Mrs. Matilda Looper

Mrs. Matilda Looper died at the home of her son, Joseph L. Looper of Cross Roads, on the 7th instant, in the 77th year of her life. Her funeral was held by her pastor, Rev. D. W. Hiott, assisted by Rev. Marion Looper, at Cross Roads church, in the presence of a vast multitude of sorrowing friends and relatives.

Her husband, Thomas P. Looper, died a little more than 23 years ago. Mrs. Looper was before her marriage Miss Matilda Hendricks, a daughter of Esquire Larkin Hendricks. She has an only brother, David Hendricks, who is now 81 years old.

Mrs. Looper leaves five sons and two daughters, as follows: A. J., Joe L., Bird, Mrs. Tom Turner and Mrs. Robert Hendricks, all of Cross Roads community; Will T. and Henry of Greenville.

Mrs. Looper had been a member of Cross Roads church for about 56 years and had lived a consistent Christian life. Besides her children she leaves many grandchildren and other relatives to weep for her. "Aunt Tilda" was much loved by the people. She loved her church and was faithful to the last. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. She will rest from her labors and her works will follow her. H.

Mr. William Keith Dead

William Keith died Friday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Folger, in Easley. Mr. Keith was a native of Pickens county, but for many years resided in Greenville. He was a Confederate veteran and served in the First South Carolina Volunteers, Hampton Legion. Mr. Keith first married Miss Edna C. Gossett and the following are the children of this union: Mrs. A. W. Folger, R. A. Keith, Mrs. W. Z. Davis and Mrs. C. E. Bull. He was married a second time to Mrs. Emily C. Payne. S. J. Keith, B. C. Keith and Mrs. W. H. Conley are the children of this union. Mr. Keith was a member of St. Paul's Methodist church of Greenville.

Pickens Route 4

There will be a box supper and entertainment at Ambler school house Saturday evening, December 18, beginning at 6.30 o'clock, and everybody is invited to come. Mrs. A. A. Jones has it in charge, and this insures its success. There will be singing and recitations and a general good time. The proceeds will be used to buy an organ for the school and Sunday school. The Ambler school began its winter session Monday morning.

This community regrets very much to learn that in a short time they are to lose Mr. A. C. Smith and family. They will probably locate in or near Greenville. They are one of our best families and have one extra good quality of always attending to their own business and letting other people's alone. In some sections this kind is scarce.

Box Supper at Oolenoy

The pupils of the Oolenoy graded school will entertain friends in the school auditorium Thursday night, December 23, from 8.30 to 11 o'clock. There will be a play, a box supper and refreshments. You are invited.

The Dependence You Place in Advertising

WE need hardly call your attention to our advertisers this week. The limited time you have for buying Christmas goods naturally drives you to the advertising columns. It is always so. Whenever you anticipate the purchase of anything you hunt up the papers or a catalog, don't you? Yet few people realize or appreciate the dependence they place in these mediums. The advertising columns of The Pickens Sentinel are storehouses of valuable information every week. They carry messages of money-saving opportunities that can benefit only those families who make a practice of reading our ads week after week. In this issue let us call your attention to the messages from:
