Mr. and Mrs. James Clements have as their guest their cousin, Miss Eula Head of Oconee county.

J. N. Keeler of Pendleton and Mrs. Joe Everett of Donalds are visiting Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Seawright.

The first Opera company to visit Pickens will be at the school house Wednesday night, December 8.

Messrs. D. A. Ferritt and J. W. Porter of the Six Mile section were in town on business Tuesday.

A large and interested crowd was in Pickens Monday to attend the land sales, and each tract brought good prices.

Messrs. N. R. Kennemore and M. B. Garrett, well-known citizens of Central route 2, were here on business Tuesday.

Don't know where you may get your bronze turkey for Christmas, but you can get your bronze shoes at Stubbs', Greenville.

Ray Nealy has quit his place with A. C. Gravley, liveryman, and is now braking for the Southern railway between Greenville and Atlanta.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Thursday evening at 4 o'clock with Mrs. T. R. Allen. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to attend.

Don't gobble up any old thing in your Holiday selections. Real keepsakes may be had in the newest and most up-to-date jewelry at H. Snider's, Easley, S. C.

Mr. Mack Farmer has just completed a handsome country home, which is of a bungalow type, with modern improvements. Many friends will enjoy it with Mr. Farmer and family.

Clyde, son of Prof. James Richardson, colored, died of the whooping cough Friday morning. The parents wish to thank everybody, both white and colored people, for kindness shown them.

Julie B. Dacus, who was taken ill and carried to the home of his parents at Sugar Valley, Ga. about a month ago, has returned and resumed his duties as salesman at M. F. Parrish's store in Easley.

Nathaniel Lynch of Pickens route 3 writes us that he is a cripple and unable to work, and that he is in a subscription contest for a prize. He wants to take your subscription for a monthly magazine and will appreciate your aid.

J. C. Alexander invites you to his store to purchase your Christmas goodies. Besides what he tells you of in his advertisement he has on hand fresh ingredients for fruit cakes. He will also handle cranberries and celery for the Christmas trade.

Dunk Bolts, our well-known and popular Hogwallow correspondent, was in town one day last week. He says he seldom gets as far away from home as this, but as he always wears socks during Christmas week and somebody stole his regular pair, he was in town to buy a pair. After diligent search he found a pair that suited him. Dunk was accompanied by Luke Mathewsia and a jug.

We learn with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Will Cater, which occurred at home on Pickens route 2 Monday. She was cooking dinner when she fell over dead, the doctors pronouncing her death due to the bursting of a blood vessel in her head. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Praters Creek. Besides her husband, Mrs. Cater is survived by a large family and numerous friends sympathize with them.

D. A. Waldrop of Liberty R4 was at the county seat Tuesday on business.

Koowee Lodge No. 79, A. F. M., will hold its annual meeting for the election and installation of officers Saturday night, Dec. 18. All members urged to be present.

An Easley man told us last week that he saw a man from above Pickens spend over fifty dollars with one of The Sentinel's Easley advertisers a few days before.

After its regular meeting Monday night the local K. of P. lodge entertained its members and a few invited guests at a delightful supper in Alexander's cafe. This lodge was only recently reorganized, but it is growing and is composed of enthusiastic Pythians.

Pickens merchants are enjoying a good trade these days. We heard one merchant remark last week that at this time last year he had to almost run a man down to sell him $5 worth of goods, and that now it was a daily occurrence to sell one person $50 worth of goods, and for cash, too.

Don't forget the bazaar in the Hollingsworth building, next door to the Pickens bank, Friday, December 10. A sumptuous dinner will be served and everybody is invited to attend. Fancy needlework will be on sale. This will be a good chance to buy some Christmas presents.

There will be a box supper at Wolf Creek school house on Friday night, December 17. All the boys and girls of the adjoining districts are especially invited. Come boys, and bring your sisters. If you haven't got a sister bring someone else's sister. Proceeds for the benefit of the school building.

November 24 Sheriff Roark arrested in Pendleton Alfred Martin, who was convicted at the September, 1895, term of court in Pickens, but who had never paid his sentence. There had been a bench warrant against him for twenty years and he had been living in Georgia most of the time. He paid his fine and returned to Pendleton, where he is making his home.

Mrs. Randall T. Waddell, of the George's Creek section of Pickens county, died Saturday morning, after a long illness, aged 49 years. She was a native of Laurens county, but had lived in this county for many years. She was a member of Antioch church and a consecrated christian woman. Her husband, three daughters and one son survive her, besides numerous friends who sympathize with the bereaved family.

NEW CHRISTMAS GOODS Are coming in every day. Now is the time to select your presents. We have a large selection of Watches, Watch Fobs, Watch Chains, Cuff Links, Tie Clasps, and LaValliers. Also anything in Cut Glass and Silverware. Select a present that will last and bring happiness for years to come.

Announcement!

According to agreement of the stockholders of the firm of Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co., the firm will, on January 1, undergo a reorganization, and owing to a change in the business it will be necessary to collect all the notes and accounts due the old firm within the next thirty to forty days, and we trust all our friends and customers will come in at once and make settlement of their notes and accounts to Mr. W. A. Merritt, who has charge of all notes and accounts for collection.

We also wish to announce that we have on hand a large stock of Buggies, Wagons and Farm Implements that we will sell at greatly reduced prices, and we are in a position to name you easy terms on same.

Yours truly,
Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co.
