BETHANY NEWS.

Bethany, July 21.—Mrs. M. L. Cooper, who has been very sick, is able to sit up some now. The protracted meeting began at Belle View Sunday and among those who attended from this section are as follows: Cynthia, Floyde, Dora and Rex Cooper, Ethel and Annie Roberts, Lola Bragg, Earle Cooper and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Thackston. A nice shower fell here Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Putnam visited his father, of Warrior Creek settlement, recently. Miss Lola Bragg is spending the week with her grandfather, Mr. T. L. Bragg. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bragg, a son. Y. M. C. U. Social of Trinity-Ridge. A very delightful reception was given to the recently organized Young Men's Christian Union of the Trinity-Ridge community by Mrs. J. D. W. Watts on Saturday afternoon, the 19th. The young people were received by Mrs. Marion Caine, Mrs. Watts being unwell. A very interesting contest had been arranged by the chairman of the Social Committee of the union. The questions were all to be answered from a penny. It was quite an unique and interesting contest. Mr. Fowler Boyd, of Fountain Inn, who was a visitor at the home of Mr. R. D. Boyd, and Miss Nell Wham won the prize, having missed only one question. After quite a pleasant time spent in the contest, listening to some very ably rendered music, and a great portion of pleasant conversation, Miss Helen and Mell George, the attractive little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. George, assisted Mrs. Marion Caine and Mrs. James Martin in serving a delicious course of refreshments. Those enjoying the occasion were: Misses Eva and Maude Langston, Nettie and Georgia Medlock, Pearl and Ivy Boyd, Mary Barksdale, Minnie Irvin, Mattie Kate Owings, Nannie Mae Williams, Nell Wham; Messrs J. C. and Clyde Barksdale, Herman, Marcus and Claude Boyd and Fowler Boyd, of Fountain Inn, Alvis Richardson, of Simpsonville, Anthony Fuller, Carroll Smith, Douglas Barnett and J. W. Watts. Threw Wooden Shoes at Bride. In the shower of missiles hurled after the wedded pair something struck the settlement worker with stinging force. "What on earth!" she exclaimed; then quickly added: "A wooden shoe! Who ever heard of throwing a wooden shoe at a bride?" "Most everybody who has attended weddings in this part of town has heard of it," said the officiating curate. "It is the custom here to throw wooden shoes because at some time in her life nearly every bride has worn a pair. For the present generation they were not her Sunday shoes, nor her evening dress shoes, nor even her everyday street shoes, but around the house and maybe to the nearby shops in rainy weather she has clattered around often enough in wooden shoes to justify having a pair thrown at her for old time's sake."—Boston Herald.

Card of Thanks. I wish to take this means of expressing my appreciation of the work of the fire department last Monday night, when my barn was burned. I attribute to them the credit for preventing further losses and I thank them, and the neighbors who helped, for their valient work. Respectfully, C. D. Moseley.

REFeree's NOTICE. State of South Carolina, County of Laurens. COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, Plaintiff, against Defendants, G. Wash Hunter, et al. Pursuant to order of the Court of Common Pleas for Laurens County, South Carolina, in the above stated cause, directing me to call in creditors to take proof of their claims and ascertain the amounts due the said creditors, a reference will be held at the office of Simpson, Cooper & Babb, at Laurens, S. C., on the 18th day of Aug. 1913, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and all creditors of the said G. Wash Hunter are notified to appear before me to establish their claims on said date, or be forever barred. R. F. Babb, Special Referee.

A REAL GRIEF

Wife—It makes me so mad. Just think, I got caught in all that rain. Hubby—Afraid you caught death o' cold, eh? Wife—No; but I was carrying my new pink parasol.

THE DIFFERENCE

She—He's getting deaf, isn't he? He—No; he's only practicing to say "Beg pardon" instead of "What's that?"

LABOR SAVING

Weary Raggles—Say, pard, why do you smoke such a short-stemmed pipe? Tatterden Torne—I will tell you, Raggles. The shorter the stem the less distance through which to draw the smoke.

SURE THING

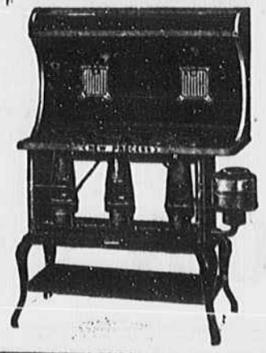

Blinks (at the banquet)—Why don't you listen to Boogem's address? Jinks—Nix. I'd rather read it in the morning after the reporters have put it into shape.

MUST BE

She—I wonder what there is about the seashore that makes one so sentimental? He—The bathing girls, I guess.

USE A Perfection Oil Stove No Heat, No Odor, No Smoke. Cheaper Than Wood.

Here is a Blue Flame Wick Oil Stove that you are sure to like. Our line is very complete and prices very low. Don't delay a single day, but come at once and pick out the stove you want and get the benefit of it during this hot weather.
