

The Herald and News. PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT NEWBERRY, S. C. TEACHERS' DEPARTMENT. A. S. SCHEETZ, EDITOR. School Discipline.

schools in which the children of rich and poor have an equal chance of obtaining an education, they stand alone, unapproached and unapproachable. The schools of Newberry, as far as they go and for the children whom they reach, are no doubt excellent, but if by the money and teaching force which is now being dissipated by being divided among a number of schools, were all concentrated on one grand effort, a system could be evolved, which would be the pride and glory of the town and county.

In the last session of the legislature, as well as in several previous sessions, quite a number of cases enabling towns to vote tax for graded school purposes were passed. Let Newberry and Prosperity fall into line next December. Graded schools are coming. Do not wait until they are forced upon you.

Prof. Arthur Kibler kindly relieved the editor last week. As we were busy with work incident to commencement, he prepared the entire department, public acknowledgement of which we make herewith, and tender him our thanks for his assistance.

The State Teachers' Association will meet in the chapel of the Female College, in Columbia, the second week in July. An excellent programme is being prepared, which we hope to be able to publish soon. We also hope to see many of the teachers of Newberry county present at the State meeting. Farmers, lawyers, doctors, and even editors have their state organizations, and their annual meetings are largely attended. Let not the teachers be behind the members of other callings in the support given to their State association.

HOW IT LOOKS.

Some Combinations Showing the Need of Indiana.

[From the New York Post.] On the Democratic side the starting-point is, of course, the solid South, with its 156 votes. This is 29 votes less than the Republican starting-point, but the great advantage of the Democratic position lies in their superior prospects for carrying the States of New York and New Jersey, whose combined vote, added to that of the South, would bring them within three votes of a majority. New York and Indiana would give them 204, or 3 to spare without New Jersey. The chief Democratic combinations are as follows: Solid South.....153 New York.....36 Indiana.....15 Total.....204

Solid South.....153 New York.....36 New Jersey.....8 Connecticut.....8 Total.....204 Solid South.....153 New York.....36 New Jersey.....8 California.....8 Total.....206 It will be seen by both sets of combinations that Indiana is a very important State to both parties and is likely to be fiercely contested. It is a cause for congratulation that there will be no October election either there or in any other Northern State this year, otherwise the flood of "soap" would be tremendous. Georgia is the only "October" State this year.

He Remembered.

[Lowell Courier.] Many years ago, Mr. Abram Dodge of Ipswich, Mass., owned a beautiful horse which was the pet of the family. He was admired by all who knew his playfulness and good qualifications. In the summer it was Mr. Dodge's habit occasionally to have frolic with his horse in his barnyard, then let him out alone, and he would go to the river, which was about one-third of a mile distant, where he would bathe, then start for home; his stable was renovated for him while he was gone, and his breakfast put in his crib. If he met his master he would show some childish pranks, run for the stable, pull out the wooden pin that fastened the door with his teeth, and rush to his manger to find his food. One night the horse was stolen from the stable. After the expiration of sixteen years, Mr. Dodge was at the tavern when a man drove a horse up to the door. Mr. Dodge at once recognized his horse and told the driver his reason for believing it to be his; the man told his story of whom he bought the horse, and that he had owned him for several years. It was finally agreed, that if the horse would, on being taken to his old stable, go through the habit of bathing, rolling on the grass, and pulling the pin from the stable door as above described, that Mr. Dodge should have him. When the horse was let out into his old yard he viewed the premises for a moment, then started for his old bath tub, then for his green towel on the common, then to his old stable, pulled the wooden pin, won for himself a good meal, and his old master his favorite horse. These facts are vouched for by reliable residents of the beautiful, picturesque old town, and show conclusively the long memory of our noble animal.

JUDGE LAMAR'S CRAVAT.

An Unsuccessful Effort to Make an Umbrella Cover Serve as Neckwear. WASHINGTON, June 10.—Justice Lamar's absent-mindedness has long been a prolific theme with the newspaper writers at the national capital. The last story at Justice Lamar's expense was that wherein he was described as vainly attempting to drop a letter in a fire alarm box. To-day a new story is put in circulation to the effect that a few days ago Mrs. Lamar noticed the Judge standing a much longer time than usual before his dressing mirror. As he is not generally inclined to self-contemplation, save in the philosophical sense, she naturally asked what was the trouble. "Why, my dear, I am trying to tie my cravat, and I can't imagine what is the matter with it. It doesn't seem to go just right for some reason."

A Wide Range of Expression.

[From Harper's Bazar.] "You seem thoughtful this evening, Bobby," said the minister, who was making a call. "Mr. Goodman," inquired Bobby, rousing himself, "what is a vocabulary?" The minister kindly told him. "I heard it this morning," Bobby explained, "and I didn't know what it meant. Ma said she had no idea what a vocabulary pa had until she heard him taking down the parlor stove."

Boiled Down.

Claus Spreckels was created a knight by the king of the Sandwich Islands. "Sir George" Pullman is the way Mr. Pullman may write his name in Italy, thanks to King Humbert. Mr. Gwynn, of San Francisco, had the title of Duke given him years ago by the ill-starred Maximilian of Mexico.

The bar steward of one of the European steamers reports that on one trip from the United States last summer, his receipts were $3,500 in seven days. John Bright's son William has put his name to a memorial signed by 1,200 British Quakers protesting against Great Britain's treatment of Ireland. Christian K. Ross, the father of the lost Charlie Ross, seems to have a permanent place in the sympathies of his countrymen, and his movements are always read with interest. He has just been reappointed master warden for the port of Philadelphia for three years.

It seems that Hannibal Hamlin was much disappointed at not having been appointed a delegate to Chicago. It is reported that he said to a friend that he would rather wear an overcoat a month than miss it. The venerable politician smiles again, however, since he is to go as a proxy.

"The name landama," said a bookworm who had been looking up the subject, "was first applied in the East Indies, where the fabric first originated." Worcester says that it is a kind of silk handkerchief, or a style of calico printing, in which white or brightly colored spots are produced on a red ground. It is extensively used as a head gear by the people of warm climates. You will see Mexicans, the negroes of the south, Spaniards and Italians wearing them on their heads.

Lady Buchan, whose death is recorded at the age of 91 years, was one of the last surviving persons who had a distinct recollection of Napoleon the Great. Her father, Col. Wilks, was governor of St. Helena in 1815, at the time of Bonaparte's banishment, and on the terms of his governorship explained Miss Wilks was desirous of being introduced to the ex-emperor. "I have long heard from various quarters of the superior elegance and beauty of Miss Wilks, but now I am convinced from my own eyes that report has scarcely done her sufficient justice," said Napoleon to her. "You must be very glad to leave the island," he said. "Oh, no, sire," was the answer. "I am very sorry to go away." "Oh, mademoiselle, I wish I could change places with you." Napoleon presented her with a bracelet in memory of this visit.

Clips and Snips.

Napoleon at twenty-five commanded the army of Italy. At thirty he was one of the great lawgivers of the world. At forty-six he was Waterloo.

William H. Seward commenced the practice of law at twenty-one, and at thirty-one was president of State convention, and at thirty-seven governor of New York.

Webster was in college at fifteen, gave earnest of his great future before he was twenty-five, and at thirty was the peer of the ablest men in congress.

Washington was a distinguished colonel in the army at twenty-two, early in public affairs, commander of the forces at forty-three, and president at fifty-seven.

Christian science has driven Cincinnati young man crazy. Religion is a dangerous thing for Cincinnati people to handle. According to the Panama Star and Herald, the work on the Panama canal is progressing rapidly. The introduction of locks has lessened the work and the cost. About 700 dirt cars are running all the time to carry off the excavated earth. In a year France becomes involved in the war there is little doubt that the money needed for the enterprise will be raised. The friends of the Nicaragua scheme do not like to take this view of it, but the chances are in favor of the final success of DeLessep's project.

Roseco Conkling never would admit that Walt Whitman was a poet. Mr. Conkling's judgment rarely led him astray.

A plant grows in Mixteca, Mexico, which the natives call the "herb of prophecy." A dose of it produces sleep similar in all respects to the hypnotic state. The subject answers with closed eyes questions that are put to him, and is completely insensible. The pathologic state brings with it a kind of prophetic gift and double sight. Furthermore, he loses his will, and is completely under the control of another. On returning to himself he remembers nothing of what he has done.

Gold Bugs and Big Bugs at St. Louis.

It is stated that the seventy-five Democrats from California who attended the St. Louis convention were more lavish in their expenditures than any other organization. They reached the scene of action several days before the great body convened. They occupied superb quarters on the ground floor of the Southern Hotel, and 125 cases of champagne—not California champagne, either—were consumed by the Californians and their guests in two days. Tammany Hall, with $50 on the St. Louis list, spent $30,000 simply in railroad fare, hotel bills and music, to say nothing of the "open house" luxury. The county Democracy, with 250 excursionists, spent $20,000. St. Louis is said to be nearly a half million dollars richer on account of the convention.

A Wide Range of Expression. [From Harper's Bazar.] "You seem thoughtful this evening, Bobby," said the minister, who was making a call. "Mr. Goodman," inquired Bobby, rousing himself, "what is a vocabulary?" The minister kindly told him. "I heard it this morning," Bobby explained, "and I didn't know what it meant. Ma said she had no idea what a vocabulary pa had until she heard him taking down the parlor stove."

Senior Vance Cracks a Joke at Senator Beck's Expense.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—It was a knotty point which had come up before the Finance Committee of the Senate. Mr. Beck would not or could not be convinced that Mr. Vance was correct in a certain statement he had made regarding the matter. "Why don't you put it in writing, man?" exclaimed the stalwart Kentuckian with more than metropolitan flourish in his tone. "What you say goes in at one ear and out at the other."

"Ah," replied the witty Vance, winking sagaciously at Senator Allison, who sat at the head of the table, "that's because there is nothing there to stop it."

The other members of the committee laughed heartily, but Mr. Beck looked stern.

Not Going to Fall Again.

[From Tid-Bits.] Edward—I love you, Miss Charlieb. Will you be my wife? Charlieb—Certainly, right away. Edward—But the necessary delays, the minister? Charlieb—Oh, that's all right. Papa is in the next room. He's the mayor, you know. I've made the mistake of a long engagement once or twice before. Come! (They stampede.)

A Startling Innovation.

[From Harper's Bazar.] Gus—Where have you been, Jack? Jack—I tell you 5 o'clock tea at the Holsons'. I saw you, Gus, Mrs. Holson is a woman of resources. She introduced a novelty this afternoon that I never saw at such an affair. Gus—What was it? Jack—Enough to eat.

Why You Feel

So weak and exhausted is because your blood is impure. As well expect the sanitary condition of a city to be perfect with polluted water and defective sewers, as to expect such a complicated piece of mechanism as the human frame to be in good order with impure blood. The good blood that every drop of your system is made of, is made of pure oxygen, the heart and lungs in process through a half minute, and that, on its way, it makes lungs and muscles, brain and nerves, and all other solids and fluids of the body. The blood is the great nourisher, or as the Bible term it,

"The Life of the Body."

Is it any wonder, then, that if the blood is not pure and perfect in its constituents, you suffer so many indelible symptoms?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla stands "head and shoulders" above every other Alterative and Blood Medicine. As proof, read these remarkable testimonies:

G. C. South, of Lowell, Mass., says: "For five years I have suffered from Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In my opinion, the best remedial agent for the cure of all the diseases arising from impurities of the blood are contained in this medicine."

Eugene I. Hill, M. D., 281 Sixth Ave., New York, says: "As a blood-purifier and general tonic, I have never found anything to equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gives perfect satisfaction."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla proves equally efficacious in all forms of Scrofula, Boils, Carbuncles, Eczema, Humors, Lumbago, Catarrh, &c.; and is, therefore, the very best.

Spring and Family Medicine in use. "It bends all," says Mr. Cutler, of Cutler Brothers & Co., Boston. "How Ayer's Sarsaparilla does all." Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth 1 a bottle.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. Disease factors are directed upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her organs were undermined and death seemed inevitable. For three months she engaged incessantly and could not sleep. She discovered for consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she kept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Write W. L. Douglas & Co., of Lowell, Mass., for a free trial bottle at Coffey & Lyons' Drug Store.

The Verdier Unannounced.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold gives relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of Rheumatism of 20 years' standing. Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, writes: 'The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 9 years' experience, is Electric Bitters.' Thousands of others have added their testimony, and the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Bladder. It has had a better record at Coffey & Lyons' Drug Store."

WE DON'T CHARGE anybody with a lack of appreciation for home folks, but we know that some people, unless reminded, do forget that they can get at home what they often send to distant places for. Don't for it The Herald and News is $1.50 a year, with one price if advertising. The paper may peak for itself just now. Give Us Your Order for either a visiting card or a mammoth poster. We have facilities for printing Lawyers' Briefs, School Catalogues, Minutes of Meetings, Legal Blanks, By-Laws, Note Heads, Bill Heads, Business Cards, Visiting Cards, Envelopes, Shipping Tags, Price Lists, Programs, Wedding Invitations, Checks, Receipts, FULL & HOUSAL.

STATIONERY IN PADS. At a small trifle extra over the ordinary loose sheets with or without blotters, The pads we use are excelled by none, being very neat with interchangeable blotters. A word just now about our Prices may not be out of season. A comparison of them with any establishment in the State should be granted a clinching argument for your patronage of home enterprise.
