"Give me a liver regular and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Robertson & Gilder.

W. W. Fulmer has over 2,000 Lemons that he is selling at 1 cent each. 1&12c.

"In the Debatable Land."
The above is the title of an interesting story, the first chapter of which appears in this paper on the fourth page, and will continue for several weeks. The scenes are laid in the South at the time Sherman was accomplishing his famous march to the sea. It is full of action and the interest is softened but intensified by the love making of the hero and heroine, under difficulties. Don't miss it.

Before the discovery of One Minute Cough Cure, ministers were greatly disturbed by coughing congregations. No excuse for it now. Robertson & Gilder.

It is very plain to us that Flynn has the advantage of any store in Newberry. The slick way he gobbled up the two stocks of Goodman & Maybin and Pawley shows his shrewdness. His place is crowded with buyers, and we advise our readers, if they want to save the dollar, to go to Flynn's Cash Store.

North Carolina on Wheels.
North Carolina Rolling Exposition and Cuba on wheels will be here within the next few days and our citizens will have an opportunity to visit the car and see something interesting and entertaining. This car was here a few months back, but since then Cuba has been added, which makes the exposition more interesting. Don't fail to see it.

J. Sheer, Sodaia, Mo., conductor on electric street car line, writes that his little daughter was very low with group, and her life saved after all physicians had failed, only by using One Minute Cough Cure. Robertson & Gilder.

At the Theatre.
The Emma Warren Theatrical Company is the attraction at the opera house this week and is giving good performances. Tonight, tomorrow, afternoon and tomorrow night will wind up the engagement. Go out and enjoy a good performance, tomorrow night the holders of the lucky numbers will be given cash prizes to the amount of $20.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing is as fine and suitable as "will answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you. Robertson & Gilder.

Death of Rev. B. A. Fair.
Rev. Robert Anderson Fair died in Savannah, Ga., on Tuesday, 11th, at the residence of his son, Rev. Jas. Y. Fair, pastor of the Independent Presbyterian church, at the age of about 80 years. In the civil war he was Lieutenant Colonel of the Seventh South Carolina Regiment, and at the close of the war entered the Presbyterian ministry, in which he remained faithfully and ably for many years. He was called as pastor of the Newberry Presbyterian church in 1874 and served that congregation for eleven years, and until he retired—this being the last charge of which he was pastor. The interment took place yesterday at Long Cane, in Abbeville county.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

At last—Spring weather.

Miss Claudie Irby, of Laurens, is visiting the Misses Glenn.

The new depot will be a beauty. The framing is being put up.

Mr. L. W. Floyd was in Columbia Wednesday on business.

Mine Host A. J. Cook spent Wednesday and Thursday in Columbia.

The County Board of Control will elect a beer dispenser to-morrow.

Mr. Ed. Rice, of Greenwood, spent a few days in the city the first of the week.

Col. George Johnstone has been in Columbia this week on professional business.

Miss Ella Summer returned home from Newberry last Wednesday—Chapin News.

The contractor has arrived and has begun work on the roller mill out at the old Aull mill.

The graduating class of Newberry College will finish up their studies next week and take a rest.

Several residences in the city are being repainted, which adds much to the appearance of the city.

Miss Helen Hawkins has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Newberry.—Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. W. F. Ewart went up to Long Cane, Abbeville County, to attend the funeral of Rev. R. A. Fair yesterday.

Mr. Jno. F. Livingston, soliciting agent for the C. N. & L. R. R., was in the city yesterday in the interest of his road.

Mr. J. S. Land, of Columbia, State agent for the Penn Mutual Insurance Association, was in the city yesterday.

The weather for the past several days has been spring like and farmers are making good use of it in their farm operations.

Mrs. B. B. Miller and son, Eugene, of near Hilton, are visiting relatives and friends in Newberry County today.—Chapin News, 12th.

Don't fail to read the interesting story, "In the Debatable Land," the first chapter of which appears in this paper—on the fourth page.

Mr. J. Held, of Greenwood, representative of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Association, of New Jersey is spending a while in Newberry.

Dr. W. E. Pelham has been appointed a delegate from this State to the 9th international Sunday-school convention to be held in Atlanta April 26-30.

M. A. Renwick has something to say in this issue of interest to shoppers. He has a complete stock in every line of his business. See him before buying.

The State Board of Control has made new rules governing beer dispensaries and no beer can be drunk under the roof or on the premises where it is sold.

Col. J. Y. Culbreath, of Newberry was in Saluda Saturday. He had been several days at his place in the country examining his gold mine there.—Saluda Advocate.

Mr. Edward Scholtz and Dr. W. E. Pelham have been elected delegates from the Newberry Lodge, K. of P., to the Grand Lodge, which meets in Florence in May.

Messrs. C. A. Bowman and W. A. Hill, were both accepted as jurors in the case of the Lake City lynchings, when the case was called in Charleston the first of the week.

Mr. T. G. Williams went to Greenwood yesterday for a negro wanted in this county by the authorities, but the negro was also wanted in Laurens, and the Laurens sheriff got their first and got the bird.

Some more of our business men should have the fronts of their stores touched up with the paint brush. It goes a long way in advertising a place, and the Mayor of every town and city in the State will be here in May.

Mr. W. H. Eddy has bought a lot from the Motte estate, fronting the street that runs up by the side of Dr. Renwick's residence, in Ward 1, and will erect a residence thereon during the summer.

One of the negroes serving a thirty day sentence on the county chain gang made his escape Tuesday evening while coming into town. He was riding behind the wagon in which were the guards and he jumped off his mule and took to the woods.

They Are Gone.

I had sores on one of my limbs and tried all kinds of medicine, which did me little good. I suffered great pain and could not sleep at night. After taking three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I am sound and well and the sores are all gone." A. Ernest Jones, Langley, South Carolina.

That distress after eating is prevented by one or two of Hood's Pills. They don't gripe.

Up for Vacancy.

Magistrate Chappell had before him yesterday morning five negroes charged with vagrancy. They were five loafers who are seen continually loitering around the streets, both during the day and nights, yet when the trial was called they produced sufficient evidence to prove that they, each of them, had employment sufficient to make them an honest living, and Magistrate Chappell could do nothing but let them off.

However, he told them that after ten days' time if they continued to loaf about town and did not get employment to keep them off the streets that he would be sure to put them on the chain gang. The citizens of the town hope that Magistrate Chappell will succeed in breaking up this gang of loafers, as they are a nuisance.

THE PUMPKIN SEED!

RESULT OF THE CONTEST.

Mr. Frank M. Schumpert Gets the Buggy.
Two Doctors Divide the Harness—A Farmer Gets the Flour and One the Subscription.

As previously announced, the contest for the four prizes offered by The Herald and News closed on Monday afternoon. We asked Messrs. C. F. Boyd, W. W. Hodges, A. J. Gibson and A. H. Kohn to open the pumpkins and count the seed. This they did on Tuesday morning.

It was a rather tedious job, but they did it well and carefully. After they finished counting they then went through the guesses and awarded the prizes to those coming nearest to the number of seed in the pumpkins. After the award was made they opened the envelopes and found who the successful guessers were. If we had had a guess we would have missed the mark considerably, for we had no idea there were as many seed in pumpkins as these had.

Mr. F. M. Schumpert, of the Utopia section, gets the buggy, and if he will call for it he can take it home. It is a beauty. Drs. J. M. Kibler, of Newberry, and J. L. Bowers, of No. 10, divide the harness and come within one of the buggy. The barrel of flour goes to Mr. J. Y. Ray, of Whitmore, and the subscription to Mr. C. W. Buford, of No. 5. The following is the official report of the committee:

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have this day at the request of The Herald and News opened the two pumpkins and counted the seed, and find that there are 2,030 seed in the two pumpkins and that we have also gone over the guesses deposited in the boxes and find that the following numbers are nearest to the number of seed in the two pumpkins and that on opening the envelopes on which were the said numbers we find the prizes to be awarded are as follows:

1st prize to F. M. Schumpert, guess No. 2,000.

2nd prize to Dr. J. M. Kibler and Dr. J. L. Bowers, guess No. 1,999.

3d prize to J. Y. Ray, guess No. 1997.

4th prize to C. W. Buford, guess No. 2100.

W. W. HODGES,
C. F. BOYD,
A. H. KOHN,
A. J. GIBSON.

We have the seed and will be glad to give them out to our subscribers who will plant them. We want to encourage the growing of pumpkins, for pumpkins make good food for cows and hogs.

Dr. Kibler or Dr. Bowers one will have to buy the other out, or sell the harness and divide the proceeds.

These prizes are given away absolutely by The Herald and News for those who get them only paid a what they owed for subscription. And those who did not get a prize are not out anything for they only paid what they owed.

What Newberry Missed.

We take the following from the Spartanburg correspondence to The News and Courier of the 12th instant, and publish it for the benefit of those who have seen it to criticize those who thought it best not to allow the "bull fight" to stop at Newberry. Newberry scarcely misses a first-class attraction, especially when they visit cities of this size:

"The town has survived the Mexican bull fight and the Boston Bloomers. Never did a poorer show visit the town. Aside from the big hats and unwashed graces, with an inferior band, there were no other attractions. They had in the ring one little measly bull that could not have been induced to fight a game rooster. There were two tough ponies ridden by tougher men; which pranced and cavorted around a little. But such shows attract little attention when they come, not drawing the small boy to any appreciable extent."

In Paying Quantities.

Colonel J. Y. Culbreath, a prominent attorney of the Newberry bar, was in town on Saturday last. He is very much interested in some prospective minor operations on his Saluda plantations. For some time he has had an expert making observations, and it is thought that precious metal exists in paying quantities in one or more localities—Saluda Cor. to Johnson Monitor.

DEATHS.

Mr. J. C. Hargrove died at his home in No 5 Township on Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock, at the age of 55 years. His death was sudden and unexpected, he having worked throughout the day before his death on his farm. He leaves a wife and five children who have the sympathy of many friends in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Thomas M. Hentz, a prominent man and a successful farmer, of near Walton, died at his home on Wednesday night at 11 o'clock. He had been quite sick for several days and his death was not unexpected. The cause of his death was congestion of the brain. He leaves a widow, one son, four daughters and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his death. He was a good citizen and one of the most successful farmers in the county.

COL. TILLMAN REMEMBERED.

A Beautiful Gold Medal Presented Him on Behalf of the Enlisted Men of the 1st S. C. V. I.

The enlisted men of the First South Carolina Regiment, through Hon. Cole, L. Blease, have presented Col. Jas. H. Tillman with a beautiful and valuable gold medal as a token of esteem for the favors and impartially shown his men while under him in the service of their country.

The medal is a large badge in the shape of a shield, with rifles crossed at the top—headed with "1st" at the top between the barrels and "S. C." at the bottom, between the butts of the rifles. The following words are prettily inscribed on the medal:

PRESENTED TO
COL. J. H. TILLMAN
BY ENLISTED MEN OF THE 1ST S. C. V. I.

Below we publish Mr. Blease's letter of presentation and the reply of Col. Tillman.

Col. Jas. H. Tillman, Edgefield, S. C.

Dear Colonel: The medal accompanying this letter was handed to me by Mr. Guy Daniels, a jeweler of this city and a member of the 1st South Carolina Vol. Inf., U. S. A., with the request that I present it to you on behalf of the enlisted men of that regiment as a token of their esteem for you, and in appreciation of the fairness and uniform courtesy that you at all times during their service showed to them, and after the gallant and honorable manner in which you conducted yourself during the services of that regiment, and further to show what esteem and friendship they had then and now have for you.

They hope, sir, that you will wear and cherish it so long as you may live, and that you may continue to prosper and rise higher and higher in the public service until you have reached the highest round on the ladder of fame, and that when your end shall come here, they hope that your soul may ascend to a home in Heaven to rest forever at peace with God.

Very respectfully,
COLE L. BLEASE.

Newberry, S. C., March 21, 1899.

Hon. Cole L. Blease, Newberry, S. C.:

My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter transmitting a handsome gold medal presented through you on behalf of the enlisted men of the 1st S. C. V. I. It is an evidence of esteem on their part which I sorely think I deserve, although I appreciate it deeply. Every act of mine while in the service was in the discharge of a well defined duty as an officer.

My fondest hope from the time that war was declared until it ended was that my regiment be sent to the front. This sentiment was cherished with doubled enthusiasm on the part of the officers and enlisted men, and had they been granted an opportunity, the regiment would have proved itself an invincible avalanche. It would have shown to the world that Southern gallantry subsists unimpaired, and is as changeless as the sea—the same in every age as now.

Please convey my grateful thanks. I am truly yours,
JAMES H. TILLMAN,
Late Col. 1st S. C. V. I.

Do Not Be Fooled

With the idea that any preparation your druggist may put up and try to sell you will purify your blood like Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has a reputation—it has earned its record. It is prepared under the personal supervision of educated pharmacists who know the nature, quality and medicinal effect of all the ingredients used. Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures all forms of blood disease when other medicines fail to do any good. It is the World's great Spring Medicine and the One True Blood Purifier.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS.

Henry P. Dominick Suing for the Possession of the Infant of Noah Taylor and Mary E. Taylor, Deceased.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock habeas corpus proceedings were had in the court house before Justice Y. J. Pope, brought by Henry P. Dominick, requesting the delivery to him of the infant child of Noah Taylor and Mary E. Taylor, deceased.

Mr. Dominick was represented by Messrs. Johnstone & Welch and Mr. Ezekiel Taylor and Mrs. Edith Taylor, by Messrs. O. L. Schampert and Hunt & Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Dominick, mother of Mrs. Noah Taylor, who died from wounds received at the hands of her husband a few weeks ago, were in court, as were also Mr. Ezekiel Taylor and Mrs. Edith Taylor, father and mother of Noah Taylor, who is now in jail awaiting trial for the murder of his wife, with the infant, four months old.

On the 30th day of March Mr. Henry P. Dominick was appointed by the Probate Judge guardian of the infant child of Mary E. and Noah Taylor, which child was then and is still in possession of Mrs. Edith Taylor, mother of Noah Taylor. He then sued out a writ of habeas corpus requesting the court to make the Taylors deliver the child to him.

In the mean time Mrs. Edith Taylor filed a petition in the Probate Court requesting the Court to revoke the guardianship appointment of Henry P. Dominick, and the Probate Judge issued an order directing Mr. Dominick to show cause on May 4th next why his appointment as guardian should not be revoked.

Judge Pope, after hearing argument on both sides, and on motion of O. L. Schumpert and Hunt & Hunt, postponed the hearing of the writ of habeas corpus until May 5th at 8:30 o'clock in the city of Columbia—one day after the hearing before the Probate Court.

READY TO BE MUSTERED OUT.

Physical Examination of the Second Regiment Completed and Next Wednesday the Boys will Start for Home.

(Special News and Courier.)

Headquarters 2d South Carolina Volunteer Infantry, Camp Mackenzie, Augusta, April 10.—The people of Orangeburg are preparing to give the soldiers who enlisted from that county a grand reception and banquet upon their return home, as already announced in The News and Courier. Mrs. J. L. Sorentrue, chairman of the committee, addressed an enthusiastic invitation to the Orangeburg volunteers, and regretted that the whole regiment could not be included. Col. Jones's reply to the invitation to be present has already been published.

The physical examinations have all been completed and the muster out rolls are finished and given to the mustering officers. The ordnance and quartermaster stores are being turned in today and everything will be ready for the regiment to be mustered out Wednesday of next week, the day appointed.

Nearly every officer in the regiment will have his pay held back, receiving only travel pay upon muster-out. The slowness of the war department in auditing accounts causes this.

Death of Associate Justice Field.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Justice Stephen J. Field, of the United States Supreme Court, died at his home on Capitol Hill, in this city, at 6:30 o'clock this evening of kidney complications. He was born at Haddam, Connecticut, November 14th, 1816. He was the son of David Dudley Field, and one of four brothers who became so famous, David Dudley, Cyrus W. and Henry M. Field being the other members of the great quartette that made their names known throughout the world.
