

THE NEWS AND HERALD,

WINNSBORO, S. C.

TUESDAY, September 4, 1852.

JOHN S. REYNOLDS,
CHAS. A. DOUGLASS,
EDITORS.

The Washington Post says: "Some of the Ohio Republican papers are fuling of 'an honest election and a fair count.' This is decidedly disrespectful to that citizen of Ohio who moved into the White House when President Grant vacated that mansion."

The Vicar of Stratford has signified his willingness to allow the remains of Shakespeare to be exhumed and examined. The object in thus disturbing them is to compare the skull of the poet with the busts and portraits of them. No practical good can result from such an investigation, and it ought to be sufficiently revolting to induce sensible men to desist.

The State Normal Institute at Columbia closed on Thursday last with appropriate ceremonies. Ringing addresses were made by Governor Thompson, Colonel Coward and President Shepherd. The Institute, upon a general survey of the work and progress of the session, was as successful, interesting and instructive as any ever held in this State. It is true the attendance of teachers was not quite so large as last year, but the enthusiasm of those who attended, together with the general interest of the public, should be a source of gratification and pride not only to the professors having it in charge, but to the friends of education throughout the State.

JUSTICE TO RANDALL.

The Winnsboro News and Herald, of last week says:

"The Orangeburg Times and Democrat is full of Randall these days."

Our esteemed contemporary will be surprised to learn, no doubt, that we have no apologies to make for being what it is pleased to term "full of Randall." Mr. Randall, as we have said before, is not our special favorite for the Speakership, any more than any other Democrat; but, as a true and tried Democrat, we do think he is entitled to fair play at the hands of the organs of his party, and so far as this journal is concerned, he shall have it. —Orangeburg Times and Democrat.

We didn't expect any apologies from our contemporary for its advocacy of Mr. Randall for the Speakership, nor have we ever thought its position one to be ashamed of. On the contrary we admire the firmness and courage it must have to battle so fiercely and boldly against the current of political sentiment in South Carolina. That the people of the State are opposed to the election of Mr. Randall, and that the majority of our delegates to the House are in accord with that sentiment, there can be little or no room to question. But, with all who denounce Mr. Randall all "fair play"? Pray what does our friend and contemporary esteem "fair play"? If it is to be again and again elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, whether the political tenets of the party of his adherence are in sympathy with him or no, then we confess that we are not for that kind of "fair play". But if it is to allow him the untrammeled right to scheme, electorner, and by his political sagacity, secure votes within the ranks of the party, we heartily accord it as simple justice to the brilliant and aspiring candidate. Granting this much to Randall and his friends, we certainly can claim upon the other hand the legitimate right to criticise his record, show up the bad policy of his election, and with all the vehemence, vigor and ability we can call to our command, advance, as we believe, the superior claims of other and worthier Democrats. This is all the press of the State has done or attempted to do, and if Mr. Randall and his prospects suffer by the discussion, it is his misfortune, certainly not the fault of those who favor tariff reform. In a nutshell, we advocate fighting the campaign of '51 upon the tariff issue mainly. The first gun of the conflict will be fired at the election of Speaker, and Mr. Randall is not the man to lead the party in such an emergency. The developments of the next year will attest the wisdom or folly of our utterances. Wait and see!

HO! FOR THE NORTH POLE.—Lieutenant Greeley, who, with his party, prepared to work their way from Smith's Sound to the North Pole, has not been heard of for two years. An expedition was sent to his relief last year, but failed to reach him. Two vessels, the "Prætor" and the "Yankee," are now on their way to relieve Lieutenant Greeley and his party. Even if he cannot be reached, provisions can be left at a place he can fall back upon if he should wish to do so. He is so well cared for in the way of supplies that he can live several years without hearing from home. Though beaten thus far, the human race will never give up the effort to solve the problem of the Pole. Sometime or later we will know all about the planet we inhabit. —Demorest's Monthly.

Prætors Heard by the Wayside and in the Bush Marts of Trade.

Messrs. Benson & Co., of Hartwell, Ga., merchants, in conversation with the popular singer, Mr. G. W. Smith, of the well known house of Col. Hill & Co., Atlanta, Ga., said that Nomans N-nitration Company was an excellent medicine and is giving satisfaction wherever used. They sell it at great deal of it.

A Watch Co. told me that the Rockford, Ill. Watch Co. told of one of our customers that he heard Nomans N-nitration Company highly spoken of by a number of men, who recomended it to all who so duties called them to different parts of the country where they are subject to disorders of the stomach produced by changes of food and water of which this medicine is a specific counteractive.

Now is the time to subscribe to THE NEWS AND HERALD.

GENERAL HOOD'S CHILDREN.—Mr. Russell, a wealthy Mississippi planter, who is at the Rockbridge Alum Springs with his wife, has with him also an adopted child, twelve years old, who is the son of the late Gen. John B. Hood. Of the Hood children the two eldest daughters were taken by Mr. Maury, a relative of Mrs. Hood, and are now being educated in Germany with his daughters. John B. Hood Jr., the elder boy, is the one adopted into the family of Mr. Russell. A pair of twin girls are the adopted children of Mr. Adams, of New York; another pair of twin girls are in the family of Mr. McKee, of Mississippi; another boy, Duncan by name, is the adopted child of a wealthy maiden lady of New York, and another, Oswald, is in the family of another New Yorker, residing near the Empire City. Thus have the fatherless become fathers. A singular coincidence is related in connection with three of the gentlemen who have thus taken the place of the father of these interesting children, Messrs. Russell, Adams and McKee were classmates at Yale College. They are all married, but neither has children. Without concert of action, or even knowing what the others were about to do, each applied for and was given the charge he now has.

AS WHEN SHE WAS YOUNG.

"I have used Parker's Hair Balsam and like it infinitely better than any preparation I know of," writes Miss Eliza of Rev. P. Ferry, of Coldbrook Springs, Mass. "My hair was almost entirely gray, but a dollar bottle of the Balsam has restored its color, and the brown color it had when I was young is shown in my hair left. Since I began applying the Balsam my hair has stopped falling out, and I find that it is a perfectly harmless and agreeable dressing."

ORANGES AND FLORIDA.

Better than Blossoms—Under a New Plan.

Even the hot air and orange groves of Florida fail to keep its people fit for business and comfort. The climate is not the pines of the North. "And chief among the blessings which are allotted to all souls," writes Dr. J. G. Whipple, of East Dade, Fla., "is the orange, which seems to have the world in a field, and the yield of the current oranges yield to the nation."

We have used it in the case of a delicate and dyspeptic young lady, with the most striking results. It seemed to strengthen and invigorate all the vital powers and tend to that most delightful and healthy to bring about. I am glad to state that the Tonic has greatly relieved me personally of a troublesome complaint of the stomach of long standing. It is a decided tonic and invigorant.

Most physicians who are well-versed in the practice of their art, and who have the name and style of "Tonic," will hereafter be simply "Tonic's Tonic." The word "Tonic" is dropped, for the reason that unprincipled dealers are constantly introducing new and various concocted preparations under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic." The word "Tonic" is dropped, for the reason that unprincipled dealers are constantly introducing new and various concocted preparations under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation to the fact that they are not fit to be sold under the name of "Tonic."

They are sold under the name of "Tonic,"

which are a curse to all, especially in relation