lished for one-half cent a word.

The time draws near—We bithely wait
To greet the sweet Girl graduate.

Meet your friends in Pickens June 3.

If George Washington could only see us now!

We know a Parrott who is not green and doesn't cuss.

Cheer up, fellows; every day'll be payday by and by.

Has anyone seen that there feller Pancheo Villa loafing around the Texas border lately?

There may be better people than Pickens county people, but we don't know where they are.

Some people's style of religion allows them to do things which an ordinary man's conscience will not let him do.

We notice by the North Carolina papers that there was some sort of a celebration in the town of Charlotte last Saturday.

"Old Col. Aftermath in Six Reels."— York News. But how is the Colonel going to get six reels out of four days' reeling unless he doubles up?

Press dispatches say Congressman Aiken has blood-poisoning in his foot.
A prominent citizen says he's afraid it will interfere with his running.

We suspect the entertainment committee of the press convention in York next month will have to build a room around that there feller Col. Joe Sparks.

The date for the meeting of the Press Association has been changed from June 12-15 to June 7-11. 7-11 does sound a little more euphonious, doesn't it?

Some people say there is no such thing as luck, but it takes pluck to win success. But according to the dictionary "luck" constitutes about four-fifths of pluck.

Another pathetic little incident of everyday life, if Colonel Aftermath will allow us, is the way some people want to be the conscience of the entire community.

Some people are powerful wasteful.
Now there's that Watson Bell of the York News wanting another shirt. What did he do with that speckled shirt the good people of York gave him last summer?

If Warehouse Commissioner McLaurin is "dead sot" on running for some office in order that he may have a chance to blow his on bazoo, let him go over to Oconee and stand for coroner. We understand that job about fits his description of the lieutenant-governorship.

Charlotte Observer wonders "what would the paragraph crew do without their old stock phrase of 'what has become of the old-fashioned—?' Why, neighbor, they would be compelled to do as many of our brightest exchanges do—use those wooden affairs which come by freight.

We received two letters last week addressed to the "Sentinel-Journal," the former name of this paper, which was then fondly referred to by Blue Eyes, Brown Eyes, Grey Eyes, etc., as the "dear old S-J." While the name has been changed to simply The Pickens Sentinel, if you prefer you may still send your checks to the dear old S-J.
We'll get them all right.

We have fireless cookers, iceless refrigerators, boneless fish, seedless fruit and a whole mess of other "less" things. And now we are about to have inflicted upon us—no, on the women—the stockingless stocking! An actress, temporarily sojourning in Atlanta, has thrown away her stockings, gone to a local artist and had her le—limbs painted stocked and striped in imitation of socks! But we hope the disease won't spread.

SOCIETY NOTE.—Mrs. Fletcher Hen-step announces the engagement of two pounds of butter to the storekeeper at Bounding Billows.

Kaiser Wilhelm furnishes our weekly riddle this week. Here it is: If I were in the sun and you were out of it, what would the sun become?

Clinkscales' Service

Spartanburg Herald.
When the state Democratic convention, assembled in Columbia, elected John G. Clinkscales of Spartanburg one of the delegates-at-large to the national convention, it honored a South Carolinian who has rendered his party and his state a service that will be more and more appreciated as the years go by.
He was not elected governor when he made the race two years ago, but he set this state to thinking along educational lines in a manner that has already brought great good and will bring still greater benefits in the years to come.
Dr. Clinkscales' friends throughout the state will appreciate the recognition accorded him.

Can't Even Get Your Quarter Back Now!

Greenville News.
They do say that Pickens is so dry now that no longer can you put a quarter behind a stump and return in half an hour to find the quarter with the "er" left off.

Pickens County Items

Two more Pickens county boys, Rhett Thomas of Nine Times and Henry Dacus of Easley, enlisted in the coast artillery service of the U. S. army last week and have gone to the training camp at Columbus, Ohio.

T. A. Bowen has on exhibition at his office in the court house some interesting pictures of the crimson clover fields of E. W. Tate of Norris. S. H. Maddox has charge of Mr. Tate's farm and has been using crimson clover as a cover crop three years. This year he had fifty acres of as fine clover as one would care to see and it all came from Pickens county grown seed. Mr. Bowen will be pleased to show anyone the pictures and tell you about this farm.

Col. C. L. Cureton of Pickens attended the big celebration in Charlotte Saturday and as a member of Governor Manning's staff occupied a seat on the reviewing stand with President Wilson.
After shaking hands and talking with the president Col. Cureton admires him more than ever. He says the president asked him all about his friends in Pickens and Col. Cureton told him everybody in Pickens was for him except two, and they would be for him when they quit taking T. W.'s Jeffersonian.

Hon. Joe C. Alexander, of Oconee county, accompanied by his sons, James and Henry, and cousin, Henry, and a Mr. Meeks, of Pelzer, passed through the city in an auto Sunday morning enroute to Peter's Creek church. Mr. Alexander served as County Commissioner of this county for one or more terms in the eighties, afterwards moving to Oconee county. It has been several years since he was in Easley and expressed surprise at the growth and improvements in the city and county since he left.—Easley Progress.

Messrs. John A. Horton and Jesse Kay, of Belton, were in Pickens a short time Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Horton is a candidate for congress and has just returned from a visit to every county in this district. He says his candidacy is being received most encouragingly by the people everywhere, and that he is being assured of support in every section of the district and his chances of election look brighter than ever before. Those who keep posted on politics consider him the leading candidate in the race. He is the first candidate to announce his platform and it appears in this paper today.

Mr. Irvin Miller is out with a vigorous protest against the pouring out of whiskey in front of the county jail and we believe his protest is just. When whiskey is poured out at this spot it runs down the side of the road just past Mr. Miller's house and he says it places temptation in the way of those near by.
Besides this his chickens have learned a trick or two and when whiskey is poured out they make straight for the ditch and begin to get gay right away.
Mr. Miller says the last time whiskey was poured out every chicken he had became intoxicated and one died from the want of a drink the next morning.
He wants to train his chickens up in the way they should go, but is unable to do so as long as the county authorities persist in their present habits. He should get out an injunction.

It's just possible that a man can love his neighbor as he does himself, as the good book says he should; but he doesn't have to love his neighbor's chickens—at gardening time.

JUST RECEIVED!

Another Car of the Old Reliable Mitchell Wagons and a Car of Chase City Buggies.

These vehicles need no introduction to the people of Pickens County, as there are hundreds of them being used every day.

There are wagons you can buy for less money than you will pay for the Mitchell, but we can say without fear of contradiction that nowhere in the United States will you buy a wagon that will run lighter or wear longer than the Mitchell.

DON'T CONSIDER THE PRICE SO MUCH IN BUYING A WAGON, BUT BUY ONE THAT YOU ARE NOT AFRAID TO LOAD

If you are undecided as to which wagon to buy, just ask the man who owns a Mitchell, or ask your blacksmith; they will both tell you that repair bills are almost unknown to the Mitchell Wagon.

A full line of Chase City Buggies, any color, in both steel and rubber tires. All we ask is for you to look at the make-up and finish of a Chase City Buggy, and when you buy one you will be surprised at how light it runs and how long it will last.

Just give one of these well-known vehicles a trial and you will be convinced that you will get more for your money than any other wagon or buggy you could buy.

Yours truly,

FOLGER, THORNLEY & CO.

"Anxious Inquirer" asks where he can get a crate of cardamom seed. We don't know, Eddie, but you might query Editor Gary Hiott of the Pickens

A young gentleman who recetly moved from Easley to Pickens says he certainly does have hard luck in some ways, that when he lived in Easley he had to come to Pickens to see his girl and now when he has moved to Pickens he has to go to Easley to see her.
Seems to us he ought to consider himself lucky to have a girl like some girls we know.

We are indeed glad to report that Miss Mary Morris is on her way after an operation for appendicitis. About two weeks ago she went to an operation at the Sibley hospital in Washington and was able to leave that institution this week. Her sister Miss Inez is with her and they will visit their brother Edgar in Washington a week or two before returning home.
