

LANFORD NEWS.

Lanford, April 29.—Our community was very much shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. Emma Miller, the wife of the Methodist minister. It spread a gloom over all who knew her, for she had endeared herself to all she met. We do most sincerely sympathize with him in the loss of his dear companion. She was laid to rest in Greenwood, a great many from here attending the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. DeShields and daughter Grace, Mrs. C. L. Waldrep, Mr. Yates Waldrep, Mr. W. L. Patterson and family were among the party who motored through the country to attend the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Langston and family were up on a visit to her brother, Mr. R. J. Langston and Mrs. Alice Mills, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall and daughter, Estelle Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Rhoad of Hendersonville, also Mrs. Stella Bomar, John Cannon, Jr., Miss Nora Cannon, Mr. John Harmon and Mr. John Payne were guests at the home of Mr. H. M. Johnson Sunday.

Mrs. Ophelia Fowler continues to be very sick and is improving slowly. Mrs. Don Barns was called to her bedside last week and is still with her.

Mrs. W. A. Thomas is still in the hospital but hopes soon to be at home and well again.

Mr. Oscar Thomas and family of Arcadia, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Nannie Mae Lanford, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. R. L. Moore, of Arcadia, has returned home.

Mr. G. W. Harlan and Mr. M. G. Parson, have both purchased new cars and are enjoying these fine roads.

We are indebted to Mrs. Alice Mills for a feast of delicious strawberries for Sunday's dinner.

Miss Pauline Waldrep has been very sick for a few days but will soon be able to return to school.

Mrs. J. D. Johnson is in Arcadia visiting her sons, B. W. and J. V. Johnson.

Miss Carrye Lou Higgins spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Sara Nance and the pupils of the fifth and sixth grades, invited the patrons to observe their work one afternoon last week. Most all of the mothers responded to the invitation and enjoyed the afternoon, listening to their recitations and the clear good explanation the class received. Miss Nance has been with us two years and has done a lot of good, earnest work, proving herself to be a very capable and efficient teacher, and has won the love and esteem of all her pupils and patrons. We would all be glad if we could get her again for another year.

The ladies all learned that Miss Nance knows how to make and serve delicious ice cream and cake as well as teach school. They all voted their thanks and appreciation of her efforts to make the afternoon one of pleasure as well as profit. The school will close next Friday afternoon. Appropriate exercises will then take place.

Mrs. Lester Hammett is in Spartanburg visiting her mother.

Mrs. Bertha Moore of Laurens visited Mrs. Hammett one day last week. Farmers are very busy planting.

MUSGROVE NEWS.

Musgrove, April 27.—Rev. J. R. Williams filled his regular appointment with us last Sunday and although the weather was bad and the crowd small, he delivered a splendid sermon which was enjoyed very much by all present. Rev. Williams left Sunday for Westminster where he will help one of his brother pastors in revival meeting. We wish him much success. His wife and children stay in Greenville, to visit her people.

A meeting of interested persons was held at the home of Mr. William Sunday afternoon, being that of Mr. Willie Myers of this place and Miss Ethel McDaniel, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. E. W. McDaniel of the McDaniel MBI community. Mr. Myers, as Miss McDaniel, has been teacher for the past few years, who Mr. Myers is a prosperous farmer in the Musgrove community. We wish them a very happy and prosperous married life.

Misses Eva and Ethel Bolt and Mr.

O. J. Bolt spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Mattie Clark and daughter, Miss Lila.

Messrs. Clyde Chapman and Ernest Madden were recently in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn and children were recent guests at the home of Mr. Walter Glenn near Clinton.

Miss Mattie Holland the Langston school teacher, spent last week-end with her homefolks at Clinton.

Mrs. J. A. Smoak and little son, accompanied by Miss Lila Clark, returned to her home in Cameron, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen J. Bolt spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cooper.

Mr. Boyd Bobo and brothers spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bobo.

Mr. James Clark spent Sunday at the home of Mr. M. A. Sumner.

Mr. Ira Bolt was the Sunday guests of Mr. J. T. Bobo.

Misses Genia and Bessie Byrd spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Glenn.

Mrs. Inez Tinsley of Spartanburg, came over Friday for her father's wedding and will return home today.

Mr. Herbert Martin of Laurens, spent one day last week with Mrs. George Byrd and daughters.

The little boys of Mr. J. S. Sanders who have been in the Chester hospital for some time, returned home last week and at present they are doing fine. We hope they will continue to improve.

Roy, Claud, Clyde and Irene Tramble, children of Mr. Bud Tramble, spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Prince, near Craig's store.

Mr. Pierce Myers returned home Saturday from Columbia and Camp Jackson where he has been visiting for a few days.

UNIFORMS FOR THE BUSINESS ARMY

Lots of men can't serve their country in the fighting ranks; but they can and do serve in business. One of the necessities of these men is to be well-dressed; and at the same time to be economically dressed.

Real economy in clothes is in good quality; clothes made of the best materials, with the best tailoring, last long, and look well as long as they last.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make that kind of clothes and we sell them; we can't offer you a better reason for buying your clothes here. You'll get more value for every dollar than in any other way.

Business men's suits for Spring; with lots of style, with all wool fabrics, with the highest type of tailoring; cheaper by the month, at the price.
