Working for Newberry College. COLUMBIA, S. C., September 19.-Dr Holland, the president of Newberry College, is in the city to-day. He is on his way to Lexington, where he goes in the interest of his College. He says that the session just past was full of encouragement and hope and he is confident that the coming session will be one of even more material satisfaction. The College buildings have been put in thorough repair, and they will present to the students, new and old, a pleasing artistic appearance.

Dr. Holland has spent his vacation in South Carolina, no doubt finding it a superior place, and his appearance of health and energy indicates that he must be right on that score. All of his friends wish him a prosperous cam-paign in the Sand Hills.—Cor. News and Courier.

Let me (a one time teacher at this school) express the unbounded pleasure which the whole performance of the students gave me, why? I was so proud of them that I felt like hugging all the boys, and kissing all the girls and the teacher too, but was kept back by the fact that I am getting so old and wrinkled that I feared they would not consider it much of a compliment; but, jesting aside all honor to the lad; teachers of our county, and I predict that if Messicurs, the fathers, will but co-operate with them, that "the day is at hand, even at the door," when the will establish upon an enduring basis their reputation, as capable and faith-
