ORANGEBURG, S. C., JULY 23 1880.

NOTICE.—We have made arrangements with the proprietors of the News and Courier to club their mammoth Weekly with the Democrat at $3 per annum, for both papers, cash in advance.

MARRIED, in the Baptist Church at Lewisville, on the 13th of July, by the Rev. D. F. Spigner, Rev. J. H. Stoudenmire, of Orangeburg County, to Miss Mamie E. Rowe, of Barnwell County.

If the party who sent a communication to this office signed "K. V.," will furnish us with his name, the communication will be published. Otherwise it will be consigned to the waste basket.

OFF TO GLENN SPRINGS.—Hon. J. W. Mosely left on Wednesday morning for Glenn Springs. Our town is well represented at the watering places of the up-country already and we hear of others who propose to go.

The lonely vigils of the night are terrible, especially by the bedside of the sick, and it is just the thing to have a bottle of Coussens' Honey of Tar to cure their coughs, cold, croup, etc. Price 50c. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

OFF FOR THE SPRINGS.—Mr. V. V. S. Austin, a worthy citizen of the Fork, who has been suffering from a complication of diseases for a number of years, left on the 16th instant for Glenn Springs. We hope he will be improved by the trip.

SOME TREE.—A wood cutter on the plantation of Capt. J. G. Wannamaker, at Stillton, cut a pine tree, about four feet in diameter and left fully one half cord over. Strange to say, a minnie ball was found buried in the centre of the tree.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Gen. James F. Izlar, who is a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee left on Wednesday for Columbia, to attend one of its sessions. We trust a vigorous campaign will be inaugurated and be aggressively conducted. Such a one will win.

EDGEFIELD CO., S. C., April 9, 1879.—Dr. L. T. Hill:—I hereby certify that I have used your Hepatic Panacea, for diseases of Liver and Dyspepsia. I can safely say that it has benefited me more than any other medicine I have ever taken. E. P. Addison. For sale by S. A. Reeves.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Our friends of the County Executive Committee will remember that a meeting is called for to-morrow, and a full attendance is very desirable. Let a zeal and enthusiasm attend this first meeting of the campaign which will characterized all future meetings and be an earnest of our final success.

A FORTY DAYS FAST.—A doctor named Tanner has begun a forty days fast in New York. He is under the supervision of physicians and watchers whose duty it is to see that he gets nothing to eat. He completed his twentieth day last Saturday and though he has grown somewhat thin and emaciated he still says he intends to pull through.

DEATH OF MRS. E. E. AYERS.—The announcement of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Ayers, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sandel, on Monday morning last will be received with sadness by her many friends throughout the country. Though a sufferer for a long time, she was only confined to her bed since Thursday last. Mrs. Ayers had lived to a good old age before she died and during that time met all the responsibilities of life as a faithful christian and kind neighbor.

DEATH OF MR. T. H. BAUKNIGHT.—We regret to hear of the death of Mr. T. H. Baughtnight, which occurred at his home near the Santee on Wednesday evening a week, after a long illness from Typhoid fever. Mr. Baughtnight had not long moved into our county from Edgefield and settled himself comfortably before his illness. He was a gentleman of unusual promise and his death is regretted by every one. He leaves a wife and child, to whom we tender our sympathies.

BREVETTES.—Thank you. Send for us often.

We would consider it a favor, yes, that's the way we'll put it, if our subscribers who know they are delinquent will send in their small contribution. It will save a deal of time and trouble to the office.

It is said that a Garfield and Arthur ratification meeting will be held by the Richland County Radicals in Columbia on July 31. Has anybody heard whether the sly leaders of Orangeburg are making any move in this direction?

A bachelor suffering with a cold was handed a dose of Coussens' Honey of Tar by his sister. "What is it?" he asked. "Elixir Asthmatis; it will make you feel ecstatic." He replied, "You are very systematic." Down went Honey of Tar and cured his cough. Price 50c. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

NEW ENGINE.—Our sister town, Aiken, has received her steam fire engine, and has subjected the machine to a most thorough trial. It is of the Button patent, and from the excellent manner in which she responded to the test, we judge her to be second only to "Uncle Joe" in beauty and excellency of performance. We congratulate our progressive neighbor.

WHITE LACE.—Mr. J. I. Sorentue is in receipt of a full supply of White Lace, which he proposes to sell at the lowest prices, ranging from two to twenty-five cents per yard—fifty per cent. cheaper than the same goods can be purchased elsewhere—also some very fine Sids-laced Corsets at five and seventy-five cents a piece. Give him a call—it will save you money.

CONSIGNEES.—List of consignees at South Carolina Railroad for unclaimed freight for week ending July 22d, 1880: C. Pearce, J. J. Salley, M. A. Davis, W. A. Johnson, R. W. Bates, J. H. Staley, E. A. Davis, T. A. Jones, David Gray, J. H. Fordham, B. H. Barton, Mrs. E. Frost, T. J. F. Walsh, T. L. Smith, P. R. Pearson, J. F. Way, R. A. Carson, W. S. Barton, J. K. Hat & Co., W. H. Dautzler, R. F. Way.

CANDIDATES.—It would be right hard to throw a rock now in any direction without hitting a candidate. An Anderson paper speaking of the multiplicity of candidates in Edgefield expresses the fear that when election day comes there will not be enough disinterested men in the County to count the votes. Orangeburg has not got that far along yet; but she will have enough to fill all the offices.

NINETY-SIX, S. C., April 14, 1879.—Dr. L. T. Hill:—I have been suffering from indigestion and dyspepsia for some time; had no appetite, and was very restless at night. I purchased a bottle of your Hepatic Panacea, and was surprised how rapidly I improved after taking a few doses. I used one bottle, and now I rest well at night and have a good appetite. B. J. Spratt. For sale by S. A. Reeves.

COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU, composed of buchu leaves, dandelion root, acetate potash, juniper berries, paezia brava, and calinsonia root. All of which are highly valued diuretics, kidney stimulants and depurants. The failure of the actions of the kidneys is a source of many distressing diseases. This medicine produces a hearty action of the kidneys, removes from the blood the urea and uric acid, which if allowed to remain and accumulate would induce rheumatism, gouty affections, pains in back and loins. This valuable medicine is for sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker. Price 75 cents per bottle.

CONCERT.—"R." writing to the Democrat from St. Matthews, says: "Several ladies and gentlemen, assisted by young ladies of Charleston and Camden, intend giving at the Masonic Hall on Thursday evening, the 29th instant, a concert to conclude with a laughable farce, entitled the "Rough Diamond." The entertainment has been gotten up for the purpose of raising funds for the Baptist Church and Izlar Lodge. The music will be executed and controlled by capable performers and the farce by competent amateurs, who are uniting in their efforts to make the entertainment a complete success. Come up, Messrs. Editors, and bring a crowd with you."

A PLEASANT LITTLE EPISODE.—On Monday evening last at a meeting of the Edisto Rifles, Gen. J. F. Izlar in behalf of the company and in a very touching speech presented Capt. Samuel Dibble with a handsome sword as a testimonial of the high esteem in which he is held as an officer by the command. Capt. Dibble, being entirely ignorant of the purpose of his company, was not a little surprised but, ever equal to an emergency of this kind, received the beautiful token of his men's love with a short speech that expressed infinitely more than the words implied. The sword will be kept bright in the service of his country and, in future years, serve as a memento of this period with its associations and scenes that is even now dear to his heart. A short drill on the court-house square by moonlight, ended this pleasant episode in the company's history.

Good Seasons for the crops have prevailed since Wednesday noon. The much needed rains have fallen and we may expect to see happy farmers this week. We regret, however, that in some sections the corn crop is beyond hope and will make not more than half a yield. This damage may be repaired in the fall by a heavy sowing of oats and preparation for this work ought to be made during the time of rest between laying by and picking cotton. A heavy pea crop will help to fill up the break in the corn.

FAREWELL.—It is always a source of regret to part with one who has long been intimately connected with us in any capacity whatever, but when that connection involves an equal share of our labors, our fortunes and misfortunes, and our prosperity and adversity as that which has so long existed between the Democrat and Mr. J. S. Erwin, the regret becomes deeper and the goodbye is spoken with a feeling little known save by those who have passed through similar trials. We regret, therefore, to announce that Mr. Erwin, who has been connected with the Democrat as compositor from its inception, will leave for his home in Florida to-morrow. We wish him a safe trip to the bosom of his family, and every success in life one friend can wish another, and in doing so we but express the sentiment of the entire community among whom Mr. Erwin's amiable disposition, gentlemanly deportment and sterling worth have won for him a host of friends.

SERENADE.—Hon. Samuel Dibble, who left in June to attend the National Democratic Convention at Cincinnati, as one of the delegates from the Second Congressional District, returned with his family to their home on Saturday last after an absence of more than a month in Connecticut with relations and elsewhere at the North sight-seeing and pleasure seeking. On Saturday evening after his return several citizens with the Edisto Band visited his residence to give him an impromptu serenade by way of expressing their high appreciation of his services at the Convention and joy at the safe arrival of himself and family. Mr. Dibble, in response to a call from the crowd, appeared and returned thanks for the honor done him in a feeling and appropriate speech, in which he spoke encouragingly of the ticket nominated and of the enthusiasm excited throughout the North by the unity with which Gen. Hancock and Mr. English were put in the field. Mr. Dibble looks well and will address himself to the conduct of the campaign in Orangeburg, for which under his experienced leadership we predict a glorious success for the Democracy.

THE LECTURE.—As announced in our last issue, Prof. J. W. Stokes of Tennessee, delivered a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association on Monday evening last. The audience was a decided improvement upon the past, but instead of being delivered before forty or fifty persons, the entire town ought to have heard it. The subject, "The Young Men's Christian Association, its work and results," was treated in a manner differing from the old style, and made entertaining by its novelty enjoyable by its eloquence and instructive by its varied information. It has seldom been our lot to spend an hour more pleasantly and profitably than during the delivery of this lecture which was both clear and classical, embodying elegance of diction, beauty of composition and accuracy of reasoning. Mr. Stokes is a son of Mr. Jas. Stokes of our county and, partly educated in our town under the tuition of Mr. Jas. S. Hayward, now of Williamsburg County, is therefore a young man in whom we feel more than ordinary interest. After spending a short vacation among us with relations and friends, he returns to his field of labor where we wish him every success in life.

DEATH OF MR. S. E. RICKENBAKER.—No sudden visitation of Providence ever fell with more sadness upon a community than that which cut Mr. Rickenbaker off in the midst of his usefulness. On Saturday last he visited the Dean Swamp neighborhood in company with his son-in-law, Rev. Ransom Parler, for the purpose of engaging in a protracted meeting at the church in that section. Tuesday morning he was requested to conduct the prayer meeting and while in the act of praying he was noticed by the congregation to pause an unusual length of time. A few persons, looking around to know the cause, saw him peculiarly affected and hastened to his relief. He was gently laid on the floor where he immediately died. Mr. Rickenbaker was a leading member of the Baptist Church and was ever found true to the faith he professed. His religion was a living principle to control his conversation with and intercourse among his neighbors and therefore he was a man of influence not only in the church but in the community in which he lived. In many respects he was a remarkable man having accomplished more than most men under the circumstances. He was a man of indomitable energy and perseverance which kept him constantly in advance of his fellows. An earnest Christian, he sought the well-being of his neighbors as well as his own and was therefore a zealous advocate of popular education. In his sad death the Church has lost one of its strongest supporters, the community a most excellent neighbor and the county an excellent citizen. It may truly be said that Mr. Rickenbaker died with the full armor on and in the discharge of the noblest duty. He leaves a large family to mourn their loss.

Sunday School Convention.
 The Orangeburg County Baptist Sunday School Convention convened at Branchville on Friday, the 16th instant, at noon, in the Baptist church. The following officers were unanimously re-elected to serve the meeting in their respective positions: Rev. D. W. Cuttino, President; Revs. R. G. Edwards and R. H. Riley, Vice-Presidents; J. P. Bruce, Treasurer, and W. A. Edwards, Secretary. Rev. A. Buist, of Barnwell, and pastor of the Branchville church extended, in an appropriate address, to the delegates of the convention a hearty welcome from the brethren and citizens of the town.

The following delegates were appointed members of the Executive Committee: J. C. Heaner, L. W. Smoak, S. P. Wells, R. S. Weeks and W. J. Snider. Rev. A. Buist, Col. W. H. Duncan and J. B. Morrow were received as delegates from the Barnwell County Sunday School Convention; and Rev. S. W. Ackerman and M. B. Hill as delegates from the Colleton Sunday School Convention. These brethren were invited to seats on the floor as members of the convention.

After calling the list of delegates it was found that thirty-three were present and fourteen Sunday Schools represented. The following ministers were present: D. W. Cuttino, W. J. Snider, R. J. Edwards, S. W. Ackerman, B. B. Berry, J. B. Morrow, F. P. Robertson, A. Buist and J. J. H. Stoudenmire. All of whom by their counsel and zeal for the cause gave material aid which conducted no little to the success of the meeting. The subjects discussed had a direct bearing upon the moral and religious training of our youth, and it is hoped that the proceedings of this convention and the inspiration, going out into every part of our county from the speeches delivered here, will prove a power in the land for good. The members felt the importance of the work before them and used every effort to expedite the business and to invest the proceedings with the moral power the occasion and the necessities of the times demand.

On Sunday morning Col. W. H. Duncan delivered a most timely and instructive address before the convention and in the afternoon to the children of the Sunday Schools. The audience assembled here on this occasion was the largest ever known for this church having representatives from every denomination in town and the adjoining communities. No slight contribution to the interest and enjoyment of the occasion was made by Mr. Geo. Robinson, of the Augusta Music House, who attended by special request and conducted that part of the services. Under his skill and experience, and assisted by several ladies from Colleton and other places the music was exceedingly fine—equal to any we have ever enjoyed.

As one of the progressive features of this convention we will mention the appointment of an agent to visit the Sunday Schools within the bounds of the Convention and the raising of one hundred and forty-five dollars for his expenses. The convention adjourned on Sunday afternoon after one of the most successful and harmonious sessions we have ever witnessed for a body of this kind. The hospitality of the citizens of Branchville and neighboring communities, without exception, was cordial and liberal beyond anything in our experience and every delegate and visitor returned to his home carrying with him a grateful heart for the kindness and most pleasant recollections of the enjoyments of the occasion.

How Watches are Made.

It will be apparent to any one who will examine a SOLID GOLD WATCH, that aside from the necessary thickness for engraving and polishing, a large proportion of the precious metal used, is needed only to stiffen and hold the engraved portions in place, and supply the necessary solidity and strength. The surplus gold is actually needless so far as UTILITY and beauty are concerned. In JAMES BOSS' PATENT GOLD WATCH CASES this waste of precious metal is overcome, and the SAME SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH produced at from one-third to one-half of the usual cost of solid cases. The process is of the most simple nature, as follows: a plate of nickel composition metal, specially adapted for the purpose, has two plates of SOLID GOLD soldered one on each side. The three are then passed between polished steel rollers, and the result is a strip of heavy plated composition, from which the cases, backs, centres, bezels, etc., are cut and shaped by suitable dies and machinery. The gold in these cases is sufficiently thick to stand up to all kinds of chasing, engraving and enamelling; the engraved cases have been carried until worn perfectly smooth by time and use without removing the gold.

THIS IS THE ONLY CASE MADE WITH TWO PLATES OF SOLID GOLD AND WARRANTED BY SPECIAL CERTIFICATE.
