Well, Mr. Bill Snooks, of Bishopville, I am very sorry my name has caused you the trouble of writing the protest in issue of the 6th inst. I was asked to report the news from our town and, so far, have done the best I could.

The idea of becoming a writer like Bill Arp or Bill Nye has never crossed my mind. I have never fancied such writings and if I had chosen a name according to my fancy of a writer I certainly would not have chosen Bill. Well, I suppose by this time you have calmed down.

You must remember that occasionally we find two and even more persons of the same name. I have in mind now two persons named John, and to distinguish them we call one "Big John" and the other "Little John." So, the best way I know how to settle the matter is to make these additions. Unless you are an over-seer and from necessity have your clothes tailor-made I shall hereafter sign Big Bill. Come on, now, and give us the news from Lee County.

Bill Snooks, of Prosperity. Dec. 14, 1901.

Glad to hear that little Armer, Loeck is some better, he is a pupil in our Sunday school.

Mrs. Sue Kibler, we are sorry to state, is confined to her bed and is very low.

We are enjoying eating plenty of nice rabbit. P.S.H. Dec. 18, 1901.

A New Remedy: The old friends of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be pleased to know that the manufacturers of that preparation have gotten out a new remedy called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and that it is meeting with much success in the treatment of constipation, biliousness, sick headache, impaired digestion and like disorders.

These Tablets are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills, they not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and correct any disorders of the stomach and liver. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Obituary: Mrs. Rosa Smith died on Tuesday, the 10th day of December 1901. If she had lived until next month she would have reached her 81st birthday. Her maiden name was Sloan and she was a sister of Mr. Archibald Jones Sloan, of this county. After her marriage to Mr. Smith they removed to Alabama and he served in a regiment of Confederate volunteers from that State. As a widow she returned to her native country and took up the hard task of making a living in those troubled times and independently of charity or her claims on her kindred or her bounty of the State. For thirty two years she was housekeeper for Mr. James Y. Harris and since his death for Mr. Monroe Harris. For that long period she filled that humble position with much faithfulness and energy that she gained not only the confidence of her employers, but the affectionate esteem of her neighbors and all other persons who had the opportunity of observing her quiet life. It was an illustration of the wise old couplet: "Honor and shame from no condition rise. Aot walt your part, there all the honor lies."

A Good Cough Medicine: [From Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia.] I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. Wookner. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wookner. This remedy is sold by W. E. Pelham & Son.

That Cough Hangs On. You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce a gripe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION. Will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks.
