Irvin Gillespie Dead

Irvin Gillespie, 29 years of age, died Monday morning in the Anderson hospital of pneumonia. He had been ill one week. Gillespie is a son of J. D. Gillespie near Liberty, in Pickens county. He was taken ill about a week and was taken to the Anderson hospital. The illness had gotten such an advantage that his life was soon despaired of, and Thursday morning he died. The funeral was held at Flat Rock church Friday.

Mr. Gillespie was a fine type of young man. Almost perfect physically and well known and respected in his community. A great big, fine looking young man, robust as could be imagined and beloved by everyone who knew him.

Recital By Music Class

Amid appropriate and attractive surroundings eleven pupils of Miss Elinor Knight's music class gave an entertaining recital to a large and interested audience in the school auditorium last Friday evening. Each number rendered was liberally applauded. Just before the close of the recital Prof. Melton delivered to Misses Ina McFadden and Margaret Garland certificates of completion of the elementary course of music and also presented to each of these young ladies a handsome prize for being present at every scheduled lesson during the past term.

The work of every pupil was splendid, but we must make special mention of the work of little Misses Nan Newton and Margaret Valley, who were the favorites of the audience.

The pupils who took part in the recital were Misses Elinor McDaniel, Kate Cureton, Margaret Garland, Lucille and Kathleen Harris, Bernice Carey, Ina McFadden, Nancy Newton and Margaret Valley and Theo Smith and Robert Melton.

Miss Knight is a music teacher of much ability and the recital Friday night reflected credit upon both class and teacher.

Pickens Co. News 40 Years Ago

From The Sentinel, May 25, 1876.

There is not enough criminal business to justify the holding of sessions of court for the June term, and none will be held.

Mrs. Susan Kennemore died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Abraham Roe, in this county, on Friday, the 19th inst., aged 94 years.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Pickens county at this place on Saturday, the 3d of June, to take into consideration the propriety or impropriety of resisting by legal means the payment of the railroad tax.

The second session of the Easley high school will begin Tuesday, June 6. Prof. J. Q. Stockman is principal.

W. C. Field, Esq., will accept our thanks for a fine mess of beans, Irish potatoes and radishes.

Married, by J. B. Newberry at his residence, May 21, 1916, Miss Viola Alexander and J. C. Cooper, of Liberty R. F. D. No. 3.

Miss Mauldin Doing Good Work

The home demonstration work is making a great progress in our county. Seven Women's clubs are now studying under the supervision of Miss Mauldin. More than twenty women have already begun to use the fireless cookers and iceless refrigerators in their homes.

The canning club girls are also doing good work despite the dry weather. Mrs. Dora D. Walker, state agent, visited our community last week and gave the girls many helpful suggestions as to transplanting and cultivating their tomatoes. She paid our girls many compliments on their good work.

Merle Hendricks of the Oolenoy club has already completed the transplanting to her tenth acre. This was the first that Mrs. Walker had seen in the state which had been finished. Merle deserves a great deal of credit for her energetic efforts.

No Case Against Furman Holder

Dr. W. F. Flowers, a veterinary surgeon of Easley, was arrested in that town Monday night, May 15, and his Overland car was confiscated by the town when the policemen found four gallons of whiskey in it. He was tried by the town authorities and fined $100, $25 of which was suspended during good behavior. The automobile will be sold in Easley to the highest bidder.

Furman Holder of Pickens was driving the car at the time of the arrest and has come in for a great deal of undeserved notoriety on account of it, and he wants some correction made about it. It was published broadcast that he was arrested, locked up and would be tried in two courts on account of it, when as a matter of fact he was never locked up and has not and will not be tried in connection with this unfortunate affair. At Doctor Flowers' trial the doctor swore that Mr. Holder was driving the car for him because he (Dr. Flowers) was intoxicated and unable to drive, and that Mr. Holder did not even know the whiskey was in the car.

Monday Dr. Flowers made a trip above Pickens to see some sick horses and on his way back to Easley he stopped at J. D. Holder's to see a horse which he had been treating for Mr. Holder. Seeing the doctor's condition and fearing that he would be unable to get safely home by himself Mr. Holder telephoned his son Furman to come over and drive the doctor to his home in Easley. This Furman agreed to do and when they got to Easley the policemen made the arrest.

Norris News Notes

(Too Late for Last Week.)

Ollie Rice left Saturday morning for North Carolina for a two weeks' visit. Miss Louise Rhodes, a charming young lady of Swanee, Ga., is spending the remainder of the spring at "Hill Crest", the home of her brother and sister-in-law, M. C. Rhodes.

Hunter's Mill, two miles north of town, is becoming a popular resort for townspeople from here and Liberty. Since the spring season opened fishing parties, dinners, picnics and motorists have found this a place for recreation.

J. Chandler is the electrician at the power house and comes highly recommended. A force of hands under the supervision of Mr. Sullivan are at work making more improvements. F. Lenhardt of Easley was a week-end visitor here in the interest of the mill.

Tom Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garrett, is at home on a short vacation trip from Panama. His friends are delighted to have him back in our midst again.

Miss Stella Wood, whose home is in Asheville, N. C., but a returned missionary from India, gave an interesting and profitable lecture at Smith's Chapel last Thursday night. Miss Wood expects to return to her work this fall.

Misses Mildred Southard and Carrie Kay, of Connecticut and Belton, Ga., respectively, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Rice recently.

Come along with the news, "Susie," "Happy Kid" and "Brunette." I enjoyed reading your interesting missives immensely.

Susie, do you really miss "Newscatcher"? Well, she's been teaching—in the same position you have been, NEWS-CATCHER.

A delivery wagon, a street car and an automobile met in collision in Greenville Saturday afternoon and the driver of the delivery wagon was painfully injured. The automobile was being driven by Paul Hester of near Pickens and was occupied by himself and sisters, Misses Pearle, Lois and Susie Hester, and Misses Fannie and Ella May Smith. None of them were injured, but the automobile was damaged some.

JOHN A. HORTON "The People's Candidate" for Congress

To the Voters of the Third Congressional District:

I am a firm believer in the rule of the people. I regard a public office as a public trust and the holder thereof as the servant of the whole people, to whom he owes a faithful, honest and conscientious service.

A strong advocate of Rural Credits—cheap money direct from the government to farmers on long, easy payments.

Am in favor of a tariff for revenue only, and will urge the lowest possible rates on the necessities of life with the highest rates on the luxuries. In order to meet the demand for increased revenue, I favor an increased tax on incomes and inheritances.

I am a believer in labor and farmers' organizations, and they will find in me a true friend. The safety, comfort, health and rights of all laborers should be safeguarded by full and adequate laws.

I advocate federal aid for our post roads. Am in favor of the "literacy test" as to immigration, and further safeguarding the interests of laborers from the competition of foreign pauper labor.

Will give all interests and classes an honest, square deal.

A representative who will give active, personal attention to the duties of the office.

Those who are under the Civil Service and have charges preferred against them should be allowed free access to the papers in their cases and see what the charges are and who preferred them. Anything short of that is not giving the accused a square deal.

A man from the people, who knows their needs. Before the campaign is ended I hope to meet the voters face to face, in order that I may assure them in person that, in exchange for their favor and support, I will render them an honest and energetic service.

JOHN A. HORTON.

BENNETT H. POWERS Candidate For Treasurer of Pickens County

I am a candidate for Treasurer of Pickens County and solicit the support of all citizens on a basis of merit.

I feel that I am fully competent to discharge the duties of this important office to the best interests of the people, and if you elect me I promise to make you a faithful officer and conduct the office in a business-like way and attend strictly to business.

I greatly appreciate the flattering vote given me two years ago, when I lacked only a few votes of being elected to this office, and your support this year will not only be appreciated but will be rewarded by the satisfaction of knowing that your office will be in good hands and that you have a servant there who will be ready to serve you at all times.

Even though defeated in the second race two years ago by a small majority, I came down with a clear conscience toward each and every man in the county and can now enter the race with a record that leaves no blemish. Vote just as you please and you will vote as I do.

Harvey Alonzo Richey

Harvey Richey is no more. After an energetic life of duties well performed in this world his spirit is enjoying that contentment promised the faithful.

Harvey Alonzo Richey died at his home in Pickens Friday morning at 1.30 o'clock, aged 68 years. His health had been failing for about a year and he continually grew weaker. His death was not unexpected.

The death of Mr. Richey caused sadness over the entire community. He was probably the best known man and knew intimately more people than any other man in Pickens county, and all who knew him were his friends. It will be a long time before the people of Pickens become accustomed to his absence.

Mr. Richey was born November 15, 1848, in the upper part of Anderson county. When he first left home he went to Gainesville, Ga., where he engaged in the mercantile business, and there married Miss Belle Williams in 1869. He later returned to Easley and was employed in the store of Tom W. Russell. He with A. G. Wyatt and W. J. Roark later acquired this business. In 1884 he was elected sheriff of Pickens county and moved to Pickens. His record as sheriff was splendid and he served two terms, being succeeded by J. H. G. McDaniel. In 1896 he bought the assigned stock of goods of Sutherland & Griffin and again entered the mercantile business and continued in business at the same stand until the time of his death. He was successful in his business ventures and accumulated much property. In early life he joined the Fairview Protestant Methodist church and remained a member of that church until his death. He was converted under the preaching of the famous Caleb Smith. He was married by the celebrated Preacher Burdine.

Mr. Richey was a man out of the ordinary. He was a man of excellent habits, fine character, extremely honest in all dealings, and of sturdy constitution, and he continued to be active in his accustomed pursuits till long past the age when men ordinarily drop out of the ranks of the workers. He bore adversity bravely and enjoyed prosperity quietly. He had filled the various positions of life, as son, husband, father, brother, friend and public officer, and filled them well. Who can do more?

Mr. Richey is survived by his wife and eight children, as follows: Mrs. Flora Latham Arnett, of North Carolina; Mrs. Dora Thompson, Mrs. Nora LaBoon, Mrs. Olga Goodwin and J. T. Richey, of Pickens; Mrs. Cora Martin, of Anderson; Mrs. Ola McKagan, of Greenville, and Mrs. Sadie Williams, of San Antonio, Texas. His eldest son, Homer, preceded his father to the grave many years. A brother and sister also survive—W. C. ("Squire") Richey of Easley route 3, and Mrs. Sarah Wyatt of Easley route 5. Besides these are many other relatives in this section.

The funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Lamar, assisted by Rev. L. E. Wiggins and Rev. John C. Bailey. A large concourse of sorrowing friends were present to pay the last sad rites. The body was laid to rest in the Pickens cemetery. The active pall-bearers were his grandsons, Willie, Homer and Toomer Thompson, Harry LaBoon Richard Martin and Alf W. Tanner.

Would that we could express our feelings over the departure of this friend, but our pen is far too feeble. To the bereaved ones we extend sincere sympathy and point to them the way he always bore his sorrows.

"Tired! ah, yes! so tired, dear,
I shall soundly sleep tonight,
With never a dream and never a fear,
To wake in the morning light."

Mrs. Ann Crane

Mrs. Ann Crane died at the home of her son, J. Frank Crane, at Liberty, Tuesday, May 9, at the age of eighty five years, ten months and thirteen days. She made her home near Pickens with her son, W. H. Crane, until the past year, which she spent with a son in Georgia, coming back just a few weeks ago to make her home with J. F. Crane.

She had been an invalid for several years. Mrs. Crane was the mother of eight children, four boys and four girls, all still living.

The funeral service was held at Bethlehem church near Pickens, of which she was the oldest member, having been a member of this church more than forty years. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. H. Hodges, and the body laid to rest in the church cemetery by the side of her husband, B. B. Crane, who preceded her to the grave fifty one years, being killed during the war.

John A. Robinson, one of the most prominent citizens of Easley, was in Pickens on business one day recently.

Mrs. Samuel M. Looper

Mrs. Martha A. ("Aunt Patay") Looper died at her home in the Mica settlement May 18. Funeral services were held at Cross Roads church Friday, being conducted by Rev. Fulton Childress, after which the body was laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Looper was 76 years of age at the time of her death. She had been a member of Cross Roads church 60 years and had been married 58 years.

She was a remarkable woman in many ways, and it is said that she was never known to speak an ill word of anybody nor speak a harsh word. She was an every-day christian. The beautiful influence of a pure religion were spread over a life and character as spotless and charming as was ever possessed by any of the noble women who have died during the ages that have passed. As such a life was a blessing and benediction to all within the sphere of its influence, so is the death of such a one a public misfortune, as well as irreparable loss to the home circle made desolate by her departure. It is difficult to pay a tribute to the memory of so noble a woman—one whose every-day life was embellished by the most charming and lovable attributes of her sex. A perfect lady at all times under all circumstances, she seemed born to inspire the love and respect of all who were so fortunate as to be acquainted with her.

Besides her husband, Samuel M. Looper, she leaves the following children: Mrs. Sallie Fendley, of Greenville county; Mrs. Josie Tompkins, of Texas; J. Marion Looper, Mrs. Nannie Kennemore, of Glenwood Mill; Mrs. Martha Williams and Dave Looper of Anderson county; Mrs. Fannie Hendricks, J. Thomas, Sam B., Oscar and Miss Nora Looper, of Pickens county, and hosts of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Robert E. Steele

Died, at her home on Keowee, Wednesday, May 17, Mrs. Robert E. Steele, aged about 70 years. She had been an invalid about three years, but bore her affliction with real christian fortitude. Paralysis was the cause of her death. Mrs. Steele had for many years been a member of Keowee Baptist church and her funeral services were held there Friday.

"Smooth the locks of silver hair,
On our mother's brow with tenderest care,
Gather the robe in final fold
Around the form so still and cold;
Lay on her bosom, pure as snow,
The fairest, sweetest flowers that grow,
Kiss her and leave her our hearts deluged."

Her pain is over, she sleeps tonight. Deep is the gloom among those who knew this good woman, who has left a place which cannot be filled. After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, loved and trusted. She reared her own monument while she lived in the hearts of all who knew her.

Mrs. Steele is survived by her devoted husband and five sons, as follows: J. E. M., C. M. and J. F. Steele, of Pickens county; Dr. W. H. Steele, of Jackson, Ga., and J. E. Steele, of Indiana. Several brothers and sisters, and a wide family connection also survive.

The Sentinel joins with unnumbered friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones and especially to the heartbroken companion of her life, whom we understand is growing very feeble, but whom we hope will be spared many more years of blessings with us.

Mrs. B. P. Mauldin Dead

Mrs. Nannie Mauldin, widow of the late B. P. Mauldin, died May 16. Her death was very sudden and due to apoplexy. At the time of her death she was 62 years old and a member of Tabor church, where her funeral was held May 17, being conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. B. White.

Before her marriage Mrs. Mauldin was a Miss Hawkins and she was known and loved by all in her community and many hearts are sad over her departure.

Besides many friends and relatives she leaves ten living children, as follows: Mrs. Mollie Cantrell, W. H. Mauldin, Ruby Mauldin, Mrs. Damie Gosnell, Riley Mauldin, Mrs. Hattie Knowles, Mrs. Lelia Stephens, Mrs. Vandy Dillard, Anderson Mauldin and Mrs. Sarah Roper.

T. H. Campbell of Mullins has been elected to and has accepted the principalship of the Pickens school for the next term. The present teachers were re-elected, as follows: Misses Isadora Williams, Nellie Grandy, Ruby Baker, Belle Yongue, Ada Craig. Miss Vesta Ashmore, who taught the past session, resigned.
