LOCAL AND PERSONAL

We call your attention to the special notice column this week.

J. P. Whitmire and little son, Roy, of route 5 were in town last Friday.

D. A. Herd of Liberty route 3 was at the county seat on business Tuesday.

S. E. Stewart, a good farmer of Central route 4, was in Pickens last Saturday.

If you wake up after 11 or 12 o'clock these nights in Pickens you find yourself in the dark.

A dispatch from Easley says that Ed P. McCravy may run for lieutenant governor in 1918.

Pickens merchants report the best business last Saturday that they have had in sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Garrett and little child of the Six Mile section, were in town shopping last Thursday.

We call your attention to the ad of Smith & Bristow, the up-to-the-minute clothing store of Greenville, in this issue.

The ginner's report for Pickens county shows that 5,665 bales of cotton have been ginned to October 18, 1916, against 4,801 bales to the same date last year.

More than $10,000 was paid out for cotton and cotton seed in Pickens Saturday. Bring your cotton to Pickens and get the highest market price for it.

The Southern Railway is offering very low round trip rates to Columbia and return account South Carolina State Fair (colored) October 30th, November 4th.

Miss Mattie Griffin of Pickens, who is teaching in the Hampton graded school, has been elected secretary of the Hampton county teachers' association.

Last Wednesday's Columbia State contained a picture of Colie Seaborn, the speedy lad from Pickens, who is playing great football with the Carolina eleven this year.

As a result of an eight day revival recently held at Pisgah Forest, a little town just across the North Carolina line, forty members were baptized and received into the Baptist church.

Miss Clara Smith, who has been stenographer for Carey & Carey for the past two years, has resigned and has accepted a position as stenographer for the claim agent of the Piedmont & Northern Railway company in Charlotte. Her many friends in Pickens regret to see her leave.

Mrs. A. M. Morris entertained the Entre Nous club last Wednesday afternoon. Delightful refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Cottage Prayer Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Childress Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All ladies are cordially invited to attend these meetings, especially mothers.

Alfred Hughes, of Laurens county, made a trip to Pickens last Friday, driving a wagon through from Ware Shoals. He brought a tomb stone which he placed at the grave of his father, the late Larkin Hughes.

At the state fair last week the Rhode Island Red chickens of E. H. Craig of Pickens took one first and one third prize. There were entries from every section of the state and this is an excellent showing for the Pickens county birds.

Joe H. Seaborn, a Pickens county boy and son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Seaborn, spent several days last week with his parents near Pickens. He is located in Cornelia, Ga., and is such a busy man that this was his first visit to his native county in two years. His many friends were glad to see him.

The badly mangled body of Sletas Bridges, an eighteen year old white youth, was found near the railway track just outside of Central Saturday night. The young man was not dead, but was too weak to tell how he got hurt. He was taken to the Greenville hospital, where he died from his injuries. It is supposed that he was struck by a passing train.

The street hands are making some much needed improvements on Anne street. A sidewalk is being made from Main Street down in front of The Sentinel office and the street is being widened and graded. This is one of the most needed and best pieces of work that has been done on the streets of Pickens in sometime and we hope to see the good work go on.

Mrs. Weldon Christopher and Miss Eva Christopher were hostesses last Friday afternoon when they delightfully entertained the "Tattlers" and the visitors in town. During the afternoon towels were hemmed and embroidered by those present and presented to the bride of the week—Miss Ella Hott. A salad course was served and much enjoyed by all.

Look Well! Feel Well!

A Hat to the Face is what a Frame is to a Picture—and there is no Question about it—a Hat is the Most Important Article of Woman's Dress.

In addition to your personal appearance, your personal "feelings" are made or marred by the hat you wear. Clothes—and especially hats—exert an influence for good or bad on the wearer.

We claim to be able to "prescribe," correctly and intelligently, and administer the "right" medicine in the matter of the hat you should have—and our "fee" is not exorbitant.

We carry one of the largest stocks of Millinery Goods in the State—from the Cheapest that's Good to the Best that's Made.

We have two head Trimmers and Designers, with a competent force of assistants and salesladies, to help you cheerfully, conscientiously and intelligently in selecting your hat.

Ours is the Only Store in Greenville devoted entirely to Millinery Goods.—Just Hats.—That's All.

Our Pattern Hats and Copies, which we are now offering for from $5.00 to $12.00, are especially attractive as well as Special Values. Our stock of Shapes and entire line throughout is large and splendid.

On December 5th at 4 o'clock we give away a Handsome Hundred Dollar Grafonola Outfit, One Seven-Dollar Doll and Three Five-Dollar Hats—FREE!

Hundreds of the Best Looking Hats you see at the Churches, on the Streets and elsewhere in this section are hats that came from
