BAUGHMAN CHAPEL LETTER
All the News Around Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Interestingly Told by T. J. W.

It should be a source of pleasure to all lovers of peace and harmony to see that our county campaign has started out on a high plane.

There were about 400 people present, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves mingling together as Christian people always ought to do in a quiet and peaceful manner.

The cue was furnished by James and George Richardson, and was a tip-top dinner. In fact Jolly Street is down on record for a place to get good barbecue dinners.

Miss Cora Dominick resumed her school at Union Academy this morning. There will be communion services at Bachman Chapel next Sunday with preparatory services on Saturday evening previous.

Mr. N. G. Gallman is working in the Newberry Roller Mills. Mr. Jno. C. Turner, of O'Neal section, spent last Wednesday night with Thos. L. B. Epps and family, and Thursday night with Mr. Epps.

Miss Olive Feagle has been attending the summer school at Newberry. J. Y. Floyd, candidate for County Supervisor, spent Wednesday night with Mr. Thos. Epps.

Mr. William W. Cromer, who is a candidate for Auditor, and Mr. R. H. Kibler of Long Lane, spent Thursday night with Mr. Epps.

Our editor won't have much time for writing editorials for the next six weeks, therefore we must excuse him. He has got a great big hump on his back and will make the rest of his boys rack who beat him.

learn that there was plenty of dinner on the grounds to feed everybody. After dinner Messrs. Jno. C. Gogans, J. Simpson Dominick, and Rev. A. McA. Pittman made an excellent address. The church was filled and a number of people had to stay outside.

Messrs. J. Simpson and E. S. Dominick, of Chappell's, spent the 12th and 13th in this section. Miss Lillie Epting of Derrieks, Lexington County, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Dominick of Chappell's.

Candidates are buzzing around like the busy little bee, shaking hands with all the people they meet, and trying to make all the friends they can, which a number of them are going to need on the day of the primary.

The cotton and corn crops as a rule are very good in this section. Rain is needed again for old corn.

The county Interdenominational Sunday-school convention will meet with Zion M. E. church this year. A number of our people expect to attend the reunion at Little Mountain August 1st.

TILLMAN VS. G. P. VON KOLNITZ, JR. The latter is a candidate for the State Senate. And Tillman Says If Charleston Sends Him to State Senate, That County May Look Out.

Senator Tillman has put Mr. George Von Kolnitz a candidate for the State senate, from Charleston under the ban, and he declares that if Mr. VonKolnitz is elected he will never do another thing for Charleston.

The situation becomes doubly interesting for the reason that Mr. VonKolnitz is thus far without opposition in his canvass. Mr. Joseph W. Barwell determined some time ago not to stand for reelection to the senate, leaving the field undisputed to Mr. VonKolnitz.

Senator Tillman's opposition to VonKolnitz is based on VonKolnitz's support of the Republican party platform and candidates in the campaign of 1896.

It is known that recently certain interests opposed to Mr. VonKolnitz endeavored to have the State executive committee rule him out of the primary on account of his former political affiliations.

The action of the senator in interfering with the election here is, of course, resented by many people. Cholera at Pekin

Senator Vest does not regard it as of importance that the Democrats should carry the next House of Representatives, as the Republicans would still have the President and the Senate.

THE SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

Forman Gives the Age and Birthplace of Each. Those of your readers who are interested in the campaign now going on in South Carolina, for United States Senator, will probably be interested to learn something about the ages of the six candidates, and we therefore give below a table stating where and when the candidates were born.

William Elliot, of Beaufort, born there September, 1838, and is now 63 years old. George Johnstone, of Newberry, born there April, 1846, and is 56 years old.

Dan S. Henderson, of Aiken, born at Walterboro, April, 1849, and is now 53 years old. John J. Hemphill, of Chester, born there August, 1849, and will be 53 next month.

Asbury C. Latimer, of Anderson county, born in Abbeville county on the last day of July, 1851, and is nearly 51 years old. John Gary Evans, of Spartanburg, was born in what is now Greenwood county, October, 1863, and is now 38 years old.

It will be noticed that both the candidates whose names commence with H—Henderson and Hemphill—were born the same year. Al. the candidates are native Carolinians. McDonald Farman, Privateer, Sumter Co. July 16, 1902.
