$100 GIVEN AWAY.

We want some subscriber of The Herald and News to bring us two pumpkins of his own raising so that we may use them as we did a few years ago. We are going to give our subscribers the opportunity to guess at the number of seed in the pumpkins and we expect to give away in prizes more than $100, the first prize to be a handsome buggy. Everyone who pays as much as $1.50 on subscription shall be entitled to one guess, and one guess for each additional $1.50. Those who have already paid shall not be cut out, for each subscriber who has paid anything since the first of September shall be entitled to a guess for each $1.50 he has paid. And every subscriber who is paid in advance shall have one guess, provided, he is one year in advance at the date of his guess.

We propose to be absolutely fair to every subscriber and your guess can be recorded at any time after the pumpkins are secured and we will have them this week. The rules and prizes will be announced in the next paper. The prizes are absolutely free as you pay nothing extra for the privilege of guessing. Now is the time to pay your subscription and to subscribe and take a chance at the handsome prizes we will give away. You remember the handsome Rock Hill buggy we gave away a few years ago.

A POPULAR SCHEDULE.

The present morning schedule from Columbia and Charleston suits us alright but the schedule that would be popular in this section and of benefit to the people along the line as well as to the people of Greenville and Columbia, would be a morning train from Greenville to Columbia arriving in Columbia about 10 o'clock. If the Greenville News wants to do something that will help it and at the same time be popular and a public convenience and, we believe, also profitable to the road which will inaugurate it, let it take up the fight for such a schedule. It will have the co-operation and support of the people down this way.

Before the double service was put on between Greenville and Columbia adding the early train from Columbia we had petitions from the towns along the line and a meeting at Greenwood at which committees were appointed to confer with the railroad officials and finally the train was run.

The editor of The Herald and News agitated this additional schedule for a long time and had petitions circulated and we acted as chairman of the Greenwood meeting and chairman of the committee to confer with the railroad and afterwards had a conference with Mr. Hardwick who came to Columbia to meet us. We have always found the railroads ready to listen to the requests of the people and to give all the service they possibly can without loss. A morning train from this section to Columbia could be run with profit we believe. We would like to see the people along the line take the matter up and present it to the railroads.

We have it on pretty good authority that if the C. & W. C. would bring a passenger train to Laurens Mr. Childs would arrange to take it on to Columbia and return it in the afternoon. Here is something for our brethren in Greenville to take up. We know that Mr. Childs the past summer thought very seriously of putting on such a train from Laurens, in fact he said to us on one occasion he was going to inaugurate it about the first of August, but for some reason he did not.

Columbia people should use their influence for such a train because it would be to their interests to have it. It would be a good train for Greenville as well. Let us all pull together and convince the railroad it would pay and at the same time be a public convenience. This is the only section which does not have a morning train to the capital.

The Herald and News has arranged with the News and Courier to send the semi-weekly News and Courier and The Herald and News to any who desire both papers for $2 per year. Sample copies of the News and Courier will be sent to any of our subscribers who may desire to receive the paper. This combination will give you the news of the county, the State and the world at the low price of $2 for one year—208 papers, less than one cent apiece.

The primary election to nominate a mayor and aldermen for the next year will be held next Tuesday. It is an important duty each elector owes to himself and his town to go to the polls and cast his ballot for the best interests of the community. Our town is now at the crisis point and much depends on the men put at the head of affairs.

In two weeks we will have the Methodist Conference with us. The Conference has grown since it last met with us and so has the town. We will give the Conference a royal welcome and hospitable entertainment.

We have had some of the most delightful weather for the past week or more ever experienced. And yet we are told there has been more rain this fall than usual.

Clifton Flour.

In the best flour for the health of your family, the best flour for good, palatable baking, the best to use at any and all times, Hayes & McCarty, E. R. Hipp and L. W. Cosby keep it.

Some excellent work has recently been done in the city streets. We would like to see the good work continue until every street in Newberry is in as good condition as the portion of Caldwell street between Jameson's corner and the Baptist church. Then we would like to see Newberry county take up the matter and put each and every one of the county roads in good condition. Nothing would add more to the general prosperity and happiness of our people.

The "evils of official absenteeism" seem to be worrying the editor of the Columbia Record a good deal just at present. While it is a fact that all State officers ought to live in Columbia, we do not believe affairs in the State house are in quite as bad condition as the Record would have us believe. However, we would be glad to have the Record go more into detail in regard to the "striking" law compelling State officers to stay in Columbia and devote their time to the business of the State, which it would like to have enacted. It strikes us an account of some of its workings, if enforced, would make interesting reading.

Thank God for Orphans.

We have a thousand things to thank God for. But did you ever thank Him for the privilege of caring for orphan children? It is a privilege. Every orphanage is His special care. He is the God of the fatherless. He blesses those who bless His little ones.

Let Jew and Gentile, Protestant and Catholic alike, use Thanksgiving Day for the blessed privilege of helping the little ones of the great King.

At the Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C., there are two hundred of these orphans, the little brothers and sisters of all the great company of loving hearts. Their parentage represents every denomination of the church; orphans of Masons and Odd Fellows, Knights of Honor and Pythians, are in the ranks of the little ones; they come from every Southern State and some Northern ones. No agent is in the field begging for their support; the church sets apart no special day for collections. Whosoever will may help and in any suitable way.

Send provisions simply to "Thornwell Orphanage", Clinton, S. C. Send gifts of money to Rev. Dr. Jacobs, Clinton, S. C.

If you do not help this orphanage, remember there are others.

Fairview Dots.

We are having some fine weather for sowing grain, digging potatoes, and all such fall work.

Most of our farmers are putting in a large crop of grain. The potato crop was the best in several years.

Mrs. Mattie M. Baker spent last Saturday night in Prosperity.

Mr. David I. Fulmer is very ill. We hope to see him out again soon.

Ervin Long and brothers have moved their saw mill near the old Dutel ford.

Mr. Ebbie Mayer is sawing shingles near Bethel church.

Mr. Marion Long is building a neat store house at his home. Mr. Long will have in a new stock of goods in a few days, and will be glad to serve his many friends.

Mr. Marion Dominick who had the misfortune to get his hand mashed in a piece of machinery some time ago, is getting along nicely.

Our school at Fairview is progressing nicely under the management of Mrs. Lottie Dickert as teacher.

There will be preaching at Mr. James C. Moore's on the fifth Sunday evening at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore are talking of moving to Prosperity soon.

I think the wedding bells will soon ring in this community. I am always glad to hear them ring. J. M. M.

A HORRIBLE TALE OF THE SEA.

Of Sixteen Persons on a Raft, But Eight Survived.

London, Nov. 17.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Wellington, N. Z., telegraphs that the eight survivors from the wreck of the British steamer Elingamite, who were rescued on a raft by the British survey steamer Penguin, went through a dreadful experience. The raft from which they were taken measured only twelve feet long by seven feet wide, and had sixteen persons on it when it left the wreck. The only food on board was two apples. The first apple was consumed on Tuesday and the second on Wednesday, each being divided into sixteen portions.

From Sunday, the day they were wrecked, until Thursday, when they were rescued, the survivors drifted sixty miles on the half submerged raft.

Several attempts were made to land on Three Kings' Islands, but without success. Three men died on Monday night from drinking salt water. All of the survivors suffered the tortures of thirst, and four other men and the stewardess died of exhaustion before they were picked up by the Penguin. They had a cruel disappointment on Tuesday night. A steamer was sighted in the distance and frantic shouts were raised by those of the raft to attract attention. The steamer lowered a boat, which passed within fifty yards of them, but the boat's crew apparently did not see the raft and returned to their vessel.

When the Penguin was sighted only one of the survivors was able to stand. They were terribly emaciated.
