At The Dreamland.

At the request of many of those who witnessed the magnificent moving picture, "The Fall of Troy" at the Dreamland, Manager Grant has suggested this picture for a return engagement. The exact date has not yet been selected but in all probability will be some time next week. Mr. Grant has been giving the people of Laurens some of the finest pictures on the road lately and he is continuing to secure the very best. The 5000 foot reel "The Life of Moses" shown last night was extremely fine.

FREE MAIL DELIVERY AT AN EARLY DATE

Congressman Johnson on the Job and is Making Things Hum for Delivery.

From present indications it seems that the free delivery of mail for Laurens is only a matter of time. Congressman Jos. T. Johnson, who was in Spartanburg a few days ago, in conversation with a well known citizen of Laurens, stated that he had been to the Post Office Department and made urgent demands that an inspector be sent down to look over the situation and to see if all the requirements had been met with. As it is fairly certain that all requirements have been met with, it can be confidently stated that the delivery will be installed at an early date. In connection with what he said at the time, Congressman Johnson stated that inspectors had been sent to Laurens on three different occasions to look over the ground and as the street signs had not been erected and house numbers put up, an adverse report was put in. Of course, this resulted in no free delivery. But as the city council has awakened to the needs of the city and done away with this obstacle to progress, nothing is left to be done to gain the coveted service.

A number of letters have been sent to Congressman Johnson about the service and the following answer was received to one of them:

"My dear Sir:
I have your favor requesting my efforts in behalf of Laurens with respect to the early installation of free delivery. I had a letter from Dr. H. K. Aiken last week on the same subject. I immediately took the matter up with the proper authorities at the Post office Department. I have the assurance of the Superintendent of Free that they have at last taken the necessary attention. I again called his attention to it today, and he assured me that we would not be delayed. I am especially interested in the installation of the service on account of my long association and friendship for the people of Laurens, as well as because it is my official duty to help them. As soon as your postal revenues reached the stage that rendered city delivery possible, I urged the city authorities to number the houses and post the streets, as I knew the service would not be installed until those requirements were met. I am glad that they have at last taken the necessary steps in that direction.

"I am,
Very sincerely yours,
Jos. T. Johnson."

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN TOWN OF CLINTON.

Mrs. Copeland's and Miss Ola Young's classes had on white dresses with pink ribbons. Their song was a treat to hear also.

So likewise were the speeches. An interesting feature of the occasion was the presentation of Bibles to four children for having memorized the shorter catechism and of testaments to nine others for having recited the child's catechism. Some of these tots were barely seven years old and their achievement speaks well indeed for their home training.

Memorial Day Exercises.

In spite of the very disagreeable weather Memorial Day was a great success. The dinner was the best yet; the children's parade with wreaths was most lovely; the exercises were very impressive.

The monument was beautiful, decorated by Mrs. W. M. McCaslan early in the morning with ivy garlands, and around it the crowd gathered to begin the exercises which were concluded at the cemetery.

Amateur Play to be Given.

A play entitled "Her Friend the Enemy" is being prepared for presentation at an early date, by local talent. The scenes are laid, first in New Hampshire and then in Richmond Virginia. The time is during the War Between the States. The plot is one of absorbing interest and the characters are very taking. Those engaged in it are Misses Tallulah Neville, Laura Aull, Janie Kennedy, Jessie May Mahaffey, Sara Copeland and Fronde Kennedy, and Messrs. D. W. Neville, Hugh Simpson, Carson, Carl Barksdale, R. A. McLees, Parks Adair, John Spratt.

The proceeds will be presented to the Stephen D. Lee chapter, U. D. C.

for the monument fund. Association of Colleges.

The meeting of the Association of Colleges with the Presbyterian College last Thursday and Friday brought a gathering of highly cultured and most cordially welcome visitors to Clinton. Every college for men in the state was represented by a strong professor and several by two.

In the election of officers Prof. A. E. Spencer was made vice president. The Rev. Dr. Bean of the Presbyterian College read a scholarly paper on "The Place of the Study of Philosophy in the College Course."

Luncheon for Prospective Bride.

On Saturday Mrs. A. V. Martin entertained at a luncheon in honor of Miss Katharine Bean, whose wedding to Mr. Bothwell Graham will be solemnized June 14th. The guests included a dozen very intimate friends, the bridesmaids or their representatives. The colors to be used later in the wedding, white and gold, were used, and every detail of the elaborate affair was beautifully carried out.

We have some splendid values in rugs to show you, they are money savers.

BLEASE REFUSES TO PARDON W. T. JONES

Bare Chance of New Trial Union Man's Only Hope—Convicted of Wife Murder.

Columbia, May 11.—W. T. Jones, the wealthy Union County farmer, who is under life sentence for the murder of his wife, has been denied a pardon by Governor Blease. Barring the meagre possibility of a reversal of the Circuit Judge in the appeal now before the Supreme Court for a new trial, and the possibility of future Executive clemency, the noted prisoner will have to come to the State Penitentiary soon and commence the serving of the long sentence.

Governor Blease has written the following across the back of the petition for pardon:

"In view of the statement and recommendation made by the Hon. T. S. Sene, then solicitor, and now Judge of the 7th judicial circuit, who prosecuted the case against the petitioner for pardon; of the history of the case given by the Hon. R. W. Meminger, presiding Judge at the trial at which the petitioner or applicant was convicted, and also of the present status of the case, I am constrained to deny this application for pardon, and the same is, therefore, hereby denied.

Cole L. Blease, Governor.
