Brown-Epting.
Cross Hill, Dec. 29.—Miss Marye Brown of Cross Hill and Mr. Robert Lee Epting of Newberry, surprised their many friends throughout the state when they were married in Atlanta, Ga., Saturday afternoon, Dec. 23rd, at the home of Dr. Word, a distinguished Baptist minister. This popular couple has had a number of their friends guessing for a long time and setting for them a wedding date. It came, however, as a surprise to everyone. Miss Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown and is one of Cross Hill's most beautiful and charming young women. Mr. Epting is a young man of unusual ability. He is executive special for Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company and is one of the most prominent men of his profession. They will make their home at 1114 Glenn St., Newberry.

Poole-Alston.
A wedding in which was centred general interest was solemnized Thursday at noon when Miss Mary Frances Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Poole, became the bride of Dr. William A. Alston of Hagood, Sumter county. The marriage took place at the home of the bride, seven miles east of the city and was attended by a large company of friends and relatives. The Poole home was decorated for the occasion, potted plants and carnations being used in the decorations throughout. The charm of the general setting was the large, open fire in each room. The guests were ushered in by Boyd Bobo and Martin Poole. Preceding the ceremony Miss Virginia Alexander of Chester sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly," "A Perfect Day" and "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose", the accompaniment being played by the pianist, Mrs. Luther Roper of Laurens. At the appointed hour the notes of the Lohengrin wedding march were sounded as the bridal party entered. First came the ushers, Boyd Bobo and Martin Poole, followed by the Rev. William H. Barnwell, the officiating clergyman. Next came the bridesmaids and groomsmen. Miss Mattie Bobo Poole, a sister of the bride, with Herman Myers, Miss Corinne Gleaton with Joshua Craig Poole, a brother of the bride, Miss Ruth DuBose with Percy Harvin, Miss Ina Mae Pitts with Vernon Keys. The bridegroom entered with his best man, Nathaniel Walker. Next came the little ring-bearer, Lucile Poole, a cousin of the bride, followed by Miss Grace Poole, a sister, who was made of honor. Immediately following them came the bride with her brother, Furman Poole, who gave her away. The marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church was used. The bride wore a suit of green broadcloth with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of bride roses, orchids and valley lillies. The maid of honor was gowned in a frock of white messaline with silver trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids wore dainty blue frocks and carried bouquets of pink carnations. The bride is a charming young woman and is a graduate of Lander college. During the past year she has been teaching in the eastern part of the State. Dr. Alston is a large and successful farmer of Sumter county. After a wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Alston left for their home at Hagood. The bride's guest register was in charge of Miss Lila Clark and Fowler Boyd and among the guests present for the occasion were: Miss Corinne Gleaton, Springfield; Miss Ruth DuBose, Lamar; Mrs. W. H. Poole and daughters, Misses Mary and Lucille, Union; Mrs. John Ashe Alston and Miss Grace Hermeyne Mitchell, Hagood; Miss Ina Pitts, Renno; Miss Virginia Alexander, Chester; Percy Harvin, Sumter; W. G. Walker, Rock Hill; Vernon Keys, Rembert; Herman Myers, Sumter; the Rev. W. H. Barnwell, Statesburg; Miss Helen Alston, Greenwood; Miss Helen Alston, Charleston.

Roper-Altman.
Miss Ruth Altman of this city and Mr. Robert H. Roper, of Laurens, S. C., were united in marriage yesterday morning by Dr. C. W. Duke, pastor of the First Baptist Church at 10:30 o'clock. This was a beautiful wedding at the attractive suburban residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Altman, Seminole Heights. The spacious rooms were decorated in pink Russell roses, asparagus fern and palms. An altar was built in the ceremony room, this having a background of potted ferns and palms, trailing asparagus fern and valley lillies. An arch extended above the altar and from this was festooned pink tulle garlands reaching to the large double windows at the rear. Large jardiniere of the Russel roses were placed on pedestals at each side of the altar. The stairway rail in the reception hall was entwined with ferns and a large vase of roses on the newel post. The dining room was also very dainty with roses and ferns, carrying out the same color combination. The marriage music was beautifully rendered by Miss Carroll Roper, sister of the groom, at the piano, and Mrs. Hodson, violin. The matron of honor, Mrs. A. A. Knight, sister of the bride, came down the stairway followed by the bride. The groom and the best man, Mr. Lawrence Barksdale of South Carolina, came from a side entrance meeting the bride and matron of honor at the altar. The bride looked lovely in her traveling costume, which was a handsome broadcloth coat suit of African brown, with fur collar, and a vest effect embroidered in threads of gold. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses with shower of valley lillies, and her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a platinum La Valliere set with amethysts and pearls. A wedding breakfast was given in the gold room of the Tampa Bay Hotel at 11:30 o'clock, this being attended by the immediate relatives and wedding party and Dr. and Mrs. Duke. The decorations there were pink roses and asparagus fern. The place cards were daintily hand-painted in Cupids, the work of an accomplished local artist, Miss Lottie Watkins. Mr. and Mrs. Roper left at 1 o'clock for St. Augustine and points on the east coast, after which they will go to Laurens, S. C., where Mr. Roper is associated with his father in the Laurens Glass factory. Until their bungalow is completed, Mr. and Mrs. Roper will make their home with the former's parents.—Tampa Times.

Chronic Catarrh is Curable

Nothing is more distressing to the sufferer and his friends. Chronic catarrh is systemic—that is, it is present throughout the body, though it may manifest itself in a local ulceration. Only a constitutional treatment will overcome systemic catarrh. Local treatments sometimes help to overcome acute manifestations, but they cannot overcome the systemic disorder.

PERUNA Has Helped Thousands

It is a foe to catarrh. The voluntary testimony of thousands establishes that. Peruna benefits in a number of ways. Peruna builds up the digestion, restores the strength and helps put the system in condition.

Peruna has special value in catarrhs. It gives vitality to the system, restores tone to the membranes and enables the organs to perform their functions. In many cases its benefits begin at once, and it rarely fails when treatment is continued properly. The Peruna Medical Department will be glad to assist you to overcome this disease. The doctor's advice is free. Don't delay treatment.
