—AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

With the coming of a New Year, comes a surge of thoughts overwhelming thoughts of the past and the future of failures, and achievements, of how to overcome errors, with thoughts of greater endeavor.

It is the human nature, on the birth of a New Year, to make resolutions, such is not our intention, of us turn our glance back to a brief time and view our actions of the past year, with a conscience that is tense toward no man let us overcome our errors of and strive for that which is noble.

able to do this we must hold toward none; petty grievances foreign to us; and in the Holy Writ we must love our neighbors as ourselves, and in out this command we are for you just as happy and is a New Year as we are for our selves.
