LAURENS, SOUTH CAROLINA

CROSS HILL NEWS

Cross Hill, March 10.—The people of South Carolina had just as well study the question of compulsory education so as to have an intelligent opinion on the subject. It will certainly be a live question from now on till it is settled and settled right. Prof. Clinkscales' announcement concerning the question is interesting, and the discussion of the subject by Hon. John L. McLaurin and the Editor of The State in The State of Feb. 27, and March 1st, was worth the careful study of all our people. Mr. McLaurin's reference to the "Barons of Runnymede" and to other points in history of this and other countries put some of us to studying sure enough. While we agree with the editor so far, we certainly enjoy the discussion by men who can express their opinion without descending to the level of the demagogue.

Quite a number of persons from here attended the funeral of Mr. J. A. Whiteford at Bethabara last Friday.

Mrs. Johnson, nee Miss Rhodona Owens, of North, S. C., visited her people here the past week.

The entertainment and box party at the school building last Thursday evening was enjoyed by a good crowd. The exercises by the children were good and the "old lady" who sold the boxes managed to make the bidding lively and the receipts were satisfactory. Some one thought the "old lady" looked as if she could cook as well as sell good things to eat.

Misses Verna and Mary Calhoun of Greenwood county were Cross Hill visitors last Friday and Saturday.

Dr. T. J. Peak has decided to move to Clinton. He is having his goods put in a car today. Many people regret to see the doctor leave. He will be missed in town and country.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Gregory and little son, of Alabama is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gregory, his mother, sister-in-law and son, Ernest Pinson from New Brooklyn are also here.

Mr. W. H. L. Wade has returned from Atlanta where he purchased two fine horses, making the trip on horseback.

Miss Jennie B. Wade who is teaching school near Greenwood, spent the week-end with her parents here.

DIALS.

Dials, March 10.—The Sunday school at this place is steadily growing. The button system has been introduced and with a Wesley adult class for young men a long felt want has been supplied. The school is indebted to that faithful official, Mr. W. C. Curry, for much of its success.

Miss Lucy Childress returned to her home in Laurens Sunday, after a short visit with her sister. Miss Emma Harris, has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Greenville.

Messers Bascom Brownlee, and Zealous Knight of Warrior were the week end guest of Mr. Joe Brownlee. Miss Ruth Curry, had as her guest Miss Nell McCall Sunday.

Messers Brodus and Earl Gray, were business visitors in Greenville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owings and children, of Fountain Inn, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris were the guest of Mr. H. Y. Simmons and family Sunday.

Miss Nita Hunter of Chicor and two of her school mates spent few days with her parents last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bolt, and children of Hendersonville, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. R. Brownlee and family.

Miss Nash of Fountain Inn, was the week end guest of her sister Mrs. Robert Gray.

Mr. C. F. Brooks returned to Laurens Sunday after spending the night with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holder returned home Sunday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Burdette of Enoree.

Only Unwise People Tolerate CATARRH

Here is a sure way to get rid of Catarrh; sawking, snuffing, and all misery caused by the Catarrh germs. Get a HYOMEI outfit today, follow the instructions and breathe five times a day deep into your lungs the germ killing air through the little inhaler. At night just before going to bed use the vapor treatment as directed. This treatment is prescribed by the best Catarrh Specialists in America and Europe to destroy Catarrh germs. Booth's HYOMEI is Australian Eucalyptus and other splendid antiseptics. A complete outfit which includes inhaler is -1.00; separate bottles, if the first does not entirely cure, can be obtained for 50 cents, and money back from Laurens Drug Co. if you are dissatisfied. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.

"UNCLE BILLY" HILL.

Many Confederate soldiers and Confederate women have died within the last twelve months. Among the latest is Comrade William R. Hill, "Uncle Billy". A survivor (I believe the last Laurens survivor) of the famous Me-Beth Artillery, a company that was raised in Union county and led to Virginia by Capt. Boyce.

There was a number of Laurens men in this company, amongst them: A. B. Boyd, Robt B. King David Hellams, Andrew Eichelberger and perhaps others. Uncle Billy Hill was a brave soldier, a true and loyal citizen, a man upon whom you might rely in peace and in war. He was one of four brothers who served in the great war between the sections, one of them, Nicholas, was killed at Gettysburg.

Comrade Hill died at his home in the Fork section of Waterloo township on the 6th day of March at the age of 77 years, leaving surviving, a devoted wife and several children and loved and respected by all his neighbors. His body was laid to rest at Bethlehem on the 8th with suitable ceremonies. One by one the few survivors of the grand army of the Confederacy are falling out of the ranks. A lessening line each lessening year. Each lessening year more dear." Comrade.

BY THIS SYSTEM each individual is placed on record, showing how many places they secure credit and with what degree of promptness they pay their bills. The book will show, not the financial standing, but the CREDIT STANDING, of everybody, man or woman, who trades on time, and as it is not a financial rating the poor man who pays his bills promptly will secure a higher rating than the man of means who does not.
