Patrons of Husbandry.

Orange Grange No. 24, meets the fourth Friday in each month at 11 o'clock A. M. in the Basement of the Presbyterian Church.

Pomona Orange meets quarterly on the first Saturdays of January, April, July and October. Hour of meeting, 11 o'clock A. M., place of meeting, the Basement of the Presbyterian Church.

LOCAL.

Friday cold and clear.

The Edisto is as full as it can hold of the pure stuff—water.

Dr. Hydrick's new drug store is nearly completed.

See notice of Mr. P. W. Fairy in another column.

Col. J. C. Edwards will accept thanks of this office for favors on the night of the 23rd ult.

The new brick building of Messrs. Strauss & Co. will soon be ready for business.

Mr. Luther Reckenbakers advertisement appears in a new form in this issue. Read it.

Mr. A. D. Dempsey will remain here only two weeks longer.

A. Fischer has a full stock of fresh family groceries, besides many other articles too numerous to mention, which he is offering at bottom prices.

Dr. A. C. Dukes has received his usually large supply of toys and other Christmas goods. A word to the wise &c.

At a meeting of the Agricultural Society on Saturday last the old officers were elected to a man. No better men could have been selected, for so important positions.

We are informed by Mr. S. R. Mellichamp, the Clerk of the Board of School Trustees of Orange Township, that the Trustees are now ready to receive applications for teaching public schools in this Township. All interested had better hand in their applications within ten days.

On Tuesday evening last Mr. W. P. Brunson to Miss Nora Neuffer, and on Thursday night Messrs Willie and Alfred Jones, the former to Miss Clara Wiles and the latter to Miss Corrie Wannamaker. Our best wishes for the future happiness and prosperity are extended to the above happy parties.

Sometime ago an ordinance was passed by the Town Council imposing a fine on all persons caught with a sling shot on the streets. The Marshals inform us that the above ordinance will from this date on will be rigidly enforced. Look out young men and boys or you will get in trouble.

Mr. W. F. Robinson is now receiving the celebrated Landreth's & Son's garden seeds for Spring planting. He is also prepared to mend your watches, clocks, rings or anything else in that line on the shortest notice and in the best manner. Don't forget to notice his new sign, painted by Mr. Audie Kinsdale and drop in as you pass up or down Russel street.

As our readers will soon be in search of Christmas goods we take the pleasure in directing them to the popular and well filled drug store of Mr. Wannamaker's. There you will find toys, toilet sets and many other nice articles suited for presents, besides a complete stock of drugs, paints, brushes, combs &c. All of which will be found cheap and of the best quality.

Messrs. Strauss & Co. requests us to say that they will not from this time on buy rough rice unless thoroughly cleansed of all straw, chaff and dirt. They have been very heavy losers in the past from the above causes. Their mill is in the best of order and they are prepared to accommodate the public generally with first class rice, first and meal on short notice. A call is respectfully solicited.

The Causeway near the Lake bridge is in a fearful and dangerous condition, and if not worked upon soon the Forker will have to find some other way to get to Town. What's our C. C.'s doing?

Seventh Anniversary of the Elliotts! A Happy and Festive Evening!

On Friday evening this gallant corps of young firemen celebrated their Seventh Anniversary, and with their brother fireman and invited guests spent a jovial time. The following toasts and sentiments were offered and appropriately responded to by the several speakers:

1st. "The Day we Celebrate." With happy hearts and joy elate With civic mirth and pomp and state, With festive scene returns this date, Our anniversary; and with its mate, Our Patron's birth-day commemorate— Our Elliott in his goodness great— Together on the day we celebrate.

2d. "The Young Americas." The Young Americas sends a stream, no dribble, Under command of President Dibble. Responded to by Hon. Samuel Dibble.

3d. "Our City Fathers." A fireman himself our honored Mayor, Will ever find a welcome here. Responded to by Mayor J. W. Moseley.

4th. "The Board of Fire Masters." When the grim fire-fiend has kindled his ire, And fills our homes with dismay, Let every good man be prompt at the fire, And ready "his Chief" to obey! Responded to by Harpin Riggs, Esq.

5th. "Our City." May peace and plenty richly bless "Our city" by the river, And may the pulpit and the press Be her hopes forever.

6th. "Our Country." May her store houses swell with plenty; and her fields blossom with grain. May her sires be honest and true; her patrons frugal and happy; her sons noble and brave; and her maidens lovely and fair.

7th. "Our Invited Guests." Though humble the banquet to which we invite you, 'Tis the offering prompted at friendship's behest; Hearts flowing with welcome are ready to greet you, May genuine pleasure be the part of each guest.

8th. "The Judiciary." The Judicial power—the fortress of the Constitution! With honest Ajax, I would not only throw a shield before it—I would build around it a wall of brass.

9th. "The Press." A free press—dissociated from all rings—is the scourge of the unjust public steward and the hope and safety of the State.

10th. "The Literature of our State." Monumentum, aere perennius." Responded to by John A. Hamilton, Esq.

11th. "The Signs of the Times." We paint by the solar ray—we communicate by the Telephone—we annihilate time with steam! Let patriotism bind as the iron bars the continent—let public spirit shoot with the electric spark and bring hearts into constant communication!

12th. "Our Citizen Soldier." "In time of peace prepare for war" Are words by wisdom spoken, But never again by Mars' red ear, May our fair land be riven.

13th. "Our Governor." "Hampton—a name to which history furnishes few equals in military renown—our Murat in war—none in moral grandeur. He realizes in actual life the dreams of ideal chivalry. Hero without a shade of affectation or display. The man who would neither despair of his country nor conspire against her conquerors. The ideal soldier and perfect citizen—a Christian without pretension and a gentleman without flaw."

14th. "Woman." Morning star in infancy—lay star through life— evening star in age. Responded to by Major T. B. Whaley.

The Committee of Arrangements deserve credit for their successful management of the supper.

All the family can be relieved from the horrible plague of worms by one 25 cent bottle of Shriner's Indian Vermifuge. It is meritorious. Try it.

ADVICE GRATIS—

The Hon. Alexander H. Stevens says:—"The Globe Flower Cough Syrup has proven a most valuable remedy to me."

Gov. James M. Smith, of Georgia, says:—"I shall always use it with perfect confidence, and recommend it to the public as a remedy which will afford that satisfaction experienced by me and mine. It excels everything for coughs, colds and obstinate lung affections."

Ex-Gov. Brown, of Ga., says: "He finds the Globe Flower Cough Syrup a most excellent remedy."

Such endorsement by our great and good men deserves the attention of the afflicted. Those suffering from cough, colds and lung affections should use the Globe Flower Cough Syrup. It will positively cure consumption.
