Does our Moses propose to share his profits with us, or let us off Scott free? Are we Scott free or only Mo'se'sic?

The Fourth Annual Fair of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society will open in Columbia November 4th, and close with the 8th.

Mr. Frank P. Beard, editor and proprietor of the "Temperance Advocate," has located in Camden, and will hereafter issue his paper there.

We call attention of the citizens of our town to the notice of Mr. Kirk Robinson, who has been appointed collector of taxes. Come up and pay at once.

ATTENTION; HO, FOR THE FAIR.

Mr. T. W. Albergotti gives notice that he expects to furnish refreshments and a dinner at the Fair. Tickets for dinner 75 cents, other refreshments extra.

James Robinson, the great bareback rider, and his mammoth circus and trained animals exposition are taking the people by storm.

The County Fair will bring everybody to our town one day or another during its continuance. A few moments of their stay will be most probably spent in calling at the Office of the ORANGEBURG TIMES and subscribing to it.

Now is the moment for enterprising business men to send us their cards and advertisements. Our County Fair meets next week, and you will have the best possible show that will be offered during this year.

Election day passed off very quietly in our community, without any noise or row. Byas got down some fine smiles of the Jamison ticket the evening before election.

We are pained to hear that nearly all hope of the recovery of our estimable pastor, Rev. Mr. Mellichamp, have been abandoned.

We regret to announce the demise of Mrs. George Boliver, which took place about noon of yesterday in our village. Mrs. Boliver was a Miss Doseher, a niece of Mrs. Ollendorff, and a Cousin to the lady of our Mayor, Captain F. H. W. Briggmann.

As we go to press we enjoy the lullaby of a long needed and copious rain. It has been falling the greater portion of the afternoon, and promises to make frost a fixed fact every day, and to make the water powers and wells of the County furnish the supply so long withheld.

We regret to hear from our accommodating Post Master, Mr. F. DeMars, that he contemplates leaving our town. Though Republican in politics, Mr. DeMars is not in harmony with the extreme or Radical wing of our opponents who have swept the State at the recent election.

Straus showed which way the wind blew—An enterprising townsman of ours, being desirous of voting what most patriots did at the election, a bolters' ticket rather overdid the matter. He runs a grist mill, and had just received and filled an order for a quantity of "bolted and unbolted grist."

In the case of the State vs. George Tupper, indicted for murder, the grand jury found a true bill.

The Orangeburg Times, please notice gives regularly to its readers the latest Rail Road, Post Office, Express and market reports. It also furnishes all the legal notices of County interest, whether emanating from our County seat or from the State Capital.

Cold weather holds its own and more. We have had ice here. A long drought has dried up the streams which supplied our water mills, that have stopped leaving unsupplied a demand for lumber, that argues favorably for the enterprise of our town.

Those parties who have not paid up their subscription will please recollect that it requires money to run a paper; as much as to run any other business.

Please make it, if possible, convenient to pay for your paper or write a letter asking that it be discontinued.

THE SINGER STILL TRIUMPHANT!

WITH ATTACHMENTS FOR ALL KINDS OF WORK is fast winning favor in the household, as shown by the rapidly increasing sales. This NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is capable of a range and variety of work such as was once thought impossible to perform by machinery. We claim and can show that it is the cheapest, most beautiful, delicate, arranged, nicely adjusted, easily operated and most fully running of all the Family Sewing Machines. It is remarkable not only for the range and variety of its sewing, but also for the variety and different kinds of texture which it will sew with equal facility and perfection, using all twist, linen or cotton thread, fine or heavy, and the interlocked-elastic web, also the high ridges of the fabric sewed. The heavier cloth, or leather may be sewed with great strength and uniformity of stitch; and, in a moment, this willing and never wearying instrument may be adjusted for fine work of dress or gossamer tissue, or the tacking of curtains, or quilting, or almost any other work which delicate fingers have been known to perform. At the world's fair it received the great award of the highest sales. J. K. White, Agent. Office at Engine House, Orangeburg, S. C. June 6
