

TYLESVILLE DOTS.

Tylesville.—The farmers of this section are busy with their crops after having so much rain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Donnan and children spent the week end with relatives in Clinton and on Pea Ridge.

Misses Grace and Fannie Poole and Foster Cromer spent last Thursday in Columbia with Mr. Furman Poole who is in the city hospital. He is improving rapidly and expects to return home soon. This will be delightful news to his many friends and relatives.

Miss Nannie Clark and brother Niles spent Friday in Laurens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cooper spent Sunday with relatives near Cross Anchor.

Miss Hallie Wright has returned home from a visit to relatives in Newberry.

Mr. W. C. Winters attended the funeral services of Mr. Bob Hudgens at Chestnut Ridge cemetery Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Poole and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Clardy.

Misses Ella and Lillie Peterson were in Laurens last Thursday.

Miss Mattie Clark and son, Floyd, spent Sunday with Mr. Pinkney Blakley who is quite sick on Pea Ridge.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Sulphur Springs.—We still continue to have refreshing showers. Friday afternoon we had a very hard rain which washed the land very badly in places.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Hellams and children were the guests of Mrs. Hellams' mother, Mrs. G. W. L. Teague, from Saturday until Sunday.

Miss Mary Smith and a number of her friends enjoyed an evening picnic last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shell Benjiman and little Margaret visited Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Teague Saturday night.

What came very near being a serious accident happened Saturday evening as Mrs. E. L. Saxon and grandson William McPherson, were returning from Waterloo. The mule they were driving became frightened, overturning the buggy and throwing them out. Mrs. Saxon was caught under the buggy and dragged for some distance. Dr. Fennel was hastily summoned and found Mrs. Saxon badly bruised about the arms and left shoulder, but luckily no bones were broken. She was tenderly cared for at the home of Mr. Henry Wharton until able to ride home. William received some bruises but not serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Elmore and Messers Munday and Templeton entertained a few of their friends with selections on the violin Saturday night at the home of Mr. Wm. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris Wharton were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Teague Sunday evening.

Mr. Frank McPherson, of Georgia, is with his mother after an absence of several months.

The Misses Wallace, of Belfast, is the guest of their sister, Mrs. John Harris Wharton.

Mrs. Pearl Stuart and little ones visited her friends Mr. and Mrs. John Cannon before leaving for their new home in Greenville.

Messers Frank and Cleveland McPherson were the guests in Laurens Saturday night of their sister, Mrs. Dan. Covington.

Miss Minnie Teague entertained a number of her young friends at a card party last Friday night at her home.

Master Robert McPherson has been quite sick for the past week.

We are indebted to little Sarah McPherson for some of the finest peaches we have ever seen.
