

Local and Special.

THURSDAY, NOV. 20, 1884.

Subscribers are asked to look at the names opposite their names, and if they see that their subscriptions have expired, will please remit the sum due.

Mr. L. S. Bowers, postmaster, at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Mr. A. H. Kohn will also receive and receive for subscribers at that place.

Subscribers will confer a favor by examining the bills printed near their names, and if the date is not right they will please inform us. Mistakes will occur sometimes.

Deaths. Mrs. Elizabeth McNary, wife of Mr. Levi McNary, of Prosperity, died on the 15th inst., of paralysis, aged about 50 years.

A child of Mr. Price of Prosperity, died on the 14th inst., of diphtheria.

Mr. John T. Halman, formerly of Helena, died at Hickory, N. C., on the 10th inst. Mr. Halman was the brother-in-law of Mrs. Wm. Zobel, of Helena.

Fire. The work shops of Mr. J. Z. Salter, near Vaughnville, in the upper portion of this County, were destroyed by fire on Monday night of this week.

Public Park. Newberry should no longer be without a park. We have lost several opportunities, and before it is too late we should secure a suitable locality.

Shade Trees. One of the distinguishing features—perhaps the most attractive—of the cities and towns that are thought to be the most handsome, is that whose streets are lined with shade trees.

The Dry Weather Moistened. It has been nearly three months since we have had anything like a rain. Frost nor clouds affected a change.

The Coffee House. The coffee house conducted by the ladies of the W. C. T. U., continues open on all suitable occasions.

Public Schools Pay Cash in Cleasondon. The new fiscal year began on November 1st, but owing to a change of School Commissioners, the public schools for this year will not open before January 1st.

Not only should teachers be paid cash, they should be paid promptly. The work of the conscientious teacher is not easy, as many would suppose—the pathway is not strewn with flowers.

Red paint will be high in price and scarce for some time, all the papers in the country are painting whole villages, towns and cities.

We acknowledge the receipt of an elegant plate of Root's Sinking Newbery Pills, and the representative of the famous Blue Pills.

Mr. J. L. Bowers, postmaster, at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Mr. A. H. Kohn will also receive and receive for subscribers at that place.

"CAPITAL DOTS"

The officers of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society, also, all present, engaged with the management of the Fair should feel much indebted to the faithful Sons and Daughters of Newberry County for the interest manifested by them, by the exhibits in the various departments, and the large attendance on each of the days of the week.

THORNTON-BRED CATTLE. Ayrshire bull, T. W. Holloway—st Premium. Ayrshire heifers, 1 and 2 years, T. W. Holloway—1st and 2nd.

MCLENS—SOUTH CAROLINA RAISED. Largest Jacks, D. Hipp—1st and 2nd. STRAW AND WILLOW WARE AND WAX. Cider, bees-wax from Newberry Fair.

POULTRY. Brown Bantam red game, J. W. Hill, Chappels Depot. FINE ARTS. Portrait of Senator M. C. Butler in crayon, by J. W. Hill.

HOUSEHOLD. Uncooked ham, Mrs. M. A. Renwick, 2nd. Heavy Draft Stallion, M. J. Waldrop, 2nd.

FANCY WORK DEPARTMENT—CROCHET IN THREAD. Infant Dress, Miss N. Chapman. DARNED NET. Hand-kerchief, Miss Ray Foot.

STRAW AND WILLOW WORK. Mrs. P. J. Stephens for collection of Baskets and other work for Hat.

The Board of State Canvassers, whose duty it is to canvass the returns of votes given in each County for State and County and Federal officers, met in the office of the Secretary of State on Thursday the 13th inst. at 10 a. m.

The National Democratic Committee was right when it said that there was no power that could prevent the canvass of the vote in N. Y. State, showing a plurality in favor of Cleveland and his friends.

The prohibition petition of this place is in the hands of our worthy postmaster, Mr. H. E. Bonner. We hope every black, white and female, white and black, will sign it.

Peterson's Magazine. For December comes to us ahead of all others a perfect marvel of beauty. There are more than 100 pages of reading-matter; two colored plates; a colored pattern, costlier even than a chromo; a colored fashion, double size, printed in steel; and more than half a dozen woodcuts of fashions, workable patterns, etc.

Mr. J. L. Bowers, postmaster, at Prosperity is our authorized agent at that place.

Mr. A. H. Kohn will also receive and receive for subscribers at that place.

SATURDAY NIGHT REFLECTIONS.

Saturday night, what a host of recollections and reflections crowd the mind when Saturday night is thought of. It is the bright light of the week—work is over.

Let us hope for them, hope that some time Saturday night will be to them equally precious to her heart; hope that their eyes sparkle, how pleasant is the thought, what a good father and husband they have. He, too, is pleased at what he has done.

Let us hope for them, hope that some time Saturday night will be to them equally precious to her heart; hope that their eyes sparkle, how pleasant is the thought, what a good father and husband they have.

FROM THE SNIFFLER'S MACHINE.

Tell the news to Mr. Blaine, Nor let him ever complain. For all good news is Blaine's, And he'll never run again.

Yes, tell it, to Mr. Blaine, Tell it over and over again, And let the land re-echo Sound o'er land and main.

Swallow it down Mr. Blaine, It will give but little pain; You are so very, very vain, We have no sorrow, Mr. Blaine.

Return to your hole, Mr. Blaine, And do not dare come out again, Whichever your touch is left a stain, Go back to your beloved Maine.

This is the story, Mr. Blaine, This is the story we proclaim, This 1844 boys' acclaim, This 1844 boys' acclaim.

Miss Bessie Cannon, has renewed her school, at New Chapel. Miss Ella Sligh has opened her school near B. Eden.

Miss Mattie Lee Cook, of Stilesboro, Ga., is on a visit to her Newberry friends. Geo. S. Mower, Esq., left on Monday to attend the Supreme Court.

Rev. J. Q. Werts and wife, of Orangeburg, are visiting the parents of the latter. Miss Kate Steek leaves this week to attend the Hagerstown Female Seminary, Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Probst, were on a visit the early part of the week to Dr. Steek. Miss Lizzie Caution, of Fairfield, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Crowell Chapman.

Mr. T. E. Kinard has been transferred from C. & A. L. R. to the A. T. & O. R. R., from Charlotte to Statesville, N. C.

Rev. J. A. Sligh has been confined to his bed for several days since his return from Smyod, with a severe attack of sore throat. The Luther Chapel congregation on Sunday last elected Mr. Wm. Johnson a deacon to fill the place of Mr. Julius E. Chapman, who recently moved to Florida.

Rev. J. Jones, Esq., made two trips to Walton recently to argue a case before the Supreme Court. He was successful in his mission. Joel B. Heller was the opposing attorney. The case will be tried here to-day, a third time before trial justice Dickert.

Rev. J. Steek, D. D., pastor of Luther Chapel, has been granted a month's vacation. He will spend the time in work for Newberry College as financial agent. He will probably make a trip North in the interest of the institution. His pulpit will be supplied by Dr. Smeltzer, of Walhalla, Dr. Hawkins and Rev. J. E. Bushnell, of Prosperity.

Godley's Lady's Book for December (J. H. Godley & Co., Publishers) has never been issued with the Magazine. "Sleeping Love" is really a work of art much above the average of ordinary magazine fiction.

"Caught on the fly." The "fly" of THE HERALD AND NEWS press came down on the senior editor's devoted head last Wednesday afternoon, and ruined his best hat. He wants another.

Mr. P. D. Mazzyk, who recently resigned his position as telegraph operator at this place, has been called to Atlanta on the Georgia Pacific Road. Our young friend is certainly deserving of that position, but he certainly deserves it.

1884. M. FOOT. 1857.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. We invite attention to the sale of valuable personal property by Mr. T. F. Harmon. It will be seen that the Aull Brothers have advertised their Flour and Grist mill and valuable Land on Bush River for sale.

Council gives notice that on the 30th of next month an election will be held on the question—"License" or "No License." See schedule Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, John F. Divine, Superintendent.

See legal notices from Probate Judge and Master. Tuesday afternoon, when the up-freight was approaching the crossing near the Helena shops, Wm. Daniel's horses, attached to a wagon-load of cotton, took fright and dashed across the park.

POST OFFICE, NEWBERRY, C. H. S. C. List of advertised letters for week ending Nov. 15, 1884: Chalmers, M. S. Anna O. S. Samuel Carpenter, T. R. Delany, John R. Daniel, Anderson Elmore, Wm. A. Harris, B. M. J. Hudgens, J. M. Hunt, Jack.

After Suffering Eleven Years. Dawson, Ga., August 29, 1884.—I suffered with better for eleven years. It was on my face a large eruption of the cuticle, which was painful. I tried the virtue of many remedies, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but found no relief, and had almost despaired of my life.

The Supreme Bench. Atlanta, Sept. 23, 1884.—From experience I think S. S. a very valuable remedy for various diseases, and at the same time an invigorating tonic. JAMES JACKSON, Chief Justice of Ga.

Cared with Two Bottles. JEWELVILLE, La., Aug. 2, 1881.—For over two years I was afflicted with a ring-worm on my neck, which would peel off and burn like fire. Calling on an M. D. he pronounced it a cutaneous eruption of the cuticle. This I tried, and it was completely broken down. About a year ago I was induced to use Mr. Swift's Specific, and there has been no sign of a return of the disease. F. O. HOLMES.

A TREMENDOUS BREAK!

After six weeks stay in the Markets has returned with the STARTLING and PLEASING Announcement that he has bought Goods at and is determined to sell them accordingly. If there still lingers the faintest doubt that the far-seeing judgment, the many years' experience and the unflinching power CASH have secured for FLYNN a position in advance of all competitors, a brief inspection of goods and comparison of prices are the only tests necessary to convince the most incredulous.

Our constant aim is to supply our friends and patrons with good honest goods at prices that leave and is determined to sell them accordingly.
