The Election. Tuesday last may safely be put down as one of the proudest days in the history of our town.

Mr. George Boliver, the controlling Radical of our county, was or would be a candidate, notwithstanding the Democrat asserted the fact three weeks before the election.

We know human nature is very ready to forget a wrong—indeed to forgive the meanest cruelty—but we assert that the transactions of this period ought not to be forgotten or forgiven by the colored people of the South.

The Farmers' Aid Association. This institution, recently changed from the Patrons' to the Farmers' Aid Association, held a meeting on Saturday last at which business of importance was transacted.

General Grant. President Grant, after being lionized all over Europe and Asia, sailed from Japan a few weeks ago and is now on his way to the United States.

Not Flesh of One and Bone of Another. Some time ago the United States Treasurer issued orders to pay all the government employees 10 per cent of their salaries in silver dollars.

The Negro and their Friends. The negro and the Radicals have been intimately mixed with each other ever since emancipation.

ry relationship of life being filled to the complete satisfaction of the two. In enterprise the white Radical was leader and the negro follower; in politics the white carpet-bagger and scallawag were officeholders and the negro voter, and in money matters the white Radical was banker and the negro was depositor—all for the protection of the nation's wards.

Investigations carried on under Democratic auspices have revealed such enormities as the world never dreamed of and not one stands higher in the catalogue of crime than the Freedman's Savings Bank swindle, commenced at Port Royal under the direction of the Freedman's Bureau and consummated at Washington under the tender mercies of Grant and Hayes' administrations.

We think it is high time this farce should end, and our Democratic Congress might take the matter in hand and provide some way by which justice might be done to thousands of our colored citizens whose misplaced confidence in their Republican friends has entailed upon them suffering and loss.

We know human nature is very ready to forget a wrong—indeed to forgive the meanest cruelty—but we assert that the transactions of this period ought not to be forgotten or forgiven by the colored people of the South.

Jay Gould. Among the wealthy men of the United States, this gentleman perhaps stands at the head of the list. His entire life has been spent in the busy whirl of trade, and the more than princely fortune he possesses, has been accumulated by a series of successful speculations that have added little to his character of a benevolent gentleman.

Europe. Every day brings fresh proofs of the highly dangerous condition of affairs in Europe. England has her hands full fighting the negroes of South Africa, while the other powers are quarrelling over violated treaties and broken faith.
