How the Years Do Roll

Again we find ourselves in another canning season whether there is much to can or not. There are some things, however, that we will need for winter that can be saved. We are ready to supply you with Fruit Jars, Rings and Tops. We sell the tops for economy; jars also. Have you tried the White Crown Tops for Mason Jars? They are an improvement on the old way. Let us show you how they work. We also have Rings for White Crown Tops.

PLENTY OF JELLY GLASSES

Lunch Baskets for the children, and Hats, too, for the boys and girls. They have about worn their old ones out. Get them a new one before school begins.

Remember, we are in the market for butter all the time, regardless of the weather.

Come to see us and bring what you have to sell.

CRAIG BROS. COMPANY

A beauty specialist representing the United Drug Co., and demonstrating the Rexall Harmony perfumes and toilet articles will be in Pickens the week beginning September 18th. She will call at the homes by appointment and give free demonstrations of these goods, free massages, etc. Her headquarters will be at the Pickens Drug Co.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Louise Gravelly was guest of Miss Grace Porter in Pickens for the week-end.

Rev. H. K. Williams of Easley will preach at the Pickens Baptist church next Thursday night, August 31.

Married, by J. B. Newbery at his residence August 20, 1916, Miss Essie Duncan of Liberty and William Porter of Easley.

We have received two letters from Liberty route 3, but no name is signed to either. For this reason we cannot publish them.

Miss Sadie Ellis of Greenville, Miss Dora Smith of Anderson county and Miss Helen Martin of Jacksonville, Fla., are visiting the family of D. W. Hiott.

T. E. Craig of Central Route 2 was in Pickens on business Saturday. He was accompanied by three of his sons—all fine looking little fellows and future good citizens.

At the state checker meet at Chick Springs last Wednesday Dr. T. A. Seawright won five games and lost three, drawing several. He did not get in the finals, but made a good showing.

The Easley Mill band, which made music for the political rally held in Pickens last week, is one of the best bands in this section. They make good music and the crowd was well pleased with their selections.

Miss Myra Lou Cochran, of Calhoun, who has been visiting in Pickens did not go to Washington as was stated in last week's paper. Misses Elinor Knight and Meda Boggs went to Washington and spent several days there.

The protracted meeting which began at the Pickens Baptist church Sunday closed last Friday night. Ten members were added to the church and the baptizing will take place next Sunday afternoon at Holder's ford. Dr. Ramsay will preach here next Sunday.

Rev. Lucius B. Compton, of Asheville, N. C., a Baptist minister, will conduct a meeting under a large tent on the court house square, beginning at night the 8th of September. Prof. John A. Durham, the sweet evangelist singer of Westminster will have charge of the music. Everybody cordially invited.

There will be preaching services at Secona next Friday night, Saturday morning and night. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the ordinance of baptism will be administered to the recent converts. The pastor, Rev. A. E. Howard, will be assisted by Ben G. Field, one of our own Pickens county boys, during the services.

Infantile paralysis has been known to have been spread by dress goods sent out by mail order houses to different parts of the country. Some of the mail order houses have their dresses made by the poor people living in tenement districts of the large cities and the goods are infected there. The public is being warned of this danger for their protection.

For several years past the last Saturday in September has by many of our citizens been observed as Orphan's Work Day. The idea is to get men and women, boys and girls, to devote the earnings or the income of the day to the support of some orphanage. We understand that all institutions invite co-operation in this plan and that September 30th is the day agreed upon.

In speaking about the numerous laws inflicted upon the people we heard a fellow last week say that now a person had to get a certificate when he is born, get a certificate before he could be buried, get a license before he got married, get a license before he could go hunting and he wouldn't be surprised if by next year it wouldn't be necessary to get a license to send children to Sunday school.

Lloyd Jameson of Easley was killed in Toccoa, Ga., at 4.15 o'clock Saturday morning when he was hit by train No. 36. He was a flagman on the Southern railway. He was formerly employed at the depot at Easley and gave up his position there about two months ago to go on the road. Mr. Jameson was about twenty-one years old and the second son of Mrs. A. S. Jameson of Easley. Funeral services were held at the Jameson burying ground Sunday afternoon and conducted by Rev. Fulton Childress. A large crowd of sorrowing friends attended the services. The Sentinel joins with numerous other friends in extending genuine sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Reunion Rally Day

August 26, 1916, was a red letter day in the history of Reunion school district. A large crowd assembled at the handsome new school building to help make the educational rally day a perfect success. Among the many visitors whose presence lent pleasure and interest to the occasion were Mrs. M. F. Ansel of Greenville; Mrs. Ida Hollingsworth Smith of Easley; Mrs. Charlotte Clayton of Liberty; Mrs. Alston Boggs of Calhoun and Mrs. Elmira Stephens Boggs of Pickens.

At the dinner a table 4ft. by 36ft. was literally heaped with good things to eat, which abundantly satisfied "the inner man."

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Johnson Sheriff. T. A. Bowen, Clemson demonstration agent for Pickens county, made a few well chosen remarks. He was followed by W. H. Barton of the agricultural extension department of Clemson College. Mr. Barton's address was one of the best ever heard in this community. Not only the farmers in the audience, but also men and women of all professions listened with the keenest interest. Messrs. Lloyd H. Smith and H. H. Harris made splendid, forceful addresses along educational lines which will surely "bring forth good fruit in due season". Grace, simplicity and high artistic charm were added to the morning's program by the declamations of Messrs. Lyman and Jubal Williams, ex-Reunion students. The former gave Hugo's famous speech on "Peace," and the latter gave a prose selection followed by two poems, "Greed" and Charles Mackay's "Eternal Justice." Mr. Williams very modestly withheld the name of the author of "Greed." The honor is due him however, of letting it be known that he, himself, is the author.

During the afternoon the members of the "Girls Homekeepers' club" sold numbered tickets at five cents each. At the close of the sale, Mr. Frank H. Smith, of Easley, awarded a nicely dressed doll and a complete outfit of doll clothes to Mr. DeWitt Kilby, who had drawn the lucky number. The proceeds of the sale, $11.30, will be used for school improvement.

The program for the day closed with a fine, helpful address by Miss Gladys Smith, assistant State Agent in Home Demonstration work, followed by Miss Elizabeth Mauldin, Pickens county home demonstration agent, who gave a splendid demonstration of the fireless cooker and the iceless refrigerator.

School Opening

The next session of the Liberty high school will open on Wednesday, Sept. 6, at 9 o'clock. Following is a list of the faculty: Superintendent, Prof. B. C. Givens; eighth and ninth grades, Miss Frances Anderson of Greenwood; sixth and seventh grades, Miss Ruth Cox of Fountain Inn; fourth and fifth grades, Miss Lila Wilson of Laurens; second and third grades, Miss Corrie Howell of Greer; first grade, Miss Laurie Best of Allendale; Easley No. 2, Mrs. Adger Boggs; Easley No. 3, to be supplied.

School Rally

There will be a meeting of the patrons of the Liberty schools at the school auditorium next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. This will be in the nature of a get-together and efficiency conference, and there will be several bright speeches. Everybody interested in education is cordially invited. At the conclusion of the conference there will be an informal reception for the purpose of making the teachers and patrons better acquainted.

THE LAND OF BEGINNING AGAIN

BY LOUISA FLETCHER TARKINGTON

I wish that there were some wonderful place
Called the Land of Beginning Again,
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches
And all of our poor, selfish grief
Could be dropped, like a shabby old coat, at the door,
And never put on again.

I wish we could come on it all unaware,
Like the hunter who finds a lost trail;
And I wish that the one whom our blindness had done,
The greatest injustice of all
Could be at the gates, like an old friend that waits
For the comrade he's gladdest to hail.

We would find all the thing we intended to do
But forgot, and remembered too late,
Little praises unspoken, little promises broken,
And all the thousand and one
Little duties neglected that might have perfected
The day for one less fortunate.

It wouldn't be possible not to be kind
In the Land of Beginning Again;
And the ones we misjudged and the ones whom we grudged
Their moments of victory here
Would find in the grasp of our loving hand-clasp
More than penitent lips could explain.

For what had been hardest we'd know had been best,
And what had seemed lost would be gain;
For there isn't a sting that will not take wing
When we've faced it and laughed it away;
And I think that the laughter is most what we're after
In the Land of Beginning Again!

So I wish that that there were some wonderful place
Called the Land of Beginning again,
Where all our mistakes and all our heartaches
And all our poor, selfish grief
Could be dropped, like a shabby old coat, at the door,
And never put on again.

A REAL ESTATE BARGAIN!

In the Town of Pendleton, S. C.

About 75 acres, ten or twelve of which is high-class creek bottom in high state of cultivation. About 35 acres of upland now in good state of cultivation. All the upland dark red clay soil—the kind that never wears out.

Good eight-room dwelling with six fireplaces. Old-fashioned house, but in good repair. Two 3-room tenant houses, one new. Plenty of outbuildings, all in good repair.

Good pasture and plenty of water—two or three springs and creek.

The improvements on this farm alone would cost from $3,000 to $3,500 to build. About twenty-five acres in the corporate limits of Pendleton; half mile of depot; cotton mill and oil mill.

The city Public Schools are available to the owners of this place.

The Place Is Well Worth $75 an Acre, But Will Sell for $4,500 On Easy Payments.
