

Fine Healthy Child Convincing Evidence

Simple, Inexpensive Remedy
Checks Early Tendency to Constipation.

About the first thing impressed on the young Mother is the necessity for regularity in her baby, which brings up the question of the most desirable laxative for children's use.

Mrs. Jesse Richardson, Philpot, Ky., says she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for the past year and that there is no medicine in the world like it. She writes, "My little son, William, Jr., just loved it because it is so pleasant to take, and everybody talks about his being such a fine, healthy boy."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from any opiate or narcotic drug. It is the standard remedy for constipation in thousands of homes throughout the land. Drug Stores everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A bottle of this excellent remedy, and have it in the house. A trial bottle,

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course, the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 31

THE BOY JOASH CROWNED KING.

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 11:4-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—The house of the wicked shall be overthrown; but the tent of the upright shall flourish.—Prov. 14:11, R. V.

This is a great and most intensely interesting boy's story. For thirty years two great heroes, Elijah and Elisha, fought against Baal. They stood up against kings and people, and fought for pure morals as the champions of Jehovah. Jehoshaphat, a good man, allowed his son to marry Jezebel's daughter and the nation reaped the results. The son of this union reigned over Judah but one year and was slain by Jehu, the destroyer of Ahab's dynasty. Athaliah, as dowager queen regent ruled for six years (See 2 Chron. 22). General Jehu wrought in the northern kingdom, hence the temporary escape of this child of Jezebel, the cursed queen.

I. Concealment, vv. 1-3. Jehosheba, the wife of Jehoiada, the high priest in charge of the temple, is thought to be the daughter of Joram by another wife than Athaliah. She was the agent in God's hands of saving the boy's life and of the final extinguishment of the seed of Ahab. Jehosheba, as daughter of one king, sister of another and high priest's wife, was familiar with every nook and corner of the temple, and "so a woman's ruthlessness was outwitted by a woman's cunning."—Farmer. Thus God saved the seed of David according to his Word (Psalms 89:3, 4).

II. Conspiracy, vv. 4-8. Athaliah's bloody reign is one of the darkest pages in the history of Judah. She murdered not her own children but her grandchildren to gain, or rather to continue, her rule, for as her son's counselor she was the real ruler of the nation (II Kings 8:26, 27; II Chron. 22:3, 4). God had made a promise (ch. 8:19; Isa. 7:6; Jer. 33:17-26) and that promise must be fulfilled, for no evil can thwart his will. Athaliah is a terrible example of unrestrained heredity. We have here the results of an unholy alliance. This is also an appalling example of the fruit of selfish ambition: (a) upon the nation, (b) on the family, (c) on the individual.

As against this picture we see a consecrated woman, a devoted home and the teaching of a pious priest, the final outcome of which was the overthrow of evil. This priest and his wife took certain other traits Joash inherited from his vile ancestors, such as courage, energy, skill and perseverance, and, training them under right and pious environment, turned them to the blessing of the nation. The early formative period of this boy's life was thus spent in such a way as to result in continuous blessing throughout his reign (12:1, 2).

III. Crowning, vv. 9-12 (to v. 16). It was a great service the priest and his wife rendered to Judah to save and to train a child. So likewise we are privileged, and those who are truly saved and rightly trained will also ultimately be crowned (II Tim. 4:8; I Peter 5:14; Rev. 2:10).

There are two accounts of the coronation ceremonies (see also II Chron. 22:10-23:21); they differ but do not conflict. The five captains and 500 bodyguards wrought a great work on that Sabbath day. Every man in the conspiracy did exactly as told. Joash is brought out at the exact moment. So also will our king appear at God's appointed time. The law is placed in his hands (v. 12, Ex. 25:16; Ps. 78:5; Isa. 8:16, 20). This controverts those who would have us believe the law was not written until Joash reigned. Aside from the law which was placed in his hands a crown was placed on his head and there was also the customary shouting and clapping of hands and cries of "God save the king" (Am. R. V.) which accompany such occasions.

IV. Conclusion. (1) Our Young Kings (and Queens). For everyone of our boys and girls there is awaiting a kingdom. Each is surrounded by dangers even as Joash. Their only safety is in God, in the love and power of his holy spirit, the knowledge of his word, the care and culture of his church, the guidance and influence of homes which belong to him.

(2) The Bible and the Coronation. The chief and most important part of the coronation was to place the word of God in the young king's hand. "Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee."

It is the royal law, life, lively oracles, food, light and wisdom for king and subject alike.

(3) The Anointed King. Symbolical by Joash received the holy spirit that he might know now and have power to live and govern by the law just placed in his hands. (I Sam. 10:16; 16:13; Acts 4:27; Heb. 1:9).

Such anointed ones are kings and queens and their lives are a benediction to all the world.

(4) The Eclipse of Evil. The one who was most guilty, who took the sword that she might rule, was the first to cry treason.

Her cry could not any longer hold back the purposes of God and she miserably perished.

No "Smoke of Battle" Now.
One of the marked features of the European conflict that distinguishes it from the wars of the past is the absence of smoke on the firing line. Owing to the use of smokeless powder, no smoke is made when a rifle is discharged, while the heaviest artillery throws off nothing more than a thin mist that is invisible a hundred yards away and disappears within a few seconds after a gun is fired. Only when shrapnel or a shell explodes in the enemy's line is there anything visible in the way of smoke, the whole purpose being to conceal the position of the guns throwing the projectiles while making the points where the projectiles explode clearly visible. The expression, "the smoke of battle," so faithfully descriptive of the wars of the past, has little meaning when applied to a modern war.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Crinoline in History.
The oft-threatened return of the crinoline, prophesied by alarmists of fashion, leaves us all wondering. We find that the crinoline was first worn in the sixteenth century by a Spanish princess, who used it to conceal her love letters from a forbidden admirer. According to pictures of Queen Elizabeth, she was the first to wear it in England, a writer in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch states. Perhaps she wore it for the same reason. She had need of pockets to hide such, provided all her admirers wrote to her. Among her earlier portraits we find that her dress resembled that of Queen Mary, her sister. The skirts of these were simply widened at the bottom.
