendents of schools in rural districts. No further information can be obtained from the Office of Public Roads. This announcement should be plain to everyone, and all children will thus start on a basis of equality.

How Cheap!

Your home newspaper heralds to the world your birth. It told of your entry into school. Mentioned your birthday party when you were sweet sixteen. Applauded your graduation from the high school, started you to college and when you returned mentioned the first job you secured. Told of your marriage to the sweetest girl in town and also mentioned the advent of your first-born. Told of the visits to pa and ma, sympathized with you in your sorrow, laughed with you in your joy, and when you die it will do its best to get you through the pearly gates at ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR!—Ex.

A Kansas Solomon.

The Kansas City Journal tells the following story of a local Solomon:
 "King Solomon had nothing on a Centralia justice of the peace before whom a colored man and brother was being tried for stealing a chicken. The prosecuting witness thought that it was his fowl, but was not willing to swear. It being near sun down the local Solomon let the hen loose and watched her going home to roost, with the result that the negro was fined $50."

How Chronic Coughs Are Being Cured by Vinol.

Did you ever cough for a month? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for three months.
 Mrs. Maria Primrose, of 87 Newell Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough, which kept me awake nights for fully three months, and felt tired all the time because my rest was broken so much. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest, and I feel much stronger in every way."
 It is the combined action of the medicinal elements, cod's livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.
 Try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Millionaires seldom smile.—Andrew Carnegie.

See the sad old millionaire passing in his motor car; Ah, how heavy is his care; And how drawn his features are! What a pity he has not Anything to make him glad; Sorrowful indeed, his lot— Thinking of it makes me sad.
 Muffled in his warm fur coat, You may think him richly blessed, But a lump is in his throat, And a pain is in his breast; He is not compelled to work, He may ride around at will, But a thousand sorrows lurk Underneath his waistcoat still.
 All his days are dismal days, Joys may come to you and me, But no smile of his betrays Any hint of hidden grief; Things which he cannot possess Still confront him everywhere; Hence his lack of happiness, Poor old, sad old millionaire.

Millionaires seldom smile.—Andrew Carnegie.

"I understand, sir, that you are the possessor of a swollen fortune."
 "Well," gruffly answered the beautiful girl's father, "what is that to you?"
 "I merely thought that I would give you due notice of my intention to help take the swelling out of it. Myrtle and I are going to be married."
 His Poor Memory.
 "There," said Mr. Newrich with great pride, "is the sword of one of my ancestors."
 "Ah," replied his inquisitive guest, taking down the weapon and examining it. "Where did he carry it?"
 "Well, now, I forget whether the man I bought it from said Gettysburg or Bunker Hill."
 Improving.
 "Do you find, Mr. Duffer, that golf is of any real benefit to you?"
 "Sure thing. I'm getting excellent control of my temper. Many of the strokes that I make with the utmost calmness now would have caused me to swear like a trooper six months ago."
 Man's Peculiar Ways.
 It is a curious fact that a man who travels hundreds of miles and submits to many discomforts for the sake of getting a chance to whip a stream will indignantly refuse to beat a carpet when he might do it with little or no trouble right at home.

"Have you any of the old masters in your gallery, Mrs. Frumpleigh?"
 "Not yet, but Josiah has just placed an order with a New York dealer for $30,000 worth, which he has agreed to ship F. O. B. by the middle of next month."
 They Couldn't Resist.
 "Do you think if women got the ballot they would make politics any cleaner?"
 "Undoubtedly. They would insist on having a regular political house-cleaning every spring."
 Had Him Frightened.
 "Oh," she said as he led her to a seat, "I could die waltzing."
 "Well," he replied, "to tell you the truth, I was afraid, owing to the way you breathed, that you were going to."

Mary had a little lamb Because the price was high; She wanted more, but one small chop Was all that she could buy.

 Safer Hunting.
 "You prefer duck hunting to shooting large game?" "Yes," replied the man who tempests sport with caution. "There's no chance of my getting out in the water where an excited friend might mistake me for a duck."
 Pains In the Stomach.
 If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, and your liver or kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease.
