The very best fellow

A helping hand.

Let's be thankful that there are no hyphenated Mexicans!

If those Mexicans don't quit pestering Uncle Sam there won't be any border to cross.

That stereotyped grin some of our citizens are now wearing won't come off till after the votes are counted.

West Virginia must be a sure-enough dry state. The thirsty ones are burglarizing the jails there to get the stuff.

"Only Germans and Austrians desire Peace"—headline. Then why those French and British prayers for peace?

The best recommendation Mr. Brandies has for that appointment is the knocks those Boston lawyers gave him.

Speaking of old-timey times, what has become of the old-fashioned kid who used to put a mud pill on a bumble-bee sting?

We'd rather have good "horse sense" than be an educated jackass. This has no reference at all to Mr. Frank Evans of Spartanburg.

We just want to whisper to Watson Bell that he should assign Mell Glenn to a home where they don't use sharp knives at the dining table.

Dunk Botts says he noticed that the Columbia State had an editorial about "ty." He says it was a subject for such a feeble have with us the fireless cooker and the iceless refrigerator, we are expecting Col. Rion McKissick's Virginia friend to soon announce that he has perfected his odorless whiskey for viceless men.

H. H. Harris, Esq., who is a candidate for solicitor of this judicial district, was raised in Pickens county and is a grandson of the late Col. C. L. Hollingsworth, who was one of Pickens county's most prominent citizens. Mr. Harris is a young man of thorough legal training and is popular in this county, his old home.

Who Said We'd Run Out of Poetry?
Ed DeCamp will carry
A quart
With him, when he goes
To York!

Colonel Bob of the State complains that the skeeters bite his ankles. If the Colonel would encase his gracefully curved tibiae in a pair of socks—but, shucks, it's not stylish to wear them things in our capital city.

Noting that up in New Jersey an operation was performed on a boy's head to make him a better boy, Editor Greene, of the Abbeville Press and Banner, says that's not the place his parents used to operate on him to make him better.

We Double-Dare the committee in charge to arrange a ball game between the country boys and the city guys at the Press Meet in York next month. We know they won't do it, tho, for the way we roughnecks would romp on the highbrows wouldn't make good reading for the society column.

We see by the papers that Congressmen Aiken and Nichols are trying to have an artillery park and rifle range established in the mountains of Pickens and Oconee counties on land owned by the government. One little thing that might interfere with our congressmen's plans is that the government doesn't own any land in Pickens county.

How Can We Tell When We Get There?
Spartanburg Journal.

Getting about time Gary Hiott was starting from Pickens to York if he wants to be there on the opening day of the press association meet.

Another hyphen that is expected to be pretty conspicuous this fall is the one in ex-congressman.—The State.

JUST RECEIVED!

Another Car of the Old Reliable Mitchell Wagons and a Car of Chase City Buggies.

These vehicles need no introduction to the people of Pickens County, as there are hundreds of them being used every day.

There are wagons you can buy for less money than you will pay for the Mitchell, but we can say without fear of contradiction that nowhere in the United States will you buy a wagon that will run lighter or wear longer than the Mitchell.

DON'T CONSIDER THE PRICE SO MUCH IN BUYING A WAGON, BUT BUY ONE THAT YOU ARE NOT AFRAID TO LOAD

If you are undecided as to which wagon to buy, just ask the man who owns a Mitchell, or ask your blacksmith; they will both tell you that repair bills are almost unknown to the Mitchell Wagon.

A full line of Chase City Buggies, any color, in both steel and rubber tires. All we ask is for you to look at the make-up and finish of a Chase City Buggy, and when you buy one you will be surprised at how light it runs and how long it will last.

Just give one of these well-known vehicles a trial and you will be convinced that you will get more for your money than any other wagon or buggy you could buy.

Yours truly,

FOLGER, THORNLEY & CO.

The Pickens Mill team defeated the Pickens team in a game played on the mill diamond Wednesday afternoon, the score being 11 to 8. This was the first game of the season for the town boys; in fact, the first in five years for some of them. The game was interesting and good natured.

"The Store That's Always Busy"

THE above is a picture of the "Hollingsworth Home" at the Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C. The picture and description below will prove of interest to our readers, since the late Mrs. Hollingsworth lived in Pickens county so long and has many relatives and friends here. The Sentinel is indebted to Mr. J. B. Branch, vice-president of the orphanage, for the cut of the building and the following description:
The Hollingsworth Home is named for Mrs. M. A. Hollingsworth, who gave the money for its erection. Mrs. Hollingsworth was the mother-in-law of Ex-Governor Ansel, who is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Thornwell Orphanage. A daughter, Mrs. Jones Fuller, of Greenwood, is also a devoted friend of the Orphanage, and has done a great deal for it. The Hollingsworth Home is built of concrete blocks and is two stories in height. The second floor is where the matron and the inmates sleep. Its first floor is taken up with parlors, guest room, dining room and kitchen. It is one of the most convenient homes on the grounds for the housing of a large number of children. The home is for boys, whose ages are from 12 to 18, and there are twenty boys in it. Mrs. Fuller of Greenville is the matron. The building cost $3,000, but that amount of money goes further at the Orphanage than elsewhere on account of the orphanage doing all the work, making the blocks, using its own machinery, and doing all its own hauling. The home was opened in 1910.
