"Booster Period"

Today is the beginning of "Booster Period" in the Sentinel's Prize Contest, which means that friends of the candidates in the great race can boost for their favorite by paying one or two years' subscription and secure for them more votes than at any other time in the contest. "Booster Period" means that it is POSITIVELY the best period in the contest for readers of The Sentinel to pay their subscriptions and "boost" their favorite. "Booster Period" means that every yearly subscription turned in by February 11th will count 5,000 votes. This means that a subscriber who pays a yearly subscription during this period will count a total of 5,000 votes for some candidate in the race, or some person who wishes to enter. A two years subscription will count 12,000 votes. See complete list of VOTES printed below. From this it will be seen that it is to the advantage of every candidate to insist upon their friends giving them a two-year subscription or more NOW while it counts so much. Remember that "Booster Period" ends February 11 and that never again during the entire contest will so many votes be given on a single subscription. Remember that during "Booster Period" all subscriptions to The Sentinel will count 12,000 votes for every candidate.

and energy to secure one of the prizes, but think of the fine reward if you enter today and win one of the prizes.

It is not so bad to secure a prize just by asking your friends to subscribe for The Pickens Sentinel or to give you the free voting coupons. Their votes will put you at the head of the list if you neglect none of your opportunities, but appeal to each one, who may take an interest in your success. Many are ready to renew their subscriptions at this time, and they would gladly give you the benefit of their votes for the mere asking.

Enter the Contest Now.

Look carefully again over the list of prizes. Think, as you reach one, just what a vista of pleasant things opens before you. Enter the contest and go in with a determination to win. While the contest is yet young is the most favorable time to send in your nomination. We want your name in our next published list of candidates. For your own sake it is best that from the very start you should be known to be in the race. Those who would rather help you than anyone else might promise their subscription to the first candidate who approached them if they did not know you were interested in winning a prize. You want all acquaintances to realize from the first that you mean to win and that you count on them to help you to do so.

Who May Enter.

Any white man, woman, boy or girl, married or single, is eligible to compete in the contest. Candidates may nominate themselves. It costs nothing to enroll; it costs nothing to win. There are no strings attached to the offer. It is not necessary that candidates be subscribers. The rules of the contest are simple and the work to get votes is not hard. Get an early start and ask your friends to help you. They will gladly do so. Begin now.

Those who have been nominated by their friends and who have not received a receipt book can get receipt book by writing or calling for one. Contestants will find it an easy matter to secure subscriptions to The Pickens Sentinel. Nearly every one wants their county paper, especially during campaign year. We already have about 1,200 subscribers, many of whose time is about expired and who will renew. There are at least a thousand others who would take the paper if asked to take it. Get your share of these subscriptions. It will be the easiest work you ever did.

Three Grand Prizes.

The first grand prize is a magnificent player piano, the retail price of which is $700. This piano is now on exhibition at the Pickens Drug Store and will remain there for the inspection of all until the close of the contest. Then some hard-working contestant will be entitled to this magnificent prize and will proudly take it home. It is an instrument that would grace the home of a millionaire. One great advantage of this piano is that if you cannot play yourself it will play for you. That's why it is called a "player piano." It will give you the pleasure of hearing anything from the rag-time melodies of present-day popularity to the standard classic compositions of the greatest composers the world has ever known. Furthermore, this player piano is so simple in its mechanism and yet so perfect a child may operate it. You do not have to understand music in order to play on this piano, yet if you are a musician you can play on it as on an ordinary piano. Visit the Pickens Drug Store and inspect this piano. Play on it, if you like. To see the piano and to hear its lovely tone will be more than appreciate the instrument. You are sure to say "I wish it was mine."

Two Other Prizes.

The second grand prize is a diamond ring and the third one is a life time scholarship in Draughon's Business College of Greenville, either one of which are decidedly worth working for even if the grand piano was not offered in the contest.

The person securing the largest number of votes will win the piano, of course, but we have decided that the contestant securing the second largest number of votes may have their choice of either the diamond ring or the life time scholarship in Draughon's Business College. We believe this concession on our part will meet with the approval of all contestants, as it is just as fair for one as for all.

The diamond ring is now on exhibition at the Keowee Pharmacy and, like the piano, must be seen to be appreciated. It is a beautiful piece of jewelry and is fully guaranteed.

Fair, Square Deal.

This contest will be conducted from start to finish in an absolute fair and impartial manner. The votes are kept in a locked box and cannot be handled by any one except the Contest Manager. A double check system is used, which prevents any mistakes being made. Moreover, each contestant has a coupon book and after he or she has given the subscriber one coupon as a receipt for the money paid to the contestant and then turned over to the Contest Manager the money and a second coupon, of the same serial number as the subscriber's receipt, there is left a stub coupon, also of the same number as the other two. This stub coupon is the contestant's personal record of the transaction. It shows the amount of money taken in and consequently the number of votes to which the contestant is entitled. The stub is the contestant's personal check on the Contest Manager. Nothing could be fairer.

At the close of the contest three reputable business men of Pickens will be chosen to count the votes, thus assuring a fair count. Their decision will be final and no one will have cause for complaint.

Start in the contest at once. The sooner the better. Your chance to win one of the grand prizes is as good as that of any other. So go after the prizes and you will never regret it. Send in a nomination coupon today. This will entitle you to 1,000 votes as a starter. Then we will send you a coupon book and instructions as to how to get in this fascinating contest. It costs nothing to enter the race for these grand prizes, so it is a great opportunity.

Rules of the Contest.

- Rule 1.—All collections made by contestants must be turned in promptly to the Contest Manager.
Rule 2.—Subscribers are cautioned to demand a receipt for all money paid to contestants and return same to Contest Manager to be dated according to books, and showing date of expiration.
Rule 3.—The Contest Manager's signature must be affixed to the votes before same are of any value in the contest.
Rule 4.—Votes cannot be bought. The contest will be run on a square basis, fair for all. Votes can only be obtained by securing subscriptions, either new, renewals or arrears, by cutting the nomination coupon or by collecting the free voting ballots that appear in the Pickens Sentinel.
Rule 5.—No employee of the Pickens Sentinel or a member of his or her family will be permitted to participate either as a contestant or voter in the contest.
Rule 6.—Contestants will not be restricted in securing subscriptions to any territory, but may secure them in any place in the United States.
Rule 7.—Only one nominating coupon will be credited to a contestant.
Rule 8.—Votes once issued cannot be transferred to another contestant.
Rule 9.—Nominators of contestants in The Sentinel's Voting Contest must agree to accept all rules and conditions.
Rule 10.—The right is reserved to reject the name of any contestant for cause.
Rule 11.—Any question that may arise between the contestant or their friends or relatives will be determined by the Contest Manager, and his decision will be final.
Rule 12.—Until further notice no contestant will be permitted to cast for publication more than enough votes to raise their published score 1,000 votes above the leader as in the preceding list.

Easley Local News

Of interest to Easley people is the announcement of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellison of this city, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Maymie Lou Ellison, to J. Luther Coley, of Greenville. The wedding will take place in the early spring. The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and Missionary societies held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. H. Shanklin. Owing to the fact that officers were to be elected for the ensuing year the program was dispensed with and no business matters of importance was transacted. The officers elected were: Mrs. A. B. Matthews, president; Mrs. H. E. Russell, vice-president; Miss Gladys Smith, secretary; Mrs. C. D. Walker, given charge of the missionary division of the society; Mrs. H. E. Shanklin, treasurer of the missionary society. During the one hour a sweet course was served.

William Easley Chapter U. D. C. held a meeting at the home of Capt. B. C. Johnson on Monday. Mrs. William Anderson presided. Rev. J. D. Holler opened with prayer. The members responded with appropriate selections as their names were called. Capt. B. C. Johnson gave a short sketch of Gen. R. E. Lee. Rev. D. W. Holt gave a short sketch of Gen. T. J. Jackson. Editor C. T. Martin made a short humorous talk about what he did as a boy during the war. Miss Louise Cunningham recited beautifully. The members sang several selections. Hot chocolate and cake was served. We had a great time.

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Holler were the recipients of a bountiful pound last week. The four churches of which Mr. Holler is pastor, were well represented in the donation. They have enough of some nice things to eat last them for six months. Guess the parson feels something like the real old John D. now. Rev. J. D. Chapman, D. D., preached twice last Sunday in the First Baptist church. Rev. Lightfoot, of Chattanooga, Tenn., lectured in the school auditorium Sunday afternoon. Miss Edna Earle and Miss Mattie Griffin, two charming young ladies of Pickens, visited friends in Easley last week. Hon. E. P. McCravy and Dr. J. L. Bolt came up from Columbia to spend Sunday with their families. Monday night about midnight the splendid residence of Mrs. Millie Hendricks on Table Rock street was burned. The fire was supposed to have been started by rats in the kitchen. Very little insurance was carried. Again our city is full of carnival people. We long to see the time when the moral and business interest of our town shall be strong enough to keep out all such demoralizing influences.

Chronic Constipation Cured

Easley Mill Entertains Employees

On Saturday night last the Mountain View hotel at Easley was the scene of one of the most pleasant social events of the season. Gathered together on this occasion were 60 men, comprising the office force, overseers and head officials of the various departments of the Easley cotton mills. The menu consisted of a typical Southern turkey dinner, being planned and served by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Steadman, who have charge of the hotel. After several courses had been temptingly served, each man present was called on for a short talk. Mr. J. M. Geer, president of the corporation, was the first to address the gathering. Mr. E. P. McCravy, the only one present who was not an employee of the corporation, made a most interesting talk, in which he expressed the love and unity which should exist between the official and operatives of all corporations.

Best Cough Medicine for Children

"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and myself, and it never fails to relieve and cure a cold or cough. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Liberty Personals

Mrs. Joe Shelor, who has been the guest of Mrs. Bessie Smith, has returned to her home at Anderson. Mrs. W. B. Glenn has returned from a visit to friends at Westminster. Miss Sue Smith, of Greenville, is the guest of Mrs. M. L. Boggs. Misses Florence and Nan Bowen, of Pickens, and Mrs. Robert Holden, of Calhoun, are visiting Mrs. J. F. Banister. Miss Fannie Lide has returned from a short visit to Greenville. Mrs. Emps Cantrell and baby are spending a time with relatives in Greenville. Mrs. Langdon Anderson and daughter, of Greenville, spent a short time with Mrs. B. M. Holland last week. Mrs. W. C. Odell entertained the members of the Embroidery club on Monday afternoon, Jan. 12. The hostess served a salad course with coffee. The next meeting will be held with Miss Willie Parsons. Mr. Robert Hubbard, of Richland, spent Sunday afternoon in this city. Arthur and DeWitt Davis went to Clemson last week to take a course in agriculture, which will take them 30 days. Mr. J. A. Carpenter and Mrs. Etta Thiblin, of Royston, Ga., were married on the 16th at the home of the bridegroom, Mr. M. A. Boggs officiated. Services were held last Sunday in the new Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Bailey. The members are to be congratulated for their faithful and good work. They have something to be proud of. Willie Hunt entertained the B. Y. P. U. last Friday night. They all enjoyed themselves with games and contests. Refreshments were served. Mr. C. H. Strickland, Rochell, Ga., has moved to the city and opened up a shoe and gent's furnishing business in the Robertson building. Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Greenville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Cantrell, on South Railroad street. Mr. J. M. Blum spent Sunday with home folks. Misses Annie Bell and Lorena Brown came home from Atlanta last week, where they have been on a visit to relatives and friends. Mr. J. R. Owens, of Greenville, came over to superintend the finishing of the Baptist church.

Pea Ridge

Dear Mr. Editor: Will you allow me a little space in the dear old Sentinel for a few dots? We are having some pretty weather at present and the farmers are preparing their land for another crop. Rev. E. M. Bolding and family visited at Six Mile last Sunday. Messrs. J. R. Porter and Ed Stephens visited in Georgia last week. Miss Lillie Curtis visited Misses Pearl and Liela Garrett last Sunday. Messrs. Albert Garrett and Arthur Stephens attended the singing at Rice's Creek last Sunday. Miss Mary Bolding spent last Sunday with Miss Eva Stephens. Messrs. Alvin Curtis and Jake Porter visited Mr. Clyde Garrett last Sunday. Several from this side attended Sunday school at Six Mile last Sunday. Wonder what has become of our Pea Ridge correspondents? They surely have all married. Ha, ha! I see this in print I will write again. Rep Rose.

Pickens Route 1

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Mauldin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trotter Sunday. Mrs. Lena Hendricks, widow of the late Geo. Hendricks, visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Hendricks Saturday night. Mrs. Lida Ferguson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Anthony, last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Day visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Simmons Saturday and Sunday. Miss Effie and her brother, Furman Dodgens, visited their friends in the mill village Saturday and Sunday. They report a fine time. The many friends of Mrs. S. P. Freeman will be sorry to know that she is not improving very fast. The Sunday school at Griffin is in progress for the New Year with Mr. S. P. Freeman as superintendent. We hope it will be a successful school the entire year. MOUNTAIN RUTTER.

Dacusville News

Dear Editor: As it has been some time since I saw any news from this section, I will try to give a few dots. Health in this section is very good, except for colds. Christmas passed off quietly in this section, with but very little drunkenness. A box supper was given at Peters Creek church January 5, beginning with song service and reading of God's word and prayer by Rev. J. E. Foster. Mr. Foster then sold the boxes to the highest bidder, realizing $28.70. Supper was served, songs were sung, the benediction pronounced, and all went home happy. The proceeds of the supper has been carpentered the stand and pulpit, which adds much to the appearance of the church. Rev. L. H. Raines filled his regular appointment at Peters Creek last Saturday and Sunday. Miss Lizzie Looper, of the Lathem section, who has been visiting her uncles in this section, has returned home. Miss Leila Jones, of Marietta route 2, visited her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hughes, last Saturday night and Sunday. Miss Ida Phillips visited Miss Anna Hughes last Sunday. Miss Zoia McCombs visited her sister, Mrs. Alpha Garren, last Saturday and Sunday. Misses Fannie Smith and Jennette Singleton visited Miss Dela Robinson last Sunday and reported a nice time. Mrs. J. E. Friddle visited her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Robinson, last Sunday. Mr. Reese Nimmons has moved his sawmill to Mr. J. W. Looper's place, where he will saw some lumber with which to build Mr. Looper a house and barn at Latham. The officers of the Dacusville camp 587, W. O. W., were installed Jan. 10, as follows: C. C. James Ponder; A. L. J. E. Friddle; clerk, Porter Jones; banker, Babe Thomas; escort, Henry Looper; watchman, S. B. Looper; sentry, W. D. Sutherland; managers, W. N. Jones and J. L. Looper. Mr. V. G. Good, of Greenville, is in this section tuning pianos and repairing organs. Better see him and have your organ or piano work done cheap and guaranteed. Come again, Progressive, with another shot of prohibition and hit the moonshiners. Mr. Jack M. Looper visited his brothers, Messrs. N. M. J. A. and J. W. Looper, of the Lathem section, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Editor, this is election year, and let us make the year 1914 the banner year for The Pickens Sentinel by giving more interesting news through the editor and the correspondents by writing each week or twice a month, any way. Through negligence I have not written in some time, but will do better this year. Yours for success in the contest, OLD GRUNTER.

Solicitor Favors Dividing Circuit

Solicitor P. A. Bonham, of Greenville, has announced himself in favor of dividing the 8th judicial circuit, making Greenville and Pickens counties one and Anderson and Oconee the other. Mr. Bonham returned to Greenville Saturday from Anderson, where he has been attending the six-day session of court in that city. Plans which would relieve the usual congested conditions of the circuit court dockets have for some time been agitated, and Solicitor Bonham believes a division of the circuit is the only logical solution of the state of affairs. He cites the recent session of court in Anderson as an illustration of existing conditions. He says out of 105 criminal cases on the docket only five milder cases, one forgery case and a few pleas in jail cases were taken up during the entire week. No case brought over from the last term of court was taken up, according to Solicitor Bonham, and enough cases remained on the docket at adjournment to occupy the attention of the court three weeks longer. The court of general sessions convened in Greenville Monday for a term of two weeks. "I find 30 jail cases here for trial," said Solicitor Bonham. "Many other cases, both old and new, will come up, though, and there is but little prospect of any great headway being made by the court with such a heavy docket to be handled." Solicitor Bonham says there are probably 100 cases in all to be heard, not to mention the number of appeals to be taken.

Deserted By All

J. D. Moore Dies

The following dispatch from Greenville to the Columbia State will be read with interest and regret by Pickens people: "Neglected by brothers, relatives and friends of his more prosperous days, J. D. Moore, who died Wednesday while under the care of the city, was buried at 11 o'clock Friday morning in Springwood cemetery. The funeral expenses will be covered by the proceeds of a small life insurance policy which the deceased carried. "Little is known of Mr. Moore before the time when he moved to Greenville and opened up a small store several years ago. He lived alone in the building on Pendleton street which sheltered his stock of fruits and produce. About a week ago he was found in his store desperately ill." J. D. Moore lived in Pickens a long time and conducted a small store here. He moved from Pickens to Greenville several years ago.

Easley Route 1

Dear Old Sentinel: Well, I will try to scratch you a few lines tonight. The beautiful weather of the past week has started the farmer guiding the plows and the song of "gee" and "haw" can be heard in almost every direction. There is still some cotton to be picked. Mr. Julius Freeman had the misfortune to lose a valuable mule and his brother Will one the same night with colic, which falls very heavy on them, as they were valued at about $250 each. Miss Edith Lenhardt has been visiting her uncle, Mr. J. K. Lathem, the past week. Mr. Berry Holcombe is reported very ill at his home near here. We wish to see him out soon. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hester visited Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hester last Sunday. Mr. B. D. Lenhardt is having the paint brush applied to his house, which will add much to its appearance. LOST BOY'S WIFE.

CORN CLUB WORK

WORTH MILLIONS South Entering New Era of Agricultural Production, Declares H. G. Hastings. Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—That the Boys' Corn Club movement means a great deal more to the South than the average citizen has ever dreamed, is the conclusion presented in an interesting interview by H. G. Hastings of Atlanta, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and manager of the Georgia State Corn Show, which is presented annually in the state capitol building. "We are facing," says Mr. Hastings, "an era of agricultural production such as the world has never before witnessed. Every year since the first corn club was organized, the movement has seen more than remarkable growth. One year's record has become insignificant when that of the next year doubled it; and by that, I mean that many more boys have gone into the work and have vastly increased results not only by their own efforts, but through inspiration to fathers, brothers and neighbors until millions of dollars have already been added to corn production in the South. "And yet this is but a forecast of what is to come. There are now being organized as an outgrowth of the corn club work, Three and Four-Crop Clubs. The boys will plant oats and cowpeas on their former corn acre, thus diversifying their crops and renewing the soil, while a new acre will be taken for corn cultivation. In some sections cotton has been added to the list, on a third acre, and the Young-Corn Club boys have already gone to work. "Another outgrowth of the corn club is the Pir Club. Southern boys have learned the truth of the story of the unsuccessful farmer who sent to a more prosperous neighbor to buy a sack of corn. The neighbor sold him the sack, but with it presented him a sack of corn. You have got the sack under your arm," he told the farmer, "but I want you to report that the hog is in the pen."
