piano and violin selections together with several vocal numbers by a local male quartett. A special feature of the occasion will be a piano solo by a visiting lady from Florida who is 84 years of age. This itself will be worth the price of admission. After delightfully feasting to the full on the good things musical, another feast of refreshing ice cream and cake will be served. Everybody is invited and promised a good and profitable time.

Children's Day which was observed Sunday at Bethabara church was a very pleasant occasion. A splendid program of appropriate exercises was rendered by the children and young people, trained and directed by Miss Eloise Brown and others. An address by Rev. W. P. Turner was timely and inspiring. Dinner was served on the grounds in great abundance. The exercises were attended by an overflowing house and everything was enjoyed and conducted in the best of order. Supt. R. S. Griffin was master of ceremonies. The people of Bethabara, who are noted for their hospitality, deserve much credit for the day's enjoyment.

PATTERSON REUNION.

The third reunion of the Patterson family was held August the 19th. Owing to inclement weather we could not meet at the usual place, the Robin Patterson spring, but Mr. W. D. Patterson kindly opened the doors of his home and welcomed each and every one who came. Despite lowering clouds and muddy roads seventy-four members and friends of the family were in attendance.

The program for the day was abbreviated to a certain extent by the non-attendance of some participants. We were called to order by our chairman Mr. J. Lee Langston and all joined in singing "Rock of Ages", after which we were led in prayer by Rev. J. K. Holman. Rev. W. M. Owings made a short but very appropriate talk.

The minutes of last meeting were read and the roll called. Sixty members were present. Nine new members have been enrolled the past year—three by marriage and six by birth.

An excellent paper on "The Changes since our Grandfather's Day" was read by Mrs. M. G. Patterson. A double reading "Every Year", was given by Mrs. J. Ben Hunter and Miss Grace DeShields. Our little song birds, Kathleen and Martha Patterson again delighted us with their sweet voices in "Sweet and Low" and "May-Time". Miss Loma Poole in a charming way recited "That Hired Girl". Resolutions on the death of Mrs. Mary Langston Dobbins, the only member of the family who has passed away since our last reunion, were read by Mrs. J. M. DeShields.

"Will There be Any Stars in My Crown," was then sung.

The entire program was well rendered and Mrs. M. G. Patterson, chairman of the program committee has the thanks of the family for her efforts in getting up the program as was shown by her re-appointment on said committee with Miss Louise Patterson and Baxter DeShields as assistants.

Chairman Langston and the secretary also were re-appointed.

It is needless to speak of the dinner as all who have ever attended one of our gatherings know how the dinner hour is enjoyed. The closing exercises were an earnest prayer by Mr. W. P. Patterson, the head of the family. The next meeting will be Thursday before the fourth Sunday in August, 1916, at 10 o'clock.

Pleasant Liv-Ver-Lax.

Physicians generally agree that the nauseating, unpleasant effects of calomel are due to the undesirably violent action it has on the system. For a long while various substitutes have been tried, but it was only recently that the really wonderful remedy, LIV-VER-LAX was prepared successfully by L. K. Grisby.

LIV-VER-LAX has all the good, and none of the bad effects of calomel. It is a necessity in every home, always being ready to cleanse the sluggish liver and bile clogged system, with no unpleasant after effects.

LIV-VER-LAX is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money will be immediately refunded. Insist on the original bearing the likeness of L. K. Grisby at Laurens Drug Co.

THE WHITE SISTER IS MASTERPIECE IN PHOTOGRAPHIC ART

Famous Actress Immortalizes in Film Greatest Work From the Pen of the Renowned Author, F. Marion Crawford.

Viola Allen has immortalized "The White Sister" in film. This masterpiece of the late F. Marion Crawford, one of the world's foremost authors, is now ready to be presented to the public in the greatest photoplay ever produced. This picture will be shown at The Idle Hour on Monday, August 30th.

The genius of this famous actress has been the means of bringing out all the intense dramatic action, all the delicate touches of pathos, all the lights and shadows of Mr. Crawford's greatest work, with unsurpassed excellence. Essanay has spared no expense in the making of the most elaborate settings to fulfill the multifarious scenic conditions of the play, with the result that "The White Sister" is as perfect a photoplay in every respect as it is possible to construct.

Although this is Miss Allen's first appearance in photoplay, her wide experience on the stage, her great talent, and the fact that she has the type of beauty that photographs exceptionally well, has combined to win her an unparalleled success in her work.

Viola Allen Enthusiastic Over Play.

Miss Allen entered into this new field with great enthusiasm. She was a warm personal friend of the author of "The White Sister," and of his family, and it was largely through the interest of the latter in the filming of the book that she consented to enact the role in which she made such a signal success on the speaking stage. She grew more enthusiastic as the work progressed, and took an active part in criticizing and reviewing the various scenes, with the result that she has created a masterpiece.

"I have been wonderfully interested in the production of this play," she declared. "In fact, it has been a revelation to me. The wonderful technical apparatus of the Essanay studios, the care and watchfulness of all detail as well as the skilled work in making the play a thing of life and beauty and action, is a marvel to me. There is nothing I wish for more than that this play make a tremendous success, which, not speaking of my own sincere efforts, the work of Essanay assuredly warrants."

Miss Allen has shown wonderful adaptability in fitting herself to the different conditions of work on the speaking stage to that in photoplays. She not only grasped all the essentials with quickness and ease, but through her personality created such an atmosphere that players with whom she had never taken any parts were enabled to act with entire harmony with her interpretation of "The White Sister."

Travers Acts With Skill.

Richard C. Travers, as the soldier sweetheart of "The White Sister," enacted his role with exceptional skill, while Jack Thorn, as Filmore Durand, the American artist; Florence Oberle, as the Marchesa; Sydney Alnsworth, as Captain Ugo Severi; Thomas Commerford, as Monsignor Saracinesca;

Ernest Maupain, as Dr. Pieri, and Emelie Melville, as the Mother Superior, all portray the characters they represent with clearness and force.

ANNUAL REUNION.

Co. F. Enjoyed Annual Outing at Langston Church on the 19th.

Co. F., 14th Regiment S. C. V. met for its annual reunion on August 19, at Langston church. Devotional exercises were conducted by Comrade J. T. Todd.

In the absence of Capt. W. A. Shands, on account of sickness, Comrade G. M. Hanner, vice president, over the meeting, and gave an interesting report from Capt. W. A. Shands. Then followed a song by the young people, "Shall We Gather at the River?"

The reading of a very interesting article written by Capt. W. A. Shands, from his sickroom, "The Confederate Veteran" read by Miss Irene Wright, a granddaughter of the Confederacy, was greatly enjoyed. Next came a song, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder."

A memorial on the death of L. S. Machray, an honorary member, by chairman G. M. Hanner, was then read. The following answered to the roll call: G. M. Hanner, J. T. Todd, J. Wilson Blakely, W. C. Templeton; honorary members, W. B. Clark, W. F. Wright.

The original roll of the company was ordered to be placed in the National bank of Clinton for safe keeping.

The following resolution was adopted:

ed: "Whereas, our much loved Commandant, W. A. Shands, is unable to be with us on account of sickness; "Therefore be it resolved that we, the members of Co. F, 14th Reg. S. C. V. do give to him our sincere sympathy and prayers in his affliction." Dinner was served on the grounds. A picnic was held in the afternoon. A good day was spent but it was a little damp.

W. F. Wright, Sec.
