

Friday, December 26th, we will have 1914 Calendars ready for distribution. One for every family.

PICKENS DRUG CO.
The Rexall Store
J. N. Hallum, Proprietor.

Local and Personal

Miss Lucia Earle is spending the holidays at home.

Mr. Thomas Durham of route 5 was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Olga Goodwin of Greenville visited her parents last week.

Prof. Frank Welborn is spending the holidays with home-folks.

Miss Nora Griffin is spending the holidays with home-folks here.

Davis Porter, of Easley, route 1, was in Pickens on business Saturday.

Mr. Wm. McComb of Easley route 6, was a business visitor at the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hester, of Greenville, worshipped at the Pickens Baptist church Sunday.

Cross Roads church is on the honor roll and the pastor promised.

Frazier of last week parents of

J. B. Newbery at home Sunday, Clara and Monroe Garren, color-

Married by J. B. Newbery at his residence, Dec. 21, 1913, Miss Carrie Day and Mr. Thomas A. Simmons of Pickens Route 1.

Married by J. B. Newbery at his residence Dec. 21, 1913, Miss Lola Watt and Mr. Edward Stewart of Pickens Route 3.

Married by J. B. Newbery at his residence Dec. 21, 1913, Miss Artie Pilgrim and Mr. Jesse Bolding of Pickens Route 2.

Dr. A. W. Lamer, of College Park Ga., preached the excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday.

James N. Edens, traveling salesman, is spending his days with his parents. Handsome will leave for Gardner, Mass.

Rev. J. C. Bailey preached an excellent special Christmas sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Cadet Dewey Abercrombie, student of Bailey Military institute of Greenwood, is at home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Looper of the Dominion of Canada spent last week in Pickens with the former's father, E. F. Looper.

Miss Patti Major, who has charge of a large school in Darlington county, is spending the holidays here with her mother.

There will be a Christmas tree at Cross Roads church for the Sunday School on Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Everybody invited.

We learn that Mr. Cleon Mauldin a native of this county and an officer in the U. S. Navy has been assigned duty off the coast of Mexico.

Sam Craig, of this county, and a law student at the University of South Carolina, has been appointed a member of the state pardon board by Governor Blease.

V. A. Ferguson has sold his place in this county to J. M. Neely and has purchased a farm near Belton, where he moved last week. Mrs. Ferguson's old home is in Anderson county.

The teachers will spend the holidays at their homes: Miss Kate Ballard at Franklinton, N. C.; Miss Daisy McDonald at Bethune, Miss Ellen Anderson at Ninety-Six, Misses Nellie Grandy and Belle Youngie in Pickens and J. W. Ballentine at Leesville.

The Methodist minister, Rev. L. E. Wiggins, and wife, assigned to the Pickens Methodist church for 1914, arrived in Pickens Friday and were welcomed at the depot by a committee of members. Mr. Wiggins preached his first sermon here Sunday morning and delighted his hearers.

The Pickens Oil Mill will close down Wednesday evening and be closed the remainder of this week. After this they will gin cotton only on Tuesday and Friday of each week, until further notice.

The following officers have been elected by Keowee Lodge No. 79, A. F. M., for the year 1914: T. H. Stewart, W. M.; W. T. Bates, Treas.; R. T. Hallum, Sec.; J. C. Carey, Sr. D.; T. S. Campbell, Jr. D.; R. H. Baker, T.

Married Sunday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents in Easley, Miss Zerba Garrett to Mr. Thos. F. Gaul of Hudson, N. Y., Rev. D. W. Hiott officiating. After the ceremony the couple boarded train No. 40 for Washington, New York and other cities on a bridal tour.

Mr. Stephen Cooper, who lived near Liberty, died at the home of his son, Robert Cooper in the Pickens Mill village, Sunday morning, after a lingering illness. The body was buried at Porter's Chapel Monday. Mr. Cooper leaves a large family and many friends to mourn his death.

T. M. Boaz, the real estate man from Calhoun, Ga., was in this county last week. He traded W. D. Sutherland a place in Georgia for Mr. Sutherland's place at Dacusville, then traded the Dacusville place to Mr. Mart Jones for a place at Pumpkin town. He has several other deals underway.

Mr. James B. Mauldin, after residing in Laurens county for the past four years, has sold his farm down there and moved back to his first love—Pickens county. He has traded for the old John H. Bowen place near George's Creek church. One of the neighbors asked Jim why he moved back. He replied: "In order to be near my work." The neighbor remarked that he must have changed a good deal in the past four years.—Easley Progress.

Classified Column

One-Cent-A-Word

A one or two horse crop to rent three miles north of Liberty. Tenant to furnish his own stock. F. R. McClanahan, Liberty, S. C.

WANTED.—Young men to learn barber trade. Barbers make from $12.50 to $63.80 per week. Tools furnished. You get all you make while learning. Write J. R. Queen, Big College, No. 1 Spring St., Spartanburg, S. C.

We have sold our interest in Central Drug Co., Central, S. C., to P. L. Ezell and T. J. Werner. All persons indebted to us will please call and settle before January 1, 1914. C. G. Rowland, L. T. Shirley.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS, WE

THANK YOU!

For your liberal support and your loyal patronage during the many years in which it has been our pleasure to serve you. We will show our appreciation by serving you better in the future, carrying larger and more complete stocks of lines that we will continue to handle.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

IS OUR WISH TO YOU ONE AND ALL

May it be a pleasant Holiday season for you!

The Big Store will at all times be glad to see you

Don't forget there's a few hours left to get in on the Bargains 10 p.m. Wednesday night and it's all over

Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co.

PICKENS, S. C.

Make Your Gifts Useful Ones

We have a nice line for Xmas, and everything brand new---nothing carried over from last year.

Fountain Pens The Franklin self-filler from $1 to $6
The Century double feed from

Stationery "The kind she will appreciate."—
First quality Linen in beautiful boxes. Nothing nicer. Priced from 50c to $4

Toilet Sets Military Brushes Traveling Sets
to $10 $1.50 to $5 $3.50 to $6

Brushes in regular style, 50c to $2.50
Cuff and Collar Boxes
Flash Lights, Cigars, Toilet Waters

We have exclusive agency for Sylvadora Toilet Waters and Perfumes. ABSOLUTELY THE BEST.

Forget We Sell Nunnally's Candy boxes and baskets, also in standard packages. you give Nunnally's you give the best)

Gold—Necklaces, Ja Valliers, Cuff Buttons, Stick Pins' Fobs, Watch Chains and Charms, Bracelets, Rings. help you make your selection for "her" or "him."

EE PHARMACY

Use Cuta Creme for chapped hands

The following young people from the various colleges are at home for the Christmas holidays: Misses Meda Boggs, Emma Welborn, Greenville Female College; Nellie Freeman, Chicora; Ruby Baker, Mattie Griffin, Edna Earle, Asheville (N. C.) Normal and Collegiate Institute; Nannie Porter, Blackstone (Va.) Institute; May McFall, Columbia College; Stella Porter, Central; Inez Morris, Chicora; Messrs. Gignilliat Christopher, Sam B. Craig, Cleo Mann, Clarence Mann, University of South Carolina; John Joe McFall, Wofford; Ossie Hendricks, Ed Bowen, Furman University.

Steen Looper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Looper of Pickens, was bitten by his dog last week. He was bitten on the hand and it is not known whether the dog was mad or not, but the young fellow was sent to Columbia for treatment, so as to be on the safe side.

J. H. Newton is back at home for the holidays, after spending several weeks in North Carolina in the interest of his recently published book. We are glad to state that Mr. Newton and his book are meeting with much success. He will leave after Christmas for South Georgia and Florida.

The Sentinel wishes to thank its subscribers who have paid in advance.

Subscribe for The Sentinel.