

LOCAL:

Mr. H. Templeton is authorized to take subscriptions for the Advertiser.

Mr. Samuel Barnett, of Georgia, is visiting relatives in the city.

Col. F. A. Connor, of Cokesbury, was here last week.

The next event—Mrs. Tom Thumb on the 13th.

Earn Christmas money by getting new subscribers for the Advertiser.

Treasurer Mock is still on his rounds and will be for a week longer.

Mr. Matt Nash, of Greenville county, lost his barn and stables by fire.

Mr. Joe Burten lost a cabin on his Newberry place worth $125 by an accidental fire last week.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the light of the morning.

Charlie Burnside has about recovered from his broken leg and will be able to return to college this week.

Look out for Dr. E. M. Calne's Real Estate, Stock and Brokerage advertisement this week.

An active canvasser for the Advertiser is wanted at every post office in the county.

To the Farmers—I have plenty of room in my warehouse for the storage of your cotton.

The protracted meeting at Presbyterian Church closed Sunday night.

Going to the State Fair, without special trains and with the present schedules is the question for most people.

Mr. Wm. Shockley brought us six potatoes; i. e. he brought us a peck of potatoes.

On last Tuesday Dr. T. E. Todd, Agent Security Fire Insurance Co., of New Haven, paid Mr. G. B. Anderson $200.00.

Miss Emma E. Medlock, of Brewster, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Medlock, and Mr. T. M. Pickens, of Greenville, were married at the home of the bride last Wednesday.

Mr. Richard Ray died at Clinton Friday. Mr. Ray was a progressive merchant and a man of worth and integrity.

Bethel A. M. E. Church. The corner stone of the new Bethel A. M. E. Church was laid by the colored masons last Thursday.

The ceremonies were interesting and impressive and the musical program was well executed.

A collection was taken up to assist in the completion of the church and about twenty-eight dollars were contributed.

Yesterday Mr. J. R. Minter, formerly of Laurens, but now engaged in the furniture business here, brought home his beautiful bride, Miss Maggie Murchison, formerly of Corcoran.

Alliance Notice. A special meeting of Power Alliance No. 151 will be held on the 21st inst.

Notice to Hunters. All persons are forbidden hunting on the premises of the undersigned within the corporate limits of the city.

Urgent! Gov. Tillman has called a meeting of citizens to convene at Columbia on Thursday evening to consider what action South Carolina should take with regard to the World's Fair.

Mayor Dial to Go to Columbia. Mayor N. B. Dial has become a member of the firm of Haskell, Verner & Dial at Columbia and will change his residence to Columbia.

Long Branch. Frogs and Spring Lizards From Long Branch by Stocum Gibson.

Everybody seems to be busy gathering the fleecy staple this fine weather, and we ask why it is that it takes as long to gather a half crop as it does to gather a full crop.

A certain man in our section wants to hire some one to entertain life insurance agents, as they are so plentiful it takes up all his time to talk to them.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

Mr. J. W. Yates, Tullahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an abscess on the lungs and asthma that troubled me two years and that other remedies failed to benefit."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

About the Schedule.

The new schedule is unsatisfactory. The Advertiser was anxious for a through train between Greenville and Columbia via Laurens. We have it and it is a great convenience.

Of course it is a miserable arrangement by which we can only arrive at Columbia at the unseasonable hour of 9.45 at night and be compelled to spend a night before getting away.

It must be a source of satisfaction to the Herald to have the Register early, if not the State, and the Advertiser glad to get both as fresh from the press as possible.

Mr. Thomas Babb died at Babtown Sunday of paralysis. He was about fifty years of age.

Mr. Elijah Lanford, an aged citizen of Woodruff, brother of Mr. Jno. Lanford, Sr., of this county, died Sunday.

Mr. Foster Chapman died near Charleston Monday, aged about 24.

Miss Sallie Parker, daughter of Mr. Abram Parker, of Goodgion died Saturday.

Mr. Richard Ray died at Clinton Friday. Mr. Ray was a progressive merchant and a man of worth and integrity.

Bethel A. M. E. Church. The corner stone of the new Bethel A. M. E. Church was laid by the colored masons last Thursday.

The ceremonies were interesting and impressive and the musical program was well executed.

A collection was taken up to assist in the completion of the church and about twenty-eight dollars were contributed.

Yesterday Mr. J. R. Minter, formerly of Laurens, but now engaged in the furniture business here, brought home his beautiful bride, Miss Maggie Murchison, formerly of Corcoran.

Alliance Notice. A special meeting of Power Alliance No. 151 will be held on the 21st inst.

Notice to Hunters. All persons are forbidden hunting on the premises of the undersigned within the corporate limits of the city.

Urgent! Gov. Tillman has called a meeting of citizens to convene at Columbia on Thursday evening to consider what action South Carolina should take with regard to the World's Fair.

Mayor Dial to Go to Columbia. Mayor N. B. Dial has become a member of the firm of Haskell, Verner & Dial at Columbia and will change his residence to Columbia.

Long Branch. Frogs and Spring Lizards From Long Branch by Stocum Gibson.

Everybody seems to be busy gathering the fleecy staple this fine weather, and we ask why it is that it takes as long to gather a half crop as it does to gather a full crop.

A certain man in our section wants to hire some one to entertain life insurance agents, as they are so plentiful it takes up all his time to talk to them.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

Mr. J. W. Yates, Tullahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an abscess on the lungs and asthma that troubled me two years and that other remedies failed to benefit."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Eden.

Seeing no locals in your newsy columns from this point, I have concluded occasionally to give you some "dots."

Eden Post Office is about thirteen miles north west of Laurens in Dials Township.

The farmers are pretty well up with their cotton; the crop is not more than two-thirds.

Mr. Long, the section master who had his leg broken some time ago by jumping from his car to escape an incoming train, has sufficiently recovered to take his place on the road again.

Johnnie Epton, who was seriously hurt some few days ago by having his head caught between the frame and beam of a cane mill, is improving and we hope will soon be about again.

Boyce Senn, who shot himself a week ago from some unknown cause, is also improving, and will soon be out again.

Sam Cheek, colored had a child very badly burned a few days ago, and it died the same evening.

Mrs. R. P. Milam brought off the baby carriage from the Woodruff Fair for the prettiest and best behaved baby.

Misses Alma and Etella Lanford and Misses Lillie Parson and Lola Johnson have returned from Limestone Institute.

R. P. Milam has lumber ready for building a house for his father who will soon be a citizen of our place.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss Lucas County, Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of catarrh that can't be cured by the use of Dr. J. C. Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Lanford Dots.

Our school will open on Monday the 9th inst. under the supervision of Mrs. Bryson, who is an experienced teacher.

The farmers are pretty well up with their cotton; the crop is not more than two-thirds.

Mr. Long, the section master who had his leg broken some time ago by jumping from his car to escape an incoming train, has sufficiently recovered to take his place on the road again.

Johnnie Epton, who was seriously hurt some few days ago by having his head caught between the frame and beam of a cane mill, is improving and we hope will soon be about again.

Boyce Senn, who shot himself a week ago from some unknown cause, is also improving, and will soon be out again.

Sam Cheek, colored had a child very badly burned a few days ago, and it died the same evening.

Mrs. R. P. Milam brought off the baby carriage from the Woodruff Fair for the prettiest and best behaved baby.

Misses Alma and Etella Lanford and Misses Lillie Parson and Lola Johnson have returned from Limestone Institute.

R. P. Milam has lumber ready for building a house for his father who will soon be a citizen of our place.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss Lucas County, Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, county and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every case of catarrh that can't be cured by the use of Dr. J. C. Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble."

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all the medical treatment