Mrs. C. C. Jones Died at Calhoun

Mrs. Virginia Doyle Jones, wife of Dr. C. C. Jones of Greenville, died Saturday morning at 2 o'clock, January 22, 1916, after a lingering illness, at the home of her brother, Mr. Ramsay Doyle, at Calhoun, in the 49th year of her age.

As Miss Virginia Doyle she was married to Dr. C. C. Jones of Greenville December 3, 1884. Mrs. Jones is survived by her husband, two sons, W. R. and Clinton Jones, and three brothers, Dr. Clay Doyle, Dr. Will Doyle of Seneca and Mr. Ramsay Doyle of Calhoun.

The deceased was a gentle, refined spirit and beloved by all who knew her. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and, until her health failed several years ago, was actively identified with the First Presbyterian church of Greenville, whose work and worship were a joy to her and in whose fellowship she died.

The bereaved ones have a host of friends who sorrow with them in this sad affliction.

The funeral was conducted at her home Sunday by Dr. Sloan and Mr. Lyon and interment was in the Episcopal cemetery.

W. O. Ferguson of Pearidge Dead

W. Oliver Ferguson, a well-known citizen of the Pearidge section, died Sunday morning, January 23, aged 50 years. He had been in bad health several years, but critically ill only about a week before his death, which resulted from a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at Mountain View church Monday afternoon. The deceased had been a member of the Baptist church for many years.

Mr. Ferguson was survived by his wife and eight children, as follows: Mrs. Bessie Hudson, Andrew, Jerry, Ora, Milton, Ethel, J. D. and T. J. Ferguson. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved ones.

News Letter From Good Old Oolenoy

Oolenoy, Jan. 23.—After several days of dark, disagreeable, rainy weather we are today enjoying the clear sky, the bright sunlight and the beautiful mountains.

Mrs. Thomas J. Keith spent one day of the past week with her mother, Mrs. L. M. Rigdon. Among the visitors here today were: Messrs. Willie and Earl Chastain, Irvin Dacus and Ernest Looper.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Keith, formerly of this place but now of Greenville, made a short visit here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Freeman of the Loopers section were recent visitors to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jones.

Rev. W. M. Hammond preached his first sermon today as pastor of Euon church, near Easley. A large and appreciative audience greeted him. He has also been called to the pastorate of Georges Creek church.

N. P. Edens and family of upper Oolenoy have moved to Easley, where he enters his children in school. He is an energetic citizen and the community is loath to give him up.

Mrs. A. C. Sutherland was a recent spend-the-day guest of her mother, Mrs. Malinda Chastain, who has been quite ill but is improved at this date.

W. J. Langston is rushing a handsome new touring car in serving the patrons on his mail route. The old car, which had been our daily visitor for several years, was exchanged. Her splendid mail facilities is another thing Oolenoy boasts of.

We regret to report that G. Wash Lesley, one of the well-known citizens of the Griffin section, is very sick.

Campaign Year

Every citizen should keep himself posted on things political in this state this year; especially should Pickens county people keep posted on Pickens county affairs; and those who read The Pickens Sentinel will be posted.

We may give you some views on affairs, but our primary object will be to give you the NEWS, impartial and unbiased, and let you do your own "viewing."

We are going to make The Sentinel worth more to you than you pay for it, and no citizen of the county can really afford to do without it. Whoever is doing without his county paper, thinking he is saving a dollar a year, is practicing false economy.

The Pickens Sentinel prints more Pickens county news than all other papers combined and gives you the important state and general news, too. Besides the news, it carries weekly other interesting features, such as a good serial story, Sunday school lesson, farming articles, fashion hints, humorous stories, etc.—something for every member of the family. In fact it is the biggest dollar's worth of reading a Pickens county man can buy. You may get more reading for a dollar, but you don't get the same class.

The price of The Sentinel is one dollar a year—less than 2c a week—in advance.

Ask your neighbor to take the county paper. It will help him, and the more subscribers we have the better paper we can publish for you.

Birthday Dinner For Mr. Hopkins

Mr. Editor: We had the pleasure of attending a surprise birthday dinner in honor of M. L. E. Hopkins January 22, this being his 68th birthday. Folks began to come in with baskets and Mr. Hopkins wanted to know what it all meant—why all these folks coming here and who invited them? His curiosity was aroused and they had to tell the secret just before the table was spread.

Well, of all the good things to eat, they were there. Just as long as anything could be placed on the table it was there. We had more than we could do to sample a quarter of it. Everyone enjoyed the occasion and it was a delightful one to Bro. Hopkins.

An even fifty were present, twelve families, and thirteen babies. Some of those babies were grown.

May God continue His blessings on Bro. Hopkins and may his old days be his happiest ones.

Rev. T. E. DURHAM.

A Live Lot of Liberty Locals

Dr. W. A. Sheldon was called to Greenville Monday to the bedside of his son, Garnet, who is ill in the hospital. Garnet was operated on Tuesday for appendicitis and is resting well. We wish for him a speedy recovery so that he may soon be able to resume his studies at the P. C. in Clinton.

Rev. and Mrs. G. P. Hodges, the new Methodist minister and wife, arrived Friday and were given a warm welcome at the parsonage. A number of people called during the afternoon and the pantry was filled with all the good things the market affords.

A little daughter, Cleon Owings, arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunter Dec. 31.

Two Letters From Mt. Carmel Section

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tanner of Dacusville route 2, January 23, a girl.

Miss Alma Ferguson spent the week-end at the home of her grandfather, Joseph Looper, of this section.

The C. C. Club met with Mrs. Richard Davidson last Saturday. There was a good attendance.

Lenhardt Wyatt and Miss T. Wyatt visited in this section Sunday. Miss Wyatt is principal of the Lenhardt school.

Mr. Hester's much-discussed article on woman suffrage which appeared in The Sentinel a few weeks ago brings to mind the story of the philosopher who interrupted Mrs. Pankhurst, the leader of woman suffragettes, while she was speaking excitedly to a mixed audience on the streets of a city. She had mounted a dry goods box and the feminine orator spoke something like this: "I pant for the time to come when woman will have her rights. I pant for the time when woman will cast her ballot in every nook and corner of this great commonwealth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. I pant for the time when woman will not only be recognized as the equal of man, but his superior." At this point a plain old gentleman in the crowd called out: "Hold on, sister; you needn't pant for all that. What you are panting for is pants!"

Mr. Editor: Everything seems to be unusually quiet at present on this side of the county. Everybody seems to be busy when the weather will permit in making preparations for another crop.

Only one of our boys has ventured out on the sea of matrimony this winter. Mr. Doc Howard and Miss Anna Phillips of Greenville were recently married and will live with A. H. Heaton.

The monthly meeting of the Embroidery Club was held Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. R. H. Davidson as hostess. A large attendance of the members was present and a very enthusiastic session was held. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

The following officers have been elected and installed to serve the Cross Plains Camp, W. O. W., for 1916: P. C. C., F. B. Ponder; C. C., W. A. Looper; Adv. Lieut., Rupert Farr; banker, J. T. Pace; clerk, L. L. Smith; escort, J. N. Looper; watchman, J. A. Hitt; sentry, S. M. Mahaffey; managers, B. D. Latham, C. E. Day and E. H. Davidson; physician, Dr. W. M. Ponder. The camp recently held their annual banquet. About 75 covers were laid and enjoyed by all present.

The Farr bridge over Saluda river has been repaired and is now open to the public, much to the delight of some of the young men around here, who have a habit of going over on the Greenville side on Sundays.

A Newsy Letter From Busy Norris

Dear Sentinel:—Here comes "Miss Newscatcher" after an absence of nearly two months.

Our town is lively now and swinging on a higher scale since the work of the double-tracking began at this point. In an interview with an official, it is said from all indications that the terminal will be moved from Greenville to this place instead of Central. So let our slogan be "to boost for a greater Norris."

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Garrett and family, of Six Mile, spent one day last week very pleasantly with the former's sister, Mrs. I. D. Rice.

Misses Louise and Katie Mae Rhodes, two of Sewanee's (Ga.) fairest young ladies, are spending some time very pleasantly with their brother, Depot Agent M. C. Rhodes, at "Hillcrest."

Till Littleton is at home after an absence of several months, to the delight of many friends.

Alfred Bolding, a former citizen, has moved back here from Liberty and is occupying the house vacated by John Cooke and family, who are residing on the farm this year.

Mrs. C. H. Billingsly and her daughter, Mary, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Williams and Miss Maybelle Mauldin.

Mr. Edens, of near Pickens, visited friends here last week.

Norris has been gay since the holiday season with many dinners and various parties being given by the younger smart set.

The W. O. W. of this place is doing good work. Last week they contributed to the amount of $30 including household necessities for the family of T. D. Smith, of Catechee. There have been six cases of fever in this family since last September.

Mr. Smith and eldest daughter, Marie, are slowly recovering. A trained nurse of Greenville is in attendance.

Tom Whitten, third trick operator of Easley, spent Tuesday with his mother here.

Mickler, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitten is recovering from a recent attack of pneumonia.
